On the Eastside

By CHARLOTTE W. MASON

Good Neighbor of the week is personable Mrs. Theo Barry a second grade teacher at P.S. No. 149.

She is the wife of Lloyd Barry Sr. and the mother of Lloyd Jr., age 14, who attends Herring Run High School and Peabody, and Stephanie, age 4.

The Barry family attend Waters AME Church, where the Rev. Melvin Swann, is the pastor.

Mrs. Barry is a member of the pastor's Aid.

Our Good Neighbor is active in the NAACP, treasurer of the Suter Road improvement Association and a member-at-large of Holly Manor, the beautiful section where she resides with her family out Catonsville way.

At present she is excited about her new Civic assignment as program chairman for Camp Llewellyn.

Our good neighbor's hobbies include: reading, dancing, cooking, working with children and playing pinochle for added relaxation.

She likes to recite Bible verses. Her favorite is, "I will lift mine eyes unto the hill from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord who made heaven and earth."

Her favorite dish — Imperial Crab.

Add the list of people being kind to a Friend and Neighbor in Time of Trouble — The grand ladies of the Ushers board of Zion Baptist Church.

Last Sunday as I was making a 'pop' call on my good pal, Marie Smallwood and her family, in walks the members of this Christian group loaded with gifts.

Remember neighbors, the Smallwood family home was gutted by fire several weeks back and the family lost everything.

Many others have helped but, I just happened to be on the scene when these Good, Good Neighbors were "Acting" (Marie is an Usher.)

The Rev. Moses Williams is pastor. The Ushers were led in prayer by Mrs. Martha Alston.

Others joining her included: Mesdames Hortense Nelson, Susie Brown, Beatrice Lee, Sally Barnes, Olivia Russell, Drucilla Pittman, Faye Redfern, Ada Epps and Elizabetr Cosby Also Mesdames Thelma McCray;

Also Mesdames Virginia Hutchinson, Ruth Ford, Mary Wright, Hattie Reynolds, Vera Sears, Blanche Carter, Mary Willingham, president; Mrs. Elizabeth Phelps, who gave me the names of those taking part. A deed well-done, neighbors. May God Bless you always.

Members of the Eastside Music Guild held their monthly meeting last week at the lovely Whittier Ave. home of Mrs. Ruth Matthews. Business of the evening was the election of officers.

Elected were: Mrs. Ruth Matthews, president; Mrs. Estelle Carpenter, vice president; Mrs. Woolridge Moore, secretary; Mrs. Romaine Royster, asst. secretary; Jessie B. Lee, treasurer; Mrs. Elizabeth Phelps; program chairman; Mrs. Henry Solomon, business manager; Mrs. Ola Lynch, chaplain; Mrs. Yvonne Solomon, publicity.

Hats Off Neighbors to the Safety Patrol of P.S. No. 116 This group of civic-minded youngsters has more than just the duty of an ordinary Safety Patrol.

They work hazardous corners at Orleans and Aisquith Streets. Nevertheless, they face their task with a determination to insure the safety of the children. Neighbors, they have never had a serious accident on this busy corner to date.

Captain of the group is James Jones. McKeiver Alston is co-captain.

Members include: James Pullett, Michael Thomas, Larry Moore, Derek Lyde, Frank People, James McBride, Fleet Darby, Anthony White, Michael Penn and Eric Custis. Advisers are Mesdames McBride and Charlotte W. Mason. Manly Brohawn is principal.

The Middle Grade Team Classes of PS. No. 139 have provided numerous enriching experiences for the pupils during the term.

There was much excitement when they visited Dr. Cyril Witte's farm in Carroll County awhile back.

Neighbors — you just should have seen trem milking cows darting down hills, roasting hot dogs and marshmallows and partaking of Mrs. Witte's homemade ice cream and cupcakes — yum yum.

Winter fun included a visit to the Morris Mechanic Theatre — also sightseeing tour downtown by Mr. Walker's class. The pupils in Mrs. Sutton's class have been corresponding with crildren in New Mexico.

Librarian Helen Carr is currently participating on Channel 13's "Convo ration in Black and White."

Presently the 14 Team classes are engaged in "revolving teaching" as they emphasize The Negro and His Contributions to American History.

Among the pupil experiences provided are: tour of Dunbar High School; presentation by Dunbar High School Chorus emphasizing "The Negro in Music," with an additional feature of Paul Laurence Dunbar;

Also, a talk by Dr. Herbert Frisby at P.S. 102; discussion of the Negro in Education by Charles Johnson of Fayetteville Teachers College; round robin of "The Negro in Our Community" featuring well known personalities of the Baltimore scene.

Principal, Reginald Watts shared his rare coins depicting George Washington Carver and Booker T. Washington, in addition to teaching the need for building a postive self image and developing pride for one's self and one's race.

Pupils are looking forward to the beginning of the Skating Parties and a return of the Bowling Parties at Lafayette Bowling Center. Faculty members involved in the Middle grade Team program are: Dr. Cyril Witte, Mesdames Catherine Murphy, Dorothy Polk, Sheila Thomas, Malcomia Lockett, Brenda McCoy, Rosie Hutchinson, Esther Harcum, Joan Brown, Catherine Earle, Marian Moore, Helen Beverly, Sedonia Merritt. Also, Misses Joan Milburn, Rosita Graham;

And, Robert Walker and Dwight Sutton. Keep Up the good work Neighbors!!.

we care A&P

This week we'll make and sell about 9 million donuts!

Wonder why?

Well, maybe it's because we make more types of Donuts than probably any other wholesale baker.

We make Golden Donuts, Sugar, Cinnamon, Chocolate, Jelly, Frosted, Homestyle, Glazed and more.

Or maybe it's because our Jane Parker Donuts are known to be light and luscious.

Whatever the reason, it's a fact.

We will make and sell about 9 million donuts this week and average nearly the same every week of the year.

Such popularity must be deserved.

This week, shop A&P. Visit the Jane Parker Department. Pick any donut variety and discover for yourself why they're so popular.
