Irving Bevans, former scout master, dies

Funeral services were held for Irving Bevans, 71, of 3207 Yosemite Ave. yesterday (Thursday).

Mrs. Bevans died on Sunday in Lutheran Hospital after a long illness.

The services were held in a chapel of the Herbert E. Nutter Funeral home. Services and graveside rites were officiated by Father Donald O. Wilson of St. James Episcopal Church.

Burial was in the Baltimore National Cemetery.

Mr. Bevans was employed by the Baltimore Chamber of Commerce where he served as messenger for 16 years. He retired from this position in 1964.

Born in Baltimore, he was the son Mrs. Mattie Bevans and the late William Bevans.

He attended the public schools of Baltimore, and Cooper Union in New York.

He served in World War I in Europe and France.

He was a member of St. James for 20 years.

Mr. Bevans was scout master in Baltimore and New York and was active in District Scout affairs until his illness.

He was also a member of the American Legion.

Mr. Bevans is survived by his wife, Mrs. Otelia J. Bevans; one son, I. Eugene Bevans of Washington; one step-daughter, Mrs. Gwendolyn Chambers of Baltimore; and one step-granddaughter, Miss Jewel C. Chambers of Washington.

Other survivors include four brothers, Clyde, Arnett, Sylvan and Mason Bevans, and one daughter-in-law, Mrs. Terrie S. Bevans.
