FASHION NOTE — For her current Las Vegas Appearance, Leslie Uggams, radiant night club, TV and musical comedy star, wears a white silk jumpsuit specially designed by Arthur Doucette for Paul Barnes. The deep plunge bodice is heavily jewelled.

Pants takeover is biggest news in after-six fashions

The pants takeover is the biggest fashion story, this season ... particularly in the field of evening wear.

Pants go to new widths, from suppiest glowing, barely-widened legs to gathers and gathers that look like skirts to blossoming bloomers of haren vintage.

Evening pants may be very cut-out jumpers, or topped by a tunic or combined with elegant shirts and vests or part of a dinner suit. However they come, pants for evening have a today excitement that's hard to beat.

The evening jump suits are extravagant, nude, sexy ... plunging necklines, bared or laced backs, and often, open midriffs. And here, too, is another pant story ... ultra soft, slinky or voluminous.

Here, too, with ornate embroideries, glittering crusts of jewels.

• • •

When sleeveless, the evening jump suit is sometime accompanied by a brief jacket, a bolero, or a tunic.

The only limit one can put on the pants-for-evening is that they are never lethugging. From fitted hips they drop in slight A's, billow out to gather again at the ankle or flow so fully one mistakes them for skirts.

Since Spring will also be a season of do-your-own-thing in fashion, you might add a chiffon, full-sleeved blouse to your collection and wear this with your jump suit for dinner or cocktails.

Or, if, for example, you have a mini-mini (one of the jeweled affairs) lift it just a tiny bit more and wear satin A-liner under it for party time.

It bites!

Good neighbors, schools, Annual Blue Ribbon Tea

By CHARLOTTE W. MASON

Good Neighbor of the Week is attractive Mrs. Hattie Tyler, who is a food supervisor at Johns Hopkins Hospital, where she has been employed for over 18 years.

Although our Good Neighbor is a native of Richmond, Va., she has been a resident of our Eastside for over 22 years.

Her pride and joy is her lovely daughter Tammy, age 10, a 10th grade student at P. S. No. 27.

The Tyler family attends United Baptist Church, the Rev. G. E. Vanderford, pastor.

Our Neighbor is a member of the Eight Pals Social and Charity Club. Her hobbies include: playing the guitar, cooking, creating fancy desserts and cheering for her favorite baseball teams ... the Orioles and Dodgers.

Mrs. Tyler likes to sing "Just A Closer Walk With Thee" and her favorite Bible passage is the 23rd Psalm. Our Good Neighbor likes the color green and she likes steak.

• • •

Calling all ladies (Eastsiders and friends) ... dig in and pull out your best bonnet ... Why? The 25th Annual Blue Ribbon Tea sponsored by the Women's City Wide Committee for Delinquency Prevention.

Neighbors, officers and members are working like 'Mad' to make this a 'Top' affair as always. Steering committee members are: Mrs. Llewellyn H. Walker, chairman; Mrs. Anne L. Payne, president; Mrs. Laura White, co-chairman; Mrs. Dorothy Alford, secretary, and Mrs. Mabel Watts, treasurer.

Remember to make this a must on your list, neighbors ... I'll be looking to see ya'.

This organization really helps in our community. Place: Dunbar High School ... Date March 2 ... time 4 sharp.

• • •

Officers and members of the Royal Moonbeams Charity and Savings Club are busy making plans for their Cabaret Party to be held in late spring.

This 'Eivewire' group has been in the swing for many years.

Proceeds from the affair will be used to complete their $500 pledge to Provident Hospital.

They recently donated $100 to aid a member whose home was destroyed by fire — truly Good Neighbors.

In addition they give clothes and food to the needy all during the year. ... my idea of 'Angels of Mercy.'

They also work in political campaigns to help make our city a better place in which to live, lending at all times great support to their sponsor Honorable Senator Verda F. Welcome.

Members are Mesdames Ida Russell, president; Rosalie Kess, vice president, Emma Nelson, recording secretary; Ethel Jones, treasurer; Florence Carter, corresponding secretary; Annie Kennard, financial secretary; Barbara Cox, coordinator; Mary Ledbetter, chaplain; Adele Tolson, business manager and Lucy Waters.

Watch for the April date of their affair.

• • •

Pretty party of the week was the one given by the popular sisters Mrs. Hattie Tyler and Mrs. Mildred Swan which was held at Mrs. Swan's cute home out Neighbors.

Membership includes: Mesdames Viola Jones, president; Ruth Boulware, vice president; Helen Tilghman, corresponding secretary; Alverta Barrett, recording secretary; Dorothy Boulware, financial secretary; Ida Petty, treasurer; Bertha Wells, chaplain; Marie Smallwood, business manager; Dorethea Barnes, lady at arms. Keep up the good work friends.

• • •

Speaking of clubs, I have been told of the good work being done by the members of the Eight Pals Club.

Purpose of the club is to aid charity organizations by sponsoring fund raising affairs such as bus trips and suppers (they are all great gone cooks, neighbors).

Watch for their next affair.

Members are Mesdames Peggy Marcus, president; Joan Martin, vice president; Dina Allsup, recording secretary; Hattie Tyler, financial secretary; Cora Dixon, treasurer and Jean Billup. We will be hearing more about this group.

• • •

Neighbors, when East meets West we want Eastsiders to know of the good deeds being done by the members of the Welcome Bouvier Ladies Club Inc.

Mrs. Adelle Tolson entertained the group recently during their planning session for their annual spring musical and elegant fashion show.

The members are very excited because the Honorable George L. Russell Jr., city solicitor of Baltimore, will be the guest speaker.

Neighbors, this very worthy group has also contributed $500 to Provident Hospital and donated $200 to the Anna Mae Hunter Home for the Blind on Patterson Park Avenue.

Helping to celebrate the memorable occasion were close friends of the honorees (who came laden with many goodies). Surprise of the evening was the champagne sent by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dean, longtime neighbors and business executives on our Eastside.

Having loads of fun were: Messrs. Grant Doctry, Frank E. Davis, and Levy Cuppers,. Mesdames Mamie Hoggard, Helen Doctry and Martha Alston.

Also Misses Phyllis Wyllie, Betty Goins, Cora Dixon, Bessie Lane, Mary Alston, Estelle Foster, Annette Crippen and Kassandra Hardy and Messrs. William Meeks, James Lane, Charles Alexander, Eddie Carter, Charles Gore, Joseph Crawley, Thomas A. Taylor, Jerome Swan, Reginald Lee and Eddie Carter. Happy Birthday Neighbors.

Pleasant person in our town is Miss Elaine Owens, typist in the Baltimore office of the NAACP.

A product of the Baltimore schools, she worked awhile as a volunteer and proved to be efficient and courteous, causing Dr. Lillie M. Jackson to add her to the regular staff. ... Keep up the good work, Elaine ... you will go far.

The Intermediate Special Curriculum class formerly of Samuel Chase Elementary School No. 135 was invited last week by the Social Studies Class of Unit B, Harlem Square Junior High School to share films on Harriett Tubman, Mary McLeod Bethune and George Washington Carver.

Members of the class include: Dinnie Bishop, William Brown, Michael Brown, John Cogdelle, Brian Horsey, Gregory Jackson and Richardo Jordan. John Demby, Larry Bethea, Harry Robinson, Wesley Smith, Larry Matthews, Tyrone Poole, Celester Sanders. Also Della Mae Chaney, Daphne Crosby, Gloria Peay, Viola Evans, Arlene Jones, Denise Robinson and Sharon Wright.

• • •

Neighbors, the Methodist Men of Centennial United Methodist Church are sponsoring Men's Day this Sunday. Alvin Marshall is the chairman ... Do try to attend.

• • •

Remember, Neighbor, join the NAACP. Needed is your support for the Annual Spring Renewal Campaign. Get on the Band Wagon. Dr. Lillie M. Jackson, president, continues to be Our Champion Fighter of all people's rights. Let us not forget.

Time to sign up under Medicare

Close to 800,000 elderly people will be getting letters this month reminding them that they have only until April 1 to sign up for the voluntary doctor bill insurance under Medicare.

Robert M. Ball, Commissioner of Social Security, advises that for many who missed out on previous opportunities to sign up, the period from now to the end of March will be the last chance to get this protection.

This includes persons who were born October 1901 or earlier, and those who were enrolled in the program earlier, but dropped out Jan. 1, 1967, or before.

• • •

With the doctor bill insurance part of Medicare, elderly people can supplement their basic hospital insurance protection with protection that helps pay doctors' and surgeons' bills and a wide variety of other medical expenses.

Almost 19 million of the elderly are signed up for the protection, but about another million do not yet have the protection.

The Social Security Administration is able to send the Commissioner's letter to 800,000 of them — those who have been issued Medicare cards showing that they are covered only by the basic hospital insurance part of Medicare.

There are perhaps another 200,000 or so for whom the Social Security Administration does not have current addresses, because they have not yet applied for the hospital insurance under Medicare.

• • •

The medical insurance part of Medicare is financed half from the monthly premiums paid by the older persons enrolled and half out of general Federal revenues. So the protection is worth twice the amount of the premium the older person pays.

The basic premium rate is $4 a month, but older people who are late in signing up pay a premium that is 10 percent higher for each full year that they could have been enrolled, but were not.

• • •

People 65 and over who are signed up for the doctor bill insurance under Medicare get help in paying for the following services:

1. Physicians' services in the doctor's office, the hospital, an extended care facility or a nursing home, or in your own home.

2. Up to 100 home health visits each year by visiting nurses and by other health workers from a qualified home health agency, if a doctor arranges for them. (These are in addition to the visits that you may get under the hospital insurance plan after you have been discharged from a hospital or extended care facility.)

3. All covered hospital outpatient services, either for diagnosis or for treatment in the emergency room or outpatient clinic of the hospital.

4. A number of other medical and health services prescribed by your doctor, such as diagnostic services, X-ray or other radiation treatments; surgical dressings and splints, casts, braces; artificial limbs and eyes; and rental or purchase of durable medical equipment, such as a wheelchair or a hospital bed needed at home.

5. Outpatient physical therapy services — whether or not you are homebound — if they are furnished by a hospital or other provider of Medicare services (including approved rehabilitation agencies and clinics) and are under a plan established and periodically reviewed by a doctor.
