Md. State eyes title

KANSAS CITY — Maryland State College, with a good chance to go all the way, clinched fourth place in the NAIA national basketball championship tournament here Thursday night.

The Hawks won their third game of the week-long event in downing Montclair (NJ) State College, 99-94. The victory put the Eastern Shore five in the semi-finals to be played tonight (Friday) against another night (Friday) against Central Washington State.

* * *

The Hawks fought their way into the quarter-finals with a thrilling 85-83 victory over Stout State College of Menomonie, Wisc., on Wednesday night.

Jake Ford, top scorer for the Maryland State five during the season, was on one of his best nights. He hit 15 field goals and caged ten of ten from the foul line, a total of 40 points.

Out in front by as much as 11 points at halftime, Maryland dissipated the advantage to be caught in a 74-74 tie at the end of regulation. But Ford hit six straight points to propel the Hawks to the lead, 80-74, from which point they were able to stand off the stubborn Stout quint.

The previous night, the CIAA aggregation topped a favored Wartburg State College team of Iowa, 99-90.

Ford again was on a scoring binge, hitting for 41 points, five more than his teammate, Bill Stewart.

Judge Howard's message, 'black is beautiful'

Supreme Bench Judge Joseph Howard this week brought the students at Harlem Junior High School to their feet in a long, loud standing ovation for a speech he delivered, giving four steps on "the ladder of success."

"Learn to Believe in Yourself, Be Yourself, Learn to Be Your Best Possible Self," and "Learn to Be Proud of What You Are," were the four steps he advised.

* * *

"The pride about which I speak of, of course, is pride in our blackness. We have every reason to be most proud of that blackness.

"You should take pride in knowing that the seed money upon which this nation was made great was built with black arms, legs and backs. That the verility (physical strength) of all men is measured by black athletes and that the only genuinely new cultural contribution made by the country in the field of music, is the Negro Spiritual," he told his young audience.

* * *

"If a beauty contest required qualifications by Europe, Asia, Africa and American standards, what woman but the black woman could qualify for all. What woman could produce hair from the silky soft to the beautiful bush.

"The contrast of pearly teeth against a dark background, color from the snow-white to a jet black and lips of unmatched lines and voluptousness. I know of no woman on this earth as beautiful as a black woman."

The occasion of Judge Howard's address was the presentation of an Outstanding Citizen award to Lenny Moore, Baltimore Colt football stand-out.

Judge Howard talked about his first point, learning to believe in your-self, by citing statements made by Robert Kennedy and Thomas Edison.

* * *

"And as a rather personal note, in July, 1968, I decided to be the first black judge ever to be elected on the Supreme Bench level in the United States of America. . . if there was fear on my face, I hid it and I started to sing as I tackled the thing that couldn't be done; and, I did it. Believe in yourself."

He added the story of David and Goliath as an example of how to "be yourself."

The meanings of the story are "if David had tried to fight Goliath with Saul's weapons, and armor, he would have indeed never lived to be the King of Israel but when he chose to be himself and use his own tools, he was in the best possible position to fight.

"You should note that it only took one stone to down the Giant and young David had five. This tells us we all have enough tools to get the job done."

The third step before pride, was "learning to be your best possible self" which Judge Howard said is based in faith.

He told his audience that Sir Walter Scott had a clubfoot "and had to limp through life.

"Stevie Wonder and Ray Charles, two of the finest artists of our time are blind but they overcame their limitations to make significant contributions to us all.

"Likewise; we all suffer setbacks and defeats in life." He referred to Adam Powell, "a Promethean personality, a power in Congress . . . fought back through black people and from the Island of Bimini (told his friends) 'Keep the faith baby'"

We know how it is. You think of this whisky as something special. So you drink it sparingly. Maybe 2 or 3 holidays a year. But if you had the good taste to buy it in the first place, why deny yourself? Try Crown Royal on a day you don't have off. You deserve it.

Seagram's Crown Royal is so good you hate to drink it. But if you don't, what good is it?

Cobra strikes again!

Torino Cobra wins Daytona 500

Three races—three wins. Right on top of a 1-2-3 finish in the Riverside 500 and victory in the ARCA 300, Ford's Torino Cobras take three of the top four places in the Daytona 500, with Lee Roy Yarbrough piloting the winning car. All of the 50 cars that started were specially modified for racing. Only 28 made it to the finish line. More proof that Torino Cobra is built to take it.

You get a lot of this same kind of winner-take-all action in the Cobras you'll find in your Ford Dealer's Performance Corner. And at a price below belief. Cobra comes with a standard 4-barrel 428 CID V-8, rated at 335 horsepower. There's a Cobra Jet Ram-Air version available. Transmission is a trigger-quick, fully synchronized 4-speed box. There's a chassis to match, with competition suspension, staggered rear shocks, 6-inch wheel rims, belted wide-tread F70 x 14 white sidewall tires, hood lock pins—the works. Two-Door SportsRoof or Hardtop models. Try some Cobra action for yourself at your Ford Dealer's Performance Corner. See why Going Ford is the Going Thing!

JOHNSON — A Birthday Tribute to my husband, RUFUS JOHNSON, on his birthday, March 16th:
Across the bridge of memory
To greet your birthday GEORGE, dear,
I send my thoughts of sweetest love,
To you who dwell in Heaven above.
Your Loving Wife,

NEAL — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my husband and our father, JAMES W. (Shorty) on his birthday March 12, who passed away March 2, 1961:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb,
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Loving Wife, LULA
Gone, dear father, gone forever,
How we miss your smiling face;
But you left us to remember
None on earth can take your place.
