Miss Hutchins was DES employee, church leader

Two funeral services were held Monday for Miss Mary Virginia Hutchins, 41, ardent church worker, and a Maryland Department of Employment Security worker.

She died unexpectedly at her home, 1902 N. Monroe St. on Thursday.

The morning service was conducted at Christ United Methodist Church by the pastor, the Rev. Kenneth P. Barnes.

The final rites were conducted by the Rev. J. Ringgold, pastor of the John Wesley United Methodist Church in her hometown Carmichael, Queen Anne County, Md. Burial followed in the local cemetery.

Miss Hutchins was well known in Methodist circles in Baltimore where she came to live in 1940's, affiliating with the then Old East Hoffman St. Methodist Church, now Christ Church.

She served in numerous capacities, beginning as church clerk, later becoming church secretary, a post she held at the time of her death.

She had been Sunday School teacher, membership secretary, a member and later vice-president of the church's Women's Society of Christian Service.

In addition, she was a Reserve, then Lay Delegate of the Annual Conference, a member of the Christian Social Concerns on the Conference Level, and president of the North Point Zone.

Miss Hutchins, a state employee since 1957 last worked at the DES Youth Opportunity Center in the 1700 block of N. Charles St.

She was the daughter of Miss Mary Gren and James E. Hutchins. She attended the public schools of Quen Anne County and was graduated from Kennard High School.

She earned a certificated in business education from Dunbar Evening High School, and studied at Morgan State College.

In addition to her parents, Miss Hutchins is survived by a son, Robert Scott; two brothers, James Hutchins and George Fisher—two sisters, Misses Alice and Dorothy Hutchins, and a number of aunts and uncles.

Thomas Thompkins, 69

Funeral services were held Monday at Phillips Funeral Home for Thomas Thompkins, a long time employee of Frigidaire Sales Corporation and resident of Cherry Hill.

Mr. Thompkins, 69, died Wednesday, March 12, at Johns Hopkins Hospital after a short illness. He lived at 522 Bridgeview Rd.

When he retired from Frigidaire in 1966 he was honored with a luncheon attended by the entire personnel of the company. He had worked with the Frigidaire since 1951 when he was hired as an assistant warehouseman. He was later promoted to warehouseman.

When the company furnished this function over to a warehousing firm, he took care of maintenance. Prior to his retirement, Mr. Thompkins was Shipping and Receiving Clerk in the Parts Department, a position he had held since 1944.

He was the first Frigidaire employee in the Baltimore office to retire at 65.

Mr. Thompkins was a native of Danville, Va. and a veteran of World War I. He was known to his family as a sports enthusiast and "a real Orioles fan." He was also active in the First Baptist Church, Caroline and McElderry Sts.

He is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Lurcinda Burns and Mrs. Ethel Valentine of Baltimore, and Mrs. Elanor Biven of New York; and three brothers, Marshall and Russell, both of Baltimore, and William, who lives in Los Angeles.

Howard Dorsey, former valet

A requiem mass for Howard S. Dorsey, valet for the late Governor Albert C. Ritchie and a headwaiter at Baltimore restaurants for 30 years, will be offered today (Friday) at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, 523 W. Mosher St.

Mr. Dorsey, 61, died Monday of a heart attack. He had been ill since September.

For the past 20 years, Mr. Dorsey had been the head waiter at Hollander's restaurant.

As now for his good memory, a friend recalled "He never forgot a name or a face."

Mr. Dorsey served Governor Ritchie from 1920 to 1935. A loyal Democrat, he declined an appointment with the Republican Governor, Harry W. Nice, who succeeded Mr. Ritchie.

Mr. Dorsey is survived by his wife, at 1209 W. Mosher St.; a son, Howard S. Dorsey, Jr., of Baltimore; three daughters, Mrs. Annabelle D. Wells, Miss Emma M. Dorsey, and Mrs. Pauline Dorsey, all of Baltimore; four stepsons, John M. Dungee and Lorenzo M. Dungee, both of Baltimore, Mark A. Dungee, of Philadelphia, and Charles J. Dungee, of Washington, and 14 grandchildren.

—City Council

delete money for a portion or the whole rests with the city council," Mr. Goldberg stated.

Under the Model Cities charter the agency is under the mayor's office, and "a department head controls expenditure and flow of funds," Mr. Goldberg added in his legal consultation with the council.

The third question was answered to the effect that Model Cities must come to the council for approval of programs and supplemental implementation.

Fifth District Councilman Reuben Caplan, a constant foe of anti-poverty efforts, stated that "I don't want them to have that power to put it bluntly."

Second District Councilman Joseph V. Mach asked whether "Model Cities can't become a government within a government."

Mr. Goldberg said that "if local law bars it, there is no way it can supersede local law."

Mr. Mach had earlier announced that "I don't appreciate being criticized by anyone including the press. I have a moral responsibility to the people who elected me."

The mood of the city council appears to forecast some severe trimming in the $10 million proposed budget for Model Cities.

First District Council man Dominic DiPietro said that "I'm gonna question these big jobs." The salaries of administrative professionals were called into question by most of the councilmen at the meeting, and Model Cities Directore William G. Sykes admitted that they might be cut down.

Fifth District Councilman Alexander Stark told Mr. Sykes that "some of these salary levels are not consistent with existing city levels" and that an adjustment would "make up on the council more comfortable."

—Deputy sheriff

is a political appointment. The sheriff is elected every four years. Although the deputies are nominated by the state senator, the sheriff must accept them.

Chriscoe was appoined by Sen. Verta Welcome and Hollis was tapped by Sen Carl Friedlow. Hollis is the first black deputy sheriff from the 5th district.

"When I started I was the third colored deputy. That was only two years ago," recalls Chriscoe. Of the 39 deputies in the state, five colored. Besides Hollis and Chriscoe, there are Nathaniel Brown, Willie T. Jones, and Robert Morsell.

Brown, Jones, and Morsel, like Chriscoe, were appointed from the fourth district by Sen. Wecome.

"I believe in law enforcement. I'm sure of that I've worked with the Boy Scouts, I've seen the need for law enforcement in the community," Deputy Chriscoe told the AFRO.

Mr. Hollis was born in Greensboro, N.C. and has been in Baltimore since the '40's. He was a sergeant in the army and served in Korea and Europe.

"I went to school then and took photography. I also studied interior decorating and upholstering. Then I worked for Acme Warehouse as a grocery selector for 17 years."

"I went from there to the sheriff's office."

In the community, Deputy Chriscoe, 42, is still a member of the PTA at school 146 although he says he will never be president again. He is a member of the Official Board of the John Wesley United Methodist Church where he is chairman of the Commission of Social Concern.

His wife, Mrs. Lula Chriscoe, is self-employed as a grocery store owner. They have four childre, Ronald, who works with army Intelligenc; Donna and Michael, students at Forrest Park High School; and Ricardo, attends school No. 148.

Deputy Hollis is a native of Baltimore and a graduate of Carver High School. He is married to Mrs. Marian Hollis, who works for the Social Security Administration; and he is a member of numerous community groups including the NAACP and CORE.

Mystery man sought for shooting

A 19-year-old West Baltimore man is in good condition in Provident Hospital after being shot in the neck by an assailant known only as "Henry."

James Madden, of the 2600 block Woodrock Ave., told police that he "was lying in the middle of his bedroom" when a young man, wearing combat boots, and a brown jacket entered and shot him "for no reason at all."

Police reported that they found Mr. Madden lying in a pool of blood on the steps of food market in the 2600 block Woodbrook Ave. Police say he had been wounded by a .22 caliber bullet.

Sen. Welcome says U. of Md. segregates

Senator Verda F. Welcome, (Balto. City, 4th) announced today that she will ask the Legislature to investigate the possibility of discrimination and negligence in the housing policies and practices at the University of Maryland.

"As the result of interviews with students at the University of Maryland, I have been led to believe that discrimination exists in dormitory assignments, and that general negligence may also be accepted in regard to the housing and handling of students," said Senator Welcome.

According to the Baltimore City Legislator, she has reason to believe that students are granted a change of room if they dislike being placed with a black student.

In addition, complaints are stiffled and difficulties smoothed over to avoid publicity.

"Such conditions at our state university are of serious concern to the Legislature," declared Senator Welcome. "They are contrary to public interest and detrimental to good education."

"Because I believe that it is important that investigation be initiated into possible undesirable practices of this nature as soon as it is practical, I shall ask to be permitted to introduce legislation under a suspension of the rules, to authorize this study," asserted Senator Welcome.
