

1           The proposals here are almost a perpetuation
2 of the present law. A later section proposes in felony
3 cases that there be an absolute right of removal. In 4 misdemeanor cases and there are very serious cases of 5 misdemeanor involving very serious incarceration, this 6 would still be a matter of discretion. How could anything
7 be more absurd to say where a man's freedom is at stake it
8 is in the discretion of the Court, but where a man's 9 property is at stake, there is an absolute right of removal?

10           I would like to earnestly request that the Members
11 of this Convention support the amendment.

12           DELEGATE CLARK: Anyone desire to speak against 13 the amendment?

14           Delegate Raley.

15           DELEGATE RALEY: A point of inquiry. I somewhere
16 got lost. We have a Scanlan amendment and we have a 17 Willoner amendment that I think has been discussed but not 18 distributed. Which one are we talking about? What one 19 are we going to talk about? Which one are we going to 20 vote on?

21           DELEGATE CLARK: The Scanlan amendment, No. 12,
