Electric workers 'short circuit' their marriage

Earl T. Hayes, 3231 Yosemite, was granted a divorce from his wife, Mrs. Erma L. Hayes, 4001 Maine Ave., this week. Judge William O'Donnell signed the decree Feb. 24. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hayes are employed as electronic wiremen, according to the husband's testimony.

They were married July 29, 1955 and separated June 15, 1966. The husband also told the court the separation was voluntary and his wife left their Yosemite Ave. home after they reached the agreement.

Mrs. Hayes waived her right to alimony and support. She and Mr. Hayes have no children.

Black GOP leaders cold to Morton post

Black Republican leaders in these parts expressed wariness and coldness to the appointment of Eastern Shore's Congressman Rogers C. B. Morton as chairman of the GOP by President Richard M. Nixon.

They recalled that Congressman Morton has been a consistent enemy of civil rights and progressive legislation.

They visualize further that the black community will remember the Morton votes against lifting barriers in its areas and stand firmly hostile to any party building overtures he might make.

John L. Berry, veteran City Planning Commission member who long has been known as "Mr. Republican," had this brief comment to the AFRO:

"I doubt very much whether he can help us get the colored citizen back in the Republican Party."

Marshall W. Jones Jr., GOP minority member of the Supervisors of Elections, was a bit more cautious when asked about his thinking in relation to the Morton appointment effect on the black community.

"I'll have to wait and see after I have a chance to caucus with him," Mr. Jones replied.

Still another who asked to remain anonymous because of party position had colder comments. This leader stated:

"It's one of those wait-and-see things. We are going to have to watch and see just what he does so far as ethnic groups are concerned."

The Morton congressional votes insofar as the black community and other ethnic groups are concerned does not present a promising picture.

He voted against rat control last year, against funds for an expanded anti-poverty program in Nov. 1967, against the Civil Rights Act of 1968 — open housing, against final passage of the entire Act, against the food stamp program in July, 1968, and against the Whitten Anti-Busing Amendments in Oct., 1968, when the school busing measure had been made more liberal by the Senate.

Back in 1964 after the Barry Goldwater presidential campaign, a New York daily quoted Morton as bewailing the Republican Party for:

"Writing off the blacks, writing off labor, writing off young people, writing off ethnic groups."

The Morton congressional voting record, some of which just mentioned, followed those reported remarks.

The GOP National Committee will meet April 14 to ratify or reject President Nixon's appointment of the

Ratliff Singers cite Pauline Lewis tonight

The Ratliff Gospel Singers are holding a star-studded gospel appreciation program for Mrs. Pauline Wells Lewis (WSID), known as the city's No. 1 spiritual hostess.

The event is tonight (Friday), at the First Progressive Baptist Church, 3230 Garrison Blvd., the Rev. B. A. Dawkins is pastor.

Singing groups from Md., D.C. and Del. will participate.

Among performers are Mrs. Katie Jackson, Baltimore; the Mount Olive Free Will Young Adult Choir, James Stephany Swannie Jubilee, Soft Land Gospel Singers, the Souvenir Gosper Sufers, Miss Judy Campbell, Brown Specials, and the Jimmy Smith Singers.

Work almost became play for Directors, Morticians' wives

"Lord, it is good for us to be here . . . that we dine together, gossip together and that we relish this joyous occasion in one another's company, old friendships be strengthened, new friendships arise and old past enmities between friends fade away; that in beholding the genius of the fashion creator, the beauty and grace of the models that we have a greater appreciation for the gifts of creation; that we might learn new ways and means to enhance our own personal beauty, to come to a greater understanding of our own human dignity. And lastly, we ask of our fashion designer that the height be only in price and depth only in length. Lord, it is good to be here."

With this beautiful prayer by Father Walter Cerbin, SSJ, of the Parish of St. Francis and St. Paul, the Ladies Auxiliary of the Funeral Directors and Morticians Association of Maryland settled down to a delicious lunch and the fun of viewing fashions from Pauline Brooks' Salon and the hats of Nell Sheridan. To tell the truth, they were a veritable show of fashions, themselves.

The only other items on program were greetings from the president, Mrs. Junalita Morton, whose coral two-piece knit and colorful print turban, put her in the front line of fashion showing; Mrs. Mae C. Locks, who presided, wore a persimmon knit, with fur hat; Mrs. Gloria Jones in chic black, Mrs. Rosa James in a yellow and black ensemble, topped with fur hat; and Mrs. Ann Dyett in black and white, rounded up a style show at the head table.

Mrs. Sylvia Law, youngest member of the group, in a chic aqua wool, was chairman.

But because they were resting on their laurels, Saturday, at the luncheon held in Holiday Inn Downtown, did not mean they had not put in some solid work. They had packed the ballroom with 280 friends. The receipts, they said, would go to their program projects, which includes a pledge to the Provident Hospital Development Fund and plans for entertaining the national convention in 1970.

Mrs. Morton is president of the Auxiliary. Other officers are Mrs. Floria Jones, vice president; Mrs. Dyett, recording secretary; Mrs. Roberta March, financial secretary; Mrs. Locks, treasurer; Mrs. James, business manager; and Mrs. Margie Chatman, chaplain.

Other members include Mrs. Law, Mesdames Constance Bailey, Helen Brown, Otelia Bullock, June Carroll, Beatrice Gilmore, Lillie Glover, Dorothy Hayes, Mary Hayes.

Also Mesdames Vivian Nutter, Elizabeth Phillips, Doris Rice, Lucille Russ, Alma Wade and Lillian Webb.

The Free Ones, a three-piece combo, provided music for the affair and Mrs. Maizie Rea was commentator for the show.

The wedding of June Woolridge Burkett and Joseph Cornelius Chapman in the chapel of the Morgan Christian Center, Saturday, was the personification of charm.

Choosing her sorority (Delta Sigma Theta) colors to theme her wedding, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin, trimmed at the neck, end of sleeves, dress front and hem with braid. Her bouffant veil was of net, and she carried a cascade of white carnations.

Her maid of honor, Stefanie Woolridge, a cousin; and bridesmaid, Veris Roberts, were in red silk moire gowns, flirtation veils attached to Dior bows and carried red and white carnations.

Noel Phil of Philadelphia was best man. Usher was Robert Burkett, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Chapman is the daughter of Mrs. Robert M. Burkett of Elkridge, Md. and the late Mr. Burkett. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Henry Davis and the late Joseph C. Chapman Sr.

The Rev. Howard L. Cornish read the double-ring ceremony, and the bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Alfred L. Woolridge.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding and reception which followed included Miss Gwendolyn Penner, Mrs. Collis Turner, Lloyd Morgan and Noel Phil, of Philadelphia;

Mr. and Mrs. James Rucker and son, James; Mrs. Ambia Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Scott, Mrs. Earl Clagett, Miss Pearline Woolridge, Mrs. Gladys Patterson and Alfred Patterson of Washington;

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crawford of Richmond, Va. and Mrs. Margaret Harrington of Hampton.

Big Sisters-Little Sisters, Inc. met at their new office at Maryland Ave. and 22nd St., this week to discuss plans for "Anniversary Week" which will begin May 3.

Anniversary Week will include the dedication of the office, a games luncheon, a fun afternoon for the little sisters and open house.

Also enlivening the meeting were the rest of the year's program plans presented by the program chairman, Alma Brown. Aside from the varied activities that the big and little sister share, each month the whole group shares the sistership of an activity together. This month they will have a Movie Party. Events coming up are a Skating Party, a Sewing Bee, a Nature Walk, Bowling, a trip to the Negro History Museum and Nature Center in Washington, D.C. and a Family Picnic.

Another new member was welcomed. She is Peg Risley, formerly of the Eastern Shore.

Members present were Marilyn Oliver, Viola Cox, Mae Keith, Peg Risley, Susie Mattison, Mary Grier, Christine Smith, Grace Black, Wilnetta Sutton, Alma Brown, Myrtle Koger and Mary Carter Smith, who is president of the organization.

Valentine Day is a day for lovers, and so it was for Mr. and Mrs. Grafton Queen.

The couple celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary on February 14.

The following weekend was still a happy occasion for the couple when they were given a surprise anniversary dinner party by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Queen at their Westwood Avenue home.

A large pale pink sheet cake saying happy 45th anniversary set the mood for the occasion.

Mr. Queen has been a professional tailor for 44 years, a 33rd degree mason in Prince Hall Grand Lodge F and AM of Maryland, a past Chancellor Commander of the Knights of Pythias Myrtle Lodge 16, the Past Grand Worthy Shepherd of the Grand United Order of the Nazarites, chairman of the Methodist Carroll Home Brotherhood for the aged for 18 years and a choir member of the Union Memorial United Methodist Church.

Mr. Queen is assisted in his tailoring duties by his son, William Queen.

It was a grand meeting, greeting, kissing and reminiscencing when the Hampton Pals celebrated their annual Feb. 22 get-together.

All fifteen members were present. The majority of this group has been together since school days at Hampton, and therefore, have many common interests and enjoy a fine fellowship.

The fun began when the first two members entered the door and for more than three hours, the chuckling, the oo's, the "do you remember" the can you imagine students walking around with almost no shoes when we were not allowed to wear silk stockings!"

Most of the fifteen members have been together for more than 35 years, during which time, Vernice Wynn has been the only president; Thelma Rice the only secretary; and Patty Page the only treasurer.

The Washington, D.C. Pals who usually share the celebration have been invited for a later party.

The business of the day included the appointment of Malissa Perdue and Catherine Adams as hospitality co-chairmen; a weekend get-together with Malissa at her summer home in Glaster, Va. and a weekend entertainment for out-of-city Hampton friends.

Hostesses were Gwen Scott Roper, Thelma Rice, Mae Parrott and Malissa Perdue.

Memebers attending were:

Thelma Kennedy Rice, Gwendolyn Scott Roper, Catherine Royston, Estelle Thomas, Phyllis Tilley, Zella Washington, Marion Gregory Overton, Vernice Hagans Wynn and Catherine Williams Adams.

The Women of Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church will present Mrs. Pearl Brackett as guest speaker for their Annual Women's Day on Sunday, March 2 at 11 p.m.

With focus on Community involvement these women selected the Assistant Superintendent for Community Schools in Baltimore City to highlight the Sunday services. Several members of the church will be cited also who have recognized and accepted challenges to contribute to community progress. The public is invited.

Mesdames Jean Owens and Audrey Simmons are co-chairmen for the activities culminating on Sunday. On Saturday (tomorrow), a fashion show and luncheon will be held at the Sheraton Inn at 1 p.m., with Pauline Brooks showing new spring attire.

Several family suppers and a bake sale are other recent efforts of these hard-working women to raise funds for renovation of their church.

The amazing wit, sense of drama and spectacular inventiveness of characterization was vividly demonstrated by the Arena Players in their performance, A BOUQUET OF VALENTINES, in honor of the Modern Mothers and their guest.

The Modern Mothers held their annual luncheon, Saturday at the Emerald Gardens. Impressive was the fashion show by the sixth graders of school No. 204, "AFRICAN INFLUENCE IN FASHIONS." So was the seemingly natural smooth performance of each child under direction of Mrs. Carol Bell.

There were musical renditions at the beginning of the program by the Mary E. Rodman Boys' Choir of school No. 204. An African Prayer "KUM-BA-YA" was performed under the direction of Miss Ruth Thornton.

On display was an African exhibit, a gift to the club by Becky Davis, a Modern Mother currently in Paris with family.

Mrs. Davis made the gift when she was living in Ghana.

Members of the Modern Mothers are:

Mesdames Nancy Barrick, Rebecca Davis, Mabel Gee, Ruth Glenn, Beatrice Holley, Joyce Holley, Dorothy Johnston, Margaret Koger.

Mesdames Iris Lee, Genevieve Mason, Rosa Murray, Clarice Parrish, Ruth Redwine, Charlotte Watkins, Lucille Williams and Rowena Wingfield.

What Do Doctors Advise First For Painful Hemorrhoids?

Conservative treatment usually recommended in most cases of simple, common piles.

New York, N.Y.: Many doctors who keep up with modern practices feel a more conservative treatment (such as sitz baths, and proper medication) should first be tried to relieve hemorrhoids. And what makes effective medication could one desire than this exclusive formula which doctors found in most cases—actually shrinks inflamed, swollen hemorrhoids, and promptly relieves pain and burning itch.

Tests on hundreds of patients by leading doctors in New York City, Washington, D.C. and at a Midwest Medical Center proved this so.

This doctor-tested medication also helps check the discharge (embarrassing 'seepage') that causes itching and irritation. It soothes inflamed tissues and spreads a protective coating over the injured area to help guard against further irritation and infection. In addition, it lubricates, softens and makes bowel movements less painful.

The name of this hemorrhoid treatment is Preparation H® and there's no other treatment like it. Preparation H is so effective it outsells all other hemorrhoid remedies combined and no prescription is needed. In ointment or suppository form.
