

1 of 20.

2 They could step in and control the situation.
3 This amendment allows total flexibility and control of the 4 state.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Any other delegate desire to speak
6 in favor of the amendment to the amendment? If not, the 7 Chair recognizes Delegate Koss.

8 DELEGATE KOSS: I have to rise and disagree with 9 Delegate Gullett. The way I read it, the general law
10 would have no authority to step in except by Constitution-
11 al amendment in terms of the age.

12 Am I wrong in that?

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gullett.

14 DELEGATE GULLETT: You are wrong.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Koss, it seems to me as
16 a Constitutional provision when it says no municipal cor-
17 poration may establish a voting age of more than 19, if 18 you were assuring me that the General Assembly can at 19 that point say that they can't also establish at least 20 18 --

21 DELEGATE GULLETT: That is the intent.
