

sonal privilege, that I would ordinarily like to see it up earlier before it got tangled in other matters.

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Sickles.

DELEGATE SICKLES: One further question.

Would you mind if I supported your amendment?

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher.

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: As long as it is not the kiss of death, I welcome it.

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher, just so the record will be abundantly clear, I take it that the next to the last answer to Delegate Sickles that you gave meant that the question as to when vetoed bills would be considered would be determined by the rules of the respective houses of the General Assembly?

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Yes, sir. That would be my understanding.

THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Morgan, do you have any further comment?

DELEGATE MORGAN: No, Mr. President.

THE CHAIRMAN: Any further discussion?

(There was no response.)

Are you ready for the question?

(Call for the question.)

The question arises on the adoption of Amendment No. 3 to section 4.17. A vote Aye is a vote in favor of the amendment; a vote No is a vote against.

The Clerk will ring the quorum bell.

The vote is on Amendment No. 3. A vote Aye is a vote in favor of the amendment, a vote No is a vote against.

Cast your votes.

Has every delegate voted? Does any delegate desire to change his vote?

(There was no response.)

The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 100 votes in the affirmative and 21 in the negative, the motion is carried. The amendment is adopted.

For what purpose does Delegate Storm rise?

DELEGATE STORM: I just want to make sure that the Committee on Style and Drafting goes over this carefully because I am sure it could be improved in its wording.

THE CHAIRMAN: I am sure they will do that with all sections.

The Chair recognizes Delegate Powers.

DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. Chairman, I move the Committee of the Whole rise and report that it has not concluded consideration of Committee Recommendation EB-1.

THE CHAIRMAN: Is there a second?

(The motion was seconded.)

THE CHAIRMAN: All in favor signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

(Whereupon, at 6:00 P.M., the Committee of the Whole rose, and the Convention reconvened.)

(The mace was replaced by the Sergeant-at-Arms.)
