Dear Nancy ..

Q. What was the true story behind the Jackson 5's contract cancellation in Buffalo, N.Y. recently? — Ted Gaines, Windsor, Canada.

A. It appears a teenage girl told her boyfriend, a member of a Buffalo teenage gang, she was in love with Michael Jackson, 10, star of the Jackson 5. The boyfriend threatened to have his gang kidnap Michael and kill him. A rival teenage gang heard of the threat, and vowed revenge. Taking no chances, Motown pulled the group out of the scheduled concert and 9,000 tickets were refunded.

Q. I heard you ran an address of where I could get a list of song publishers and recording firms. I missed it in my paper. Could you run it again? — Mrs. Ann Jackson, Riverside, Calif.

A. Billboard has a 1971 Buyer's Guide ($10), 165 W. 46 St., NYC 10036, and Record World has an Annual Directory of Booking agents, managers, pressing plants, label printers, publicity firms, record distributors, manufacturers and tape duplicators. No publishers, at $1.50. Address 200 W. 57th St., NYC 10019.

Q. Where is singer Sam Fletcher? — Dorothy Sterling, Burbank, Calif.

A. Currently singing in the Bahamas and West Indies.

Q. Is Oscar Brown, Jr., still producing shows? Where? — Fran Perkins, Wichita, Kans.

A. Oscar Brown, Jr., and Jean Pace debuted their new musical, "Buck White," which first was presented in New York, at the Blackstone Ave., showcase, "The Church," this past Christmas Eve in Chicago.

Q. Can you tell me whether or not most religious schools and Sunday schools in Black areas still use study literature which depicts all the major Biblical figures as white? — Regina Hassan, Sacramento, Calif.

A. The old policies still prevail, predominantly.

Q. My friend Ernie Swan, who plays piano here at the Ponchartrain, is brother-in-law of the oldtime New Orleans jazz tromboonist Kid Ory, who he says is still alive. I say he's dead. Who's right? — Dan Cassidy, Detroit.

A. Mr. Swan. According to jazz writer Leonard Feather, he helped Ory celebrate his 84th birthday this past Christmas Day in Honolulu, where Ory has been living for the past four years, and where another oldtime trombonist, Trummy Young, also lives and blows.

Q. You wrote about Johnny Carson getting divorced. Who is he going with now? — Rachel Harding, Philadelphia.

A. Dyan Cannon.

VA urges vets to pick up forms

Veterans who plan to begin their GI Bill enrollment in high school or college at midterm should maze an immediate stop at their nearest Veterans Administration office, George A. Davis, director of the Baltimore Regional Office, pointed out today.

The VA will supply application forms and advise the veteran on whether the school courses he is considering are recognized by the state approving agency and the VA.

Attached to the veteran's completed applications should be a cipy of his military separation papers (DD Form 214), and his marriage license and birth certificates of his children, if any, so the VA can correctly figure his monthly check.

• • •

A married veteran, with one child, for example, is entitled to $230 a month for full-time school enrollment in high school or college.

When the veteran submits his VA Certificate of Eligibility to his school, he is advised to make certain the school promptly returns an endorsed copy to the VA so payments can start.

Davis said veterans are entitled to a maximum of 36 months of school if they were on active duty for at least 18 months. For less than 18 months of service, school time is earned at the rate of one and one-half months of schooling for each month of active duty.

ROTC scholarship winners announced

Three Morgan State College juniors have been awarded US Army ROTC Scholarships, Colonel C. M. Hurtt, Professor of Military Science at Morgan, announced recently. The three cadets are Rutherford Brice, a Political Science major from Atlanta, Ga.; Ernest C. Clayborne Jr., a Psychology major from Baltimore; and Vernon E. Corbin, a Biology major from Baltimore.

In presenting the scholarships, Colonel Hurt said the advantages of the scholarship include payment of tuition, books and other related academic expenses for two years. The cadets were chosen from applicants at Morgan State College.

HOLLYWOOD BEAT:

Newest Cosby company loses lily-white image

By BILL LANE

HOLLYWOOD — Douglas Turner Ward signed to co-star with Yaphet Kotto in Bill Cosby's movie, "Man And Boy," and Fred Williamson signed for "The Fearless Five," a Black western ... Del Shields named asst. V.P. for Bill Cosby's Jemmin, Inc. firm, and Cosby's wife Camille named secretary-treasurer. Quite a departure from the earlier Cosby who had all whites in top posts...

Bobby Stevens and The Checkmates, Ltd. back from a show at Dehoco in Plymouth, Mich...Johnny Mathis soloed with the Cincinnati Symphony Jan. 10...Bill Cosby and Jack Lemmon teaming for a refilming of "The Westerner," which starred Gary Cooper back in 1940...

Rafer Johnson setting up his own film firm...The Muhammad Ali segment of the Flip Wilson Show Thursday, has Bobby Darin and Lily Tomlin added.

• • •

Fred Williamson, who with his TV wife Diahann Carroll graced the cover of the widely circulated (30 million) TV Guide the other day, disclosed at Marlon Brando's house party that he's all set to do a stage act, comedy, songs, patter. Might open soon in Las Vegas.

The Brando party was a swinger, with Brando himself introducing guests to his seven girlfriends—all at once! Geoffrey Holder and Carmen DeLavallade, just in from NYC, there, as were Gene Kelly and Danny Kaye, who, like Brando, got quite excited over new actress Mora Gray, recently a pic feature in Parade Magazine (thank you, Lloyd Shearer). Kenny Dennis introduced us to Mora not long ago at Marge Champion's home.

• • •

ERNIE ANDREWS, who was home in L.A. for the holidays, dropped in at Ernie France's Parisian Room, where he was songstar for so long, and singer Lorez Alexandria and bandman Red Holloway asked him to run through some songs with 'em. The place jumped.

Andrews has been singing in Baltimore for the past five months, at James Brown's Motor Hotel, where he'll return in a few days. In the Baltimore-D.C. area Ernie Andrews' recording of "Bridge Over Troubled Water" is still high on the charts.

• • •

Jim Gilreath opened his new PR and booking offices at 8740 Hollywood Blvd., handling Zea Records, The Whispers, The Delfonics and a girlie group which songfully backs Wayne Newton, Jones, McCall and Holloway. Gilreath is also readying a TV special for Wilt Chamberlain.

Walt Bellamy was guest of song star Keisa Brown at the Libra Club here, saying he thinks she's the best singer around these parts, having got to hear and know her in Atlanta. Drummer Walt Pardon says Keisa got all sorts of raves when she sang in Columbus, and singer Ernie Andrews sang her praises to Lorez Alexandria, who first was "not too hot, but the second time Brown came through the people went wild over him. He left a beautiful impression."

• • •

Motown donated a Sony sound system to the Faustina Home for Girls here, and loads of recordings. The recent NET telecast about Duvalier's Haiti discussed the movie of Graham Green's "The Comedians," which starred Liz Taylor, Richard Burton, Raymond St. Jacques, James Earl Jones and Roscoe Lee Brown—a movie which would enjoy a mighty big audience these days if it were re-released.

DOVER, Del. — Dr. Luna I. Mishoe, president of Delaware State College, has accepted an invitation from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, January 31, at the John F. Kennedy Space Center.

N.O. to salute Satchmo at April Jazz Festival

NEW ORLEANS — The 1971 edition of the New Orleans Jazz and Heritage Festival, scheduled April 21-24, will be dedicated to Louis Armstrong.

In addition to the rare hometown appearance of the famed trumpeter, the fest will feature Dizzy Gillespie and Buddy Hackett as well as more than 100 local musicians, including Al Hirt, Pete Fountain, Ronnie Kole and Santo Pecora, among others.

• • •

An April 24 concert by Armstrong will climax the four-day event.

The traditional Mississippi River Boat ride April 21 will open the festival.

On April 22 and 23, the scene will move into the Fremont-Roosevelt and Jung Hotels for concerts in cabaret style.

• • •

Beauregard Square and Municipal Auditorium will be the sites of the Louisiana Heritage Fair, April 22-24, featuring Dixieland Jazz, rhythm and blues, country and western, blues and other music.

The Miller Brewing Co. again will be principal underwriter of the event.
