Jolly Boys Social Club celebrates

The officers and members of the Jolly Boys Social Club met for their Annual Birthday Celebration on Sunday, Feb. 24.

The group, with their wives, journeyed to the Hogate's Dining Room on Maine and Ninth Streets, N.W., Washington, D.C., where they had a birthday dinner.

In the group was Jesse Mortis, Mrs. Inez Mortis, Wallace J. Waters, Mrs. Carrie R. Waters, Mrs. Ethel L. Jones, Thomas L. Jones, Louis Blackwell, Mrs. Annie Blackwell, Wilbert Hooper, Mrs. Hilda Hooper, Mrs. Mary Frazier and Thomas E. Frazier.

The club was organized in 1948. The group has been influential in community activities, including the Provident Hospital Redevelopment Project.

The officers are: president, Jesse Mortis; secretary, Thomas Jones, and treasurer, Wilbert Hooper.

FASHION NOTE: Femininity is the forte of Jaeger's Spring-Summer collection, so beautifully illustrated by left, above: a soft and elegant at-home costume, the long woven wool dinner skirt, a melange of green, yellow and white, shown with a curved poison green linen weskit and white cashmere skirt with tabbed front and buttoned cuffs. Center, Jaeger combines a green and white checked hopsack dirndl skirt with green curved linen weskit over a brass buttoned white permanent press blouse trimmed with brass buttons. At right, defining look for Spring and Summer from Jaeger is fitted white gabardine coats, double pocketed and outlined with welt seaming over full white gabardine pants.
