Birthday Tribute

JONES — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my mother, STANDOLA W. JONES, on her birthday, March 21st, who passed away January 20, 1967.
I do not need a special day
To bring you to my mind;
The days I do not think of you
Are very hard to find.
If all this world were mine to give,
I'd give it, yes, and more,
To see the face of my dear mother
On this her Birthday Morn.
Daughter, INDIA WILLIAMS

MACK — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my husband and our father, NATHANIEL MACK, on his birthday, March 21st, who passed away December 29, 1964.

A treasured gift, a kiss sincere.
Now you're gone, we miss you so,
No gift, no kiss on you to bestow.

DORSEY — In loving memory of my dear son and nephew, IRVING A. DORSEY, who passed away March 24, 1968:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed His loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His now-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Loving MOTHER and AUNT

Gone, dear father, gone forever,
How we miss your smiling face,
But you left us to remember
None on earth can take your place.
A happy home we once enjoyed,
But death has left a loneliness
Not even the memory still,
The world can never fill.

A little grief, a short sad sorrow,
It was in part with one so dear.

For all of us you did your best
Oh, Gave grant you eternal rest.

GRIFFITHS — In loving memory of our dear mother, SARAH SPRIGGS GRIFFITHS, who passed away March 23, 1956:

She never closed her eyes in sleep
Till we were all in bed,
On party nights till we came home
She often sat and read.
We little thought about it then,
When we were young and gay,
How much our mother worried
When we children were away.
We only knew she never slept
When we were out at night
And that she waited just to know
That we'd come home all right.
We sometimes when we stayed away
Till one or two, or three;
It seemed to us that mother heard
The turning of the "key".
For always, when we stepped inside,
She called and we'd reply;
But we were all too young back then
To understand just why.
Until the last one had returned,
She always kept a light.
For mother couldn't sleep until
She'd kissed us all good-night.
Children, BESSIE, JOSEPH, BERNICE, BERNARD, LOIS, EVELYN, JAMES, DELATOUR, JR. and ISAIAH

No finer son this world would hold.

And you sit alone and broken-hearted,
Trying to find something in a kindred mind
Life always leaves a sense behind

The pain it was to see you go.
Yet memory softens everything—
The grave is robbed — death is resting.
