

1 have to tell you it is another example where a beautiful,
2 sophisticated lady can twist a bunch of men around her
3 finger.

4 However, a few days later we came to our senses
5 and realized that this went far further than we thought it
6 ought to go in a Constitution.

7 Now, I can't help, when I think of all the things
8 that this would do, of the cartoon that I am sure you have 9 seen, of the high school girl sitting on the phone who 10 hears a click and says, "Mother, if that is you
11 on the other line, just remember wiretapping is an inva-
12 sion of privacy and illegal."

13 This is fraught with great danger. It is a 14 real raid on the treasury and goes far, far further than 15 any court has ever decided, because we do not get into 16 civil and administrative matters.

17 It would louse up the divorce actions, and 18 goodness knows what it would do.

19 I must say this to you. We are in a very compli-
20 cated field of wiretapping and eavesdropping with electronic 21 devices and so forth. We put in this Constitution a very