

1 court.

2 DELEGATE CHILD: That is what bail is, to secure
3 his appearance for trial.

4 DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Key.

5 DELEGATE KEY: I am not talking now about the 6 word "bail". I am talking now about other terms to 7 secure his appearance before the court.

8 DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Child.

9 DELEGATE CHILD: Well, I didn't write this
10 section. That is one objection to it, that the terms
11 there are ambiguous to me.

12 DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Bamberger has been
13 trying to get the floor; Judge Sherbow, I will recog-
14 nize you next.

15 Delegate Barberger.

16 DELEGATE BAMBERGER: Delegate Child, you say
17 that under Section 8, the General Assembly may provide 18 lesser conditions than bail. It may, for instance, allow 19 a person to be released without bail; that is, on his 20 own promise that he would be back for the trial. Isn't 21 it true that unless this Section 5-B is included in the
