(Mrs. Maurce Adams and Mrs. Nathan Pitts) were fantastic at the former's supper party on Wednesday evening.

That is, fantastic to look at, what, with Mrs. Adams, who was hostess, wearing a floor-length caftan in blue green crepe, silver bordered at neckline, sleeves and hem; and Mrs. Pitts, who was honoree, in pants suit, which had a sear four-inch revealing front, from neckline to waist line, with but a couple of narrow straps to keep the vertical line plumb.

Dr. and Mrs. Adams were entertaining at their Morgan Park home for Dr. and Mrs. Pitts, who will be in Paris, France (as of January 30th) for at least two years. Dr. Pitts will be doing a stint for UNESCO via the U.S. State Department, and Mary is taking a sabbatical from City Schools here, to spend the time with him.

The Adamses had invited guests for a long cocktail hour beginning at seven. The sip and chat section of the party in the club room was followed by a seated supper on the first floor.

Guests, who came early, and, after dining, returned to the club room and stayed late were:

Mrs. Blanche Walden of Chicago; Dr. and Mrs. Robert L. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hunt, Dr. and Mrs. Albert Lafargue, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Fuller, Dr. and Mrs. W. Leroy Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Markay, Mr. and Mrs. Jones; Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Irving Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Norris, and Dr. and Mrs. Fred Adams.

Fellowship House is giving a testimonial luncheon for its former director, Miss Ruth Fegley, on Saturday, Jan. 16.

The 1 p.m. event will be at the Sheraton Belvedere Hotel.

Miss Fegley was director of Fellowship House from 1958 to its closing in March, 1970.

Mrs. Naomi Camper, 3406 Powhatan Ave., is testimonial chairman. Persons wishing to obtain the $5.50 subscriptions may reach her at home or call 367-9214.

Ministers' wives hold 35th anniversary

Among many friends and well wishers and a beautiful yuletide decor, THE BAPTIST MINISTERS, WIVES ALLIANCE of BALTIMORE and VICINITY celebrated their 35th anniversary at MARTIN'S WEST recently. Mrs. Louise Graves presided.

The Occasion was given by Mrs. Roberta Williams, the theme for the affair was "CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP."

Felicitations were expressed by Mrs. Felicia Adams, president, Maryland Association of Ministers Wives; Clarence Gittings, Baltimore Public schools; Mrs. Dorethea Jordan, president, Interdenominational Ministers Wives Alliance and the Rev. Carlton Cooke, president of Baptist Ministers Conference.

Certificates were presented to eight of the ministers wives who founded the alliance 35 years ago. They are Mesdames Anna Jordon, Eva White, Euther Taylor, Johnsy Jennings, Adele Payne, Maymie Hall, Bertha Winston and Roberta Williams.

The guest speaker for the occasion was Mrs. Aurelia Downey, president, Nannie H. Burroughs School, Washington, D.C.

Her subject was "What Are You Wrapping Up And What Are You Giving For Christmas."

Music was rendered by Miss Florence R. Shipman of Mt. Hebron Baptist Church.

Officers for the year were installed by Dr. Walter E. Paige, president, Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention.

The officers are: Mesdames Helen Brackett, president; Chestine Nance, 1st Vice Pres.; Jerolyn Stewart, 2nd Vice Pres.; Gertrude Barrow, Recording Secty.; Goldie Kitchen, Asst. Recording Secty.; Mary Brown, Financial Secty.; Sarah Fleming, Corresponding Secty.;

Amanda Marcus, Treasurer; Estelle Dobson, Parliamentarian; Emery Boddie, Pianist; Portia Yerby, Asst. Pianist; Thelma Culp, Director of Music; Theophra Silver, Asst. Director of Music; Ernestine Hill, Reporter; Anna Jordon, Asst. Reporter.

Mrs. Irene Paige was general chairman of the affair and Mrs. Ida Redd was Co-chairman. Other committee members were Mrs. Vera Cooke, Mrs. Helen Brackett, Mrs. Bessie Woods, Mrs. Theophra Silver, Mrs. Bernice Meade, Mrs. Chestine Nance, Mrs. Gertrude Barrow, Mrs. Emery Boddie.

JANUARY 13

Vocal students of Flore Wend will sing works by Monteverdi, Schumann, and Brahms today in a Wednesday Noon Hour recital in the concert hall of the Peabody Conservatory of Music. Admission is free.

CHECKMATE. Write yourself a loan in the privacy of your own checkbook.

Checkmate is a special service you can add to any personal checking account at Maryland National Bank. When you apply and qualify for Checkmate, our bank makes standby funds available to you. Bank money. And it can be anywhere from $500 to $2,000, depending on your income and other factors.

Then, when you find a bargain you can't pass up, or have an emergency need for cash, just write a check wherever you are. We'll cover for you. No loan-type red tape! On your next monthly statement your Checkmate loan appears as a separate item. You'll see how much of your standby funds you've used, how much is still available.

And Checkmate costs you nothing till you use it. Repay your loan just as quickly as you want, or in easy payments at low bank rates. Apply now. Then when your checkbook says "no" Checkmate will say "yes." And if you aren't banking with us, can you think of a better reason for switching to Maryland National?
