

1 would pass reasonable regulations and allowing right of 2 removal in that case only for good cause shown.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Willoner, do you accept
4 the substitution or do you wish to speak against it?

5 DELEGATE WILLONER: Mr. Chairman, this is the 6 position of the majority of the Members of our Committee 7 and it is not to change the present practice in that the 8 present practice goes toward the local prejudice in the 9 jury, not in the Judge.

10 While I have great sympathy for Delegate
11 Macdonald's amendment, I feel in speaking for the majority
12 that the intent of this is to preserve the present practice
13 except where it is abused and to permit regulation of it
14 by assigning costs in those cases where costs are incurred
15 because of removal or secondly where the Court could make 16 an election like in a jury trial requiring an election a
17 reasonable time before trial.

18 I don't know what Judge Henderson was getting 19 at when he said there were other things that the Court
20 couldn't do. The purpose of this, this is a middle ground, 21 it preserves the right of removal but leaves it subject to
