

1 DELEGATE CHILD: He always has the right of
2 writ of habeas corpus to appear, make the state show
3 evidence why he should be held.

4 DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Bennett.

5 DELEGATE BENNETT: That is rather a weak
6 weapon, isn't it, Judge?

7 DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Child.

8 DELEGATE CHILD: It is what?

9 DELEGATE BENNETT: It is rather a weak remedy
10 he has to file for writ of habeas corpus.

11 DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Child.

12 DELEGATE CHILD: It is one of the strongest
13 remedies in the entire section of law.

14 DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Bennett.

15 DELEGATE BENNETT: I will debate that with 16 you further, but do you feel it is the only remedy he has
17 under that act if he was committed for preventive inten-
18 tion, which in fact it is, and that would be the writ
19 of habeas corpus?

20 DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Child.

21 DELEGATE CHILD: Well, if he didn't choose, or
