

1 some matters from his master's thesis, Delegate Boileau.
2 In speaking of the need for the guarantee that we here asked
3 he wrote, "Since in social conditions the most effective 4 action is collective action, the most important liberty is 5 the liberty to cooperate with others, that is, to participate
6 in collective action, the most important deprivations of liber-
7 ty are therefore those that limit or prevent altogether
8 cooperation with others."

9 I urge the members of this committee to guarantee
10 the right of the working people to cooperate with one another
11 and to open up the avenue in which industrial democracy
12 can exist for all people in this State.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Before having questions to the 14 minority spokesman, the Chair recognizes Delegate Cardin
15 on a matter of personal privilege.

16 DELEGATE CARDIN: Mr. Chairman and fellow
17 delegates, it gives me great pride and pleasure to call your 18 attention to a group of 24 students from McDonogh School,
19 Baltimore County, Maryland, accompanied by their teacher,
20 Mr. Graham, and if I may add a personal touch, to greet
21 my son, Stephen, who is in the group. I hope they benefit
