It's time for Girl Scout cookies again

It's time for Girl Scout Cookies again! Between March 21st and March 30th, nearly 30,000 Junior, Cadette and Senior Girl Scouts of the Baltimore Area Council will be selling cookies in your neighborhood.

Girls provide more than ¼ of the expense of Scouting in the Council through their personal efforts in the Cookie Sale. Conduct of the sale is basic to the program because each girl learns through selling the value of trust, teamwork, loyalty, courtesy and a smile!

She learns to follow instructions cheerfully and carefully. Most of all, she knows that she is directing her own future each time she rings your doorbell!

TEENAGE SWEETHEARTS — Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Wilkins observed their 25th wedding anniversary with a week of celebrating. As result of a diving accident, Mr. Wilkins has been confined to a wheel chair for the past 18 years. They are the AFRO's "Solid American Family" of the week. From left, Mrs. Mille R. Wilkins, daughter Mrs. Meba W. Brown, and Mr. Wilkins holding granddaughter Tonya N. Brown.

FAMILY OF WEEK

Wilkinses mark 25th anniversary

Teenage sweethearts for four years, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Edwards Wilkins observed their 25th wedding anniversary with a round of celebrating this week.

On Sunday they were feted with a champagne-dinner held in the Flagship Restaurant in Washington, as guests of Dwight and Christine Brooks of Greenbelt, Md.

A family gathering of 12 wined and dined with the happy couple, at their Barrington Ave. home on Monday evening.

Just a trifle exhausted on Tuesday, the Mr. and his Mrs. enjoyed a solitary "toast" alone.

The rest of the week was scheduled to be just as festive and exciting.

They are the AFRO's "Solid American Family" of the week.

"Though married for 25 years, it has not been without problems and any other way would have been monotonous."

These words were spoken by Mr. Wilkins, who as a result of a driving accident 18 years ago, is a paraplegic.

The accident occurred in Mills Creek near Annapolis, at the summer home of a relative while he was swimming.

Mr. Wilkins explains. "Through the help of rehabilitation, the patience, love and encouragement of my wife, I have lived a very useful and happy life, and I am able to go anywhere."

Mr. Wilkins continues. "Shortly after the accident, I felt as though I couldn't go on, but then I realized that I would be a disappointment to the late Dr. James Pair, my wife and family, and my friends if I didn't make it, after all their help and encouragement."

"Without my wife I couldn't have made it; we live as near an average life as anyone else, perhaps we are closer to each other because of this accident. We just try to enjoy life as much as we can and we are kind of proud of our little family," he said.

Mr. Wilkins is a member of Community Business Service Associates (CBSA). He operates his business under the name of "Wilkins Photo Copy Service," which came about through the cooperation and sponsorship of the division of Partial Rehabilitation and the cooperation of the 3M Company (Minnesota Minning and Manufacturing).

His services include lamanating, addressing and mailing; transparences, mailing list, photocopy, mimeographing and some typing.

Both natives of Baltimore Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins, attended the city schools and graduated from Douglass High School in 1942.

They are the parents of one child, Mrs. Neva W. Brown, who is employed by Job Corps as a teachers-aide, and is a Morgan State College night student.

They worship together, Mrs. Wilkins is a lifetime member at St. Catherine's Episcopal Church and Mr. Wilkins is a member of over 20 years.

He is a charter member of the Tuscan Lodge No. 90 of the Prince Halls Masons.

Mrs. Wilkins (Millie), is a designer of fashions and jewelery and has appeared in several fashion shows featuring her own designs.

She is a past member of Jack and Jill; a former member of National Association of Fashions, and a former Coordinator of "Cotillions" for the Girl Friends of Baltimore.

She is a long time employee by the C and P Telephone Company.

Mr. Wilkins loves to cook, during his tour duty in World War II his job was cooking.

And of course, you must remember 'Wilkins Delicatessen' when it was on Pennsylvania Ave. near W. North Ave., during the 40's and early 50's.

They served the best kosher hot dogs and brownies. It was a nice place to meet friends after school and after a Sunday matinee; remember the Madison Theater was just up the street from 'Wilkins.'

The Wilkins are football fans; they used to attend the games at the stadium but because of the weather conditions decided to watch televised games.

They are the grandparents of one grandchild, Tonya N. Brown.

Black woman new chairman

The D.C. Republican Committee announced that the Acting Chairman of the Republican Party in the District of Columbia is Mrs. Howard Jenkins Jr., 1333 Tuckerman St., NW, a vice chairman of the D.C. Republican Committee.

Mrs. Jenkins will preside at the meeting called for March 25, 1969, at which time the committee will elect an interim chairman to serve from March 25 until June, 1969.

Mrs. Jenkins, wife of Howard Jenkins Jr., Republican member of the National Labor Relations Board, will be the first Afro-American chairman of the Republican Party of the District of Columbia.

been a social worker, but a teacher. Her experience gives her the background needed for the job as head of New Careers. She attended Boylan-Haven Finishing School in Jacksonville, Florida. Upon receiving her Bachelor of Arts degree at Howard University in Washington, D.C. she began her teaching career.

Mrs. Willis did graduate later at Loyola College in Baltimore, Howard University and Catholic University in Washington.

After teaching in various schools in Virginia, she came to Baltimore, when she began her career social work. Her interest in teaching was strong, however, and she returned to the classroom in the public schools.

She was selected to becoming training co-ordinator of the New Careers Program in September, 1968. When the director left the program it was natural that Mrs. Willis would move into the top position.

Mrs. Willis follows her own home-making career as the wife of Johns S. Willis. The couple have three childrn, Chryl, John, Jr. and Karen.

THREE GENERATIONS of teachers are represented in this family picture by AFRO staff photographer I. Henry Phillips. Far right, Mrs. Cyrus W. Marshall Sr., retired Baltimore teacher. Bids are out for what promises to be one of the biggest Bashes of the season, the Mod, Mod, Psychedelic Happening of the Charmettes, inc. on May 30 at Martin's West.

This usually sedate club of civic-minded women is going all out, mod all the way, in this effort to aid their charities, Provident Hospital, Boys Village and the Crownsville State Hospital.

Each one will be doing his own thing, "fly vines," (wild clothes), natural looks and what have you, are expected. If the club has its usually tremendous following, there will be hundreds on hand to see the Charmettes crown their Flower Child of '69. Music Will be by Bobby Duel Sax Wilkes Combo and Organ.

Newly elected officers are Margaret Wilkins, president; Henrietta Bailey, vice president; Rosamond Diggs and Naomi Hayes, financial secretaries; Juliette Carpenter and Stella Taylor, corresponding secretary and treasurer; Marie Bowen, sergeant at arms and Delores Gregory, business manager.

Daisy Wilkins is sinking fund chairman. Victorine Adams, Elizabeth Crawley and Josephine Smith are other members.

The Pleasurette's Social Club met on Sunday at the home of Mrs. Ellsworth Bailey and elected the following new officers:

Mrs. Velma Bailey, president; Mrs. Betty Howard, secretary; Mrs. Doretha Woodford, vice president; Mrs. Rathier Harris, financial secretary; Mrs. Pauline Bynum, treasurer; Mrs. Irene Johnson, chaplain; Mrs. Lillian Patterson and Mrs. Helen Jackson, banking committee; Mrs. Geneva Moses, business manager; and Mrs. Edna Wood, chairman of social committee.
