

1 and respond to a question?

2 DELEGATE RITTER: I will attempt to.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Grant.

4 DELEGATE GRANT: Delegate Ritter, it would
5 appear that the last sentence of your proposed amendment
6 is almost a bill of attainder. Would you be willing to
7 accept an amendment to your amendment, to strike out
8 the last sentence, which I think would get you past
9 that Constitutional impediment?

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Ritter.

11 DELEGATE RITTER: Wait until I talk to my other
12 constitutional lawyer. If we get another vote, we will
13 knock it out.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: Does that mean you modify the 15 amendment?

16 DELEGATE RITTER: Yes, by knocking out the last
17 sentence.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Is there any objection?

19 The Chair hears none.

20 The amendment is modified by striking the 21 last sentence, beginning on line 11, and all of lines 12
