

1 whatsoever, with no exceptions for anybody.

2 Secondly, there are those who would want a
3 single executive for all principal departments, except the 4 state public school and the institutions of higher educa-
5 tion.

6 Thirdly, there are those who would provide for 7 a board for the state public school system and systems of 8 higher education, and also, like Mr. Storm and Mr. Sybert, 9 would permit the legislature to provide for a board in 10 other instances, so you have three different situations, 11 three different categories of votes, and I don't think the 12 issue can be presented in one issue.

13 I think it is at least two and I think her amend-
14 ment was originally properly divisible and I appeal the 15 ruling of the Chair and suggest we vote A, on the first part,
16 and B, on the second.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: The Chair suggests to Delegate
18 Scanlan that the purpose that he desires to achieve can 19 readily be achieved if he will offer an amendment to the 20 amendment, to add the words "unless otherwise provided by 21 law" to the sentence.
