ART LOVERS AT the Matthew A. Henson Elementary School held a successful art exhibit last week and students from two other schools participated. Mrs. Joyce Hamer, a teacher, helped plan the exhibit which featured paintings from famous artists. These photos were taken at the exhibit and the show (l to r) 1st panel: Misses Benita Fulgiman, Jennifer Rice and Jacquett Quarles. The next panel shows Miss Roslyn Hath, Gregory Heath and Vargin Dunbar. Final panel shows several students admiring a Mitt painting entitled "The Gleaner." The children are: (seated L to R) Paula Blackwell, Hixie Pilgrim, Lascell Simmons, Kevin Richardson, Paul Padyott, (standing L to R): Lisa Monroe, Mike Washington, Jacqueline Jackson, Kevin Campbell, Monica Marshall, Jerry Peay and Anthony Johnson.

Economy meals for good eating

Need a lift for your winter season menus?

Fruit in one form or another will do the job to perfection. While fresh fruit in season is always delicious, don't overlook the good processed fruits when they're plentiful and reasonably priced, suggests the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Consumer and Marketing Service.

Take grapefruit, for example. This season's record-breaking grapefruit crop is providing us with both lots of fresh grapefruit and lots of canned grapefruit juice and grapefruit sections. Why not use all three of these good buys when planning nutritious and tempting meals that will be easy on the food budget.

* * *

Chilled or hot canned grapefruit juice makes an excellent mealtime drink and snacktime refreshment. Use it alone or combine it with other fruit juices for a flavor-rich punch. Or use it in cooked or baked dishes where a fruit juice may be in order.

Use grapefruit sections from the can in fruit cups and salads, in pies and pastries, and in vegetable-fruit casserole combinations — with sweet potatoes for example, or in varied fruit combinations with apples, oranges, peaches, pineapple or avocados.

* * *

For a sumptuous salad, fold grapefruit sections, diced celery and finely shredded carrots into slightly thickened orange-flavored gelatin and serve on shredded salad greens, topped with sour cream or mayonnaise. Or combine grapefruit segments and fresh shredded spinach with a celery-seed French dressing.

Here's a menu for a day's good eating using foods that are plentiful and reasonably priced:

BREAKFAST
Slice Orange
French Toast with
Syrup or Marmalade
Milk
Coffee or Tea

LUNCH
Chicken Croquette on Bun
Carrot and Celery
Stalks
Baked Apple
Milk

DINNER
Meat Loaf
Glazed Carrots.
Steamed Escarole with
Lemon-Margarine
Sauce
Grapefruit Whip
Milk
Coffee or Tea

This recipe for Grapefruit Whip is for the dessert of the dinner meal:

Soften 1 envelope unflavored gelatin in ½ cup cold grapefruit juice. Add 1¼ cups hot grapefruit juice, 1/3 cup sugar and ⅛ teaspoon salt; stir until dissolved. Chill until slightly thicker than the consistency of unbeaten egg whites. Beat mixture with rotary egg beater until light and fluffy and volume has doubled.

Pour into large or individual molds. Chill until firm. Unmold. Serve plain or with whipped topping.

Serves 6.

ICBO winter management courses for businessmen

CEBO, along with the AFRO-AMERICAN Newspapers, Mondawmin Merchants Association and Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity will sponsor the 4th Annual Black Trade Fair in Mondawmin Mall, February 8-13.

The event is being held to celebrate Negro History Week and Vocational Education Week. Theme is: "Getting A Piece of the Action."

CEBO, the Baltimore Council for Equal Business Opportunity) began in 1967 as a pilot project funded by the Ford Foundation through the Potomac Institute of Washington — a non-profit organization concerned with the advancement of equal opportunity of minority groups.

Samuel T. Daniels is director.

In a period of little more than three years, CEBO has assisted in creating seventy-two (72) new businesses, expanding forty-four (44) existing businesses, packaging eighteen (18) new businesses which are awaiting financing, obtaining more than two and one half million dollars ($2,500,000) of loan money for its clients, who have an annual gross sales volume of between twenty-nine (29) and thirty-three (33) million dollars, and establishing the only Minority Enterprise Small Business Company (MESBIC) in the Middle Atlantic Region of this country.

CEBO has also organized and started an inner city supermarket chain, structured in various ways three medical centers, assisted a black builder developer who is currently building new homes in the city of Columbia, and is planning for the development of two sites for future shopping centers.

Many of these businesses will be participants in the Trade Fair.
