

1 DELEGATE WEIDEMEYER: Mr. President, may we
2 pass over this matter and revert to the section a little 3 later on inasmuch as the Scanlan amendment struck the 4 existing paragraph and any attempts to amend what has been 5 stricken might be out of order and therefore I have prepared 6 an amendment which offers an entire new section similar to 7 this section stricken but with some different wording and 8 I would like to have the opportunity of presenting that at 9 the proper time and ask that we pass over this and go on 10 to another matter and then revert to it.

11 DELEGATE CLARK: Delegate Scanlan.

12 DELEGATE SCANLAN: I suggest a way out of the 13 apparent parliamentary dilemma. There is no question
14 Delegate Willomer withdrew his amendment on the assumption
15 he would be able to introduce it and I agree with Senator
16 James on this.

17 We have debated this subject at considerable 18 length in which most facets were argued. I would not want 19 to debate that again. If we could push in terms of those 20 who wanted to hear more debate would vote for reconsideration
21 and those who were satisfied that a just conclusion had
