TIPS FOR A TOT — Conductor Henry Lewis of the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra, sneaks a few tips to little Pattie McDonald, who is one of the first entrants in children's contest on "Why I Would Like to Conduct." The 7-year-old tyke wins Lewis' smile and aid because of her support in funding the symphony. Pattie sold homemade Christmas wreaths and turned over her profits to fund — 65 cents.

Nigeria conquered, Brown eyes Europe

NEW YORK — Soul singing star James Brown, has returned to the United States after a record-breaking concert tour of Nigeria, swing sponsored by Philip Morris Nigeria Ltd., an affiliate of the U.S. company of the same name.

The tour opened in the capital city Lagos where an estimated 5,000 cheering Nigerians at the airport greeted Brown who stated in response to their welcome, "I've come home."

After one performance in the capital, the singer and his group, including vocalists Vicki Anderson and Bobby Byrd, gave one concert each in Ibadan and BeninnCity, returned to Lagos for a second appearance and wound up the tour in Kaduna.

• • •

Shortly after his arrival here it was announced that Brown will be off on a tour of Europe — his third — on Feb. 26. The trek will last until March 15.

Cities on the itinerary include Brussells, Frankfort, Paris, London, Manchester and Copenhagen. A total of six countries will be visited.

Brown plans to carry his entire revue, including arranger Dave Mathews, and plans to present the same show that plays to roughly 1,500,000 persons a year in America.

Brown last toured Europe in September, 1967. In 1968 he spent two weeks in the Orient including a series of government-sponsored concerts in Vietnam and Korea.
