

1 Delegate Malkus.

2 DELEGATE MALKUS: I don't want to argue
3 with you, but yesterday --

4 THE PRESIDENT: I am not arguing with you.
5 I am agreeing with you. (Laughter).

6 DELEGATE MALKUS: What you are doing, Mr.
7 President, you are telling me what you have been doing
8 for a long time and that is all right, you are the boss.
9 But now I rise upon a point of inquiry.

10 THE PRESIDENT: State the inquiry.

11 DELEGATE MALKUS: You said yesterday that
12 that which you said as far as the ground rules are 13 concerned will be given to us in writing. Have you,
14 as yet, done that?

15 THE PRESIDENT: It is not yet in writing,
16 it is partly in writing. I hope to get it this after-
17 noon.

18 DELEGATE MALKUS: We can expect that in
19 ample time before we take up the subject matters?

20 THE PRESIDENT: I would think so.

21 DELEGATE MALKUS: Thank you.
