

1 experience which would give you some reasonable estimate
2 of the printing costs. It may turn out that the figures
3 for printing are understated.

4 It is apparent that the major mistake in the 5 wisdom of hind sight was that perhaps we should have asked 6 for more money. Not that we don't have enough if the 7 budget is adhered to as proposed by the officers and 8 recommended by your committee, not that we don't have 9 enough to continue the convention in operating on a very 10 efficient basis and giving everybody what they really 11 need to do the job but due to the fact if we go the full 12 120 days, we will not have a great deal left over for 13 the purpose of post-Convention expenses, especially publiciz-
14 ing the work of the Convention.

15 Originally when the legislature appropriated
16 the $2,000,000, it broke it down as follows.
17 $20,000 to wind up the work of the Constitutional Conven-
18 tion Commission, $750,000 as the state's contribution to 19 the localities for the cost of conducting the special
20 election on May 18, with the remainder to be allocated
21 to the operation of the Convention and the thought being
