IN THE LEGISLATURE

Sen. Clarence Blount talks on state aid to education

"We are called upon today to make a decision which could well determine the success or failure of our educational system.

"The decision to extend the use of public funds for non-public schools at a critical period in the history of public education in this country, in my opinion, will result in the destruction of both systems.

"I say this is a critical period in the annals of public education because we are called upon to educate more children today than ever before. The body of knowledge which we seek to transmit is broader than ever.

"The life we attempt to prepare students for is extremely complex and we must meet the challenge of providing this education under inflationary conditions and at a time when the tax resources of the government which must foot the greatest portion of the bill are unequal to the task.

"If we are to not only endure this difficult period but simultaneously to develop compensatory and remedial programs for the children who need them, then I do not believe we can also accept the burden and the new set of complexities which will accompany public funding of non-public schools.

* * *

"The most irreconcilable of these I consider to be that of maintaining two educational systems — separate but equal. This has been tried in this country and failed. After one hundred years we should have learned through the bitterness of experience, that socially and economically this is not feasible. One system must suffer.

"The history of private schools in this country makes the outcome self-evident. The better student, the wealthier student, the white student, will be drained off into the private school destroying what we have struggled since the Supreme Court decision in 1954 to rectify.

"In Montgomery County there are proportionately four times as many black students in the public schools than in the Catholic parochial schools. In Baltimore City, public schools enrollment is over 60 percent black.

* * *

"Taking the state as a whole, Catholic schools have about 6 percent black against the public schools' enrollment of about 20 percent black.

* * *

"Stipulating that private schools to receive state aid must have nondiscriminatory enrollment policies will not erase the "de facto" decisiveness of a system which is suburban and parochial. The private school system in the country is at its core exclusive along racial, religious, economic and social lines.

"As pointed out in the minority report of the Kraushaar Commission, integrated public schooling is one vital way that the black and white society in our nation can and must learn to live together. A policy which encourages whites to flee the public schools denies equality in education to blacks and creates the possibility of more violence and civil disorder in the years ahead.

"Public support of non-public schools means public support o two school systems. It means separate school systems and unequal schools systems.

"The separate but equal doctrine has been declared 'null and void' throughout this land of ours. "Let us here — in this state — not give it a miraculous resurrection."

Sen. Welcome seeks medicaid program study

AFRO BUREAU

ANNAPOLIS — A resolution asking the Legislative Council to provide for a complete study of the state's medicaid program is now in the Senate's Finance Committee.

The SR 77 was introduced by Sen. Verda F. Welcome (4th Balto.), whose husband is a physician but not a participant in the program.

Among other things, Sen. Welcome seeks an investigation of aggregate payments to physicians and pharmacies.

She also wants a study of why, as listed in the recent medicaid report, that the average payments for black males was $183, while those for white males was $289.

Also why, the resolution states, was the average payment to black females was $212, while those for white females was much higher at $358 average.

The Legislative Council is the working arm of the General Assembly between sessions.

Black delegates press for new housing laws

AFRO BUREAU

ANNAPOLIS — A comprehensive bill revising the laws concerning discrimination in housing was placed before the House of Delegates Wednesday, sponsored by the 14 black members.

The HB 764 covers all phases of housing and property sales and ownership.

Its purpose, as stated in an early provision:

"To prohibit discriminatory practices with respect to residential housing by any person or group of persons, in order that the peace, health, safety, property and general welfare of all inhabitants of the state may be protected and insured."

The bill was sent to the Economic Matters Committee, headed by Del. Martin S. Becker (D. Montgomery). Delegates Hilda Gardens Bowen and Isaiah Dixon Jr. (both 4th Balto.) are black committee members.

Bus fares for elderly measure now in Senate

AFRO BUREAU

ANNAPOLIS — The Senate now has before it that joint resolution asking the Baltimore Metropolitan Transit Authority to grant reduced bus fares to persons 65 years of age and over.

The HJR 11, introduced by Del. Troy Brailey (4th Balto.) has passed the House of Delegates, with the amendment that such a reduction in fares be between the hours of 10 a.m. and 3 p.m., during the less peak business hours.

The measure does not specify what the reduced rate should be.

As a resolution, the proposal stands just as an expression of the General Assembly if passed, and not a mandate as would be an okayed bill.

Senate passage is seen by lawmakers in the upper chamber.

ASSEMBLY

Abortion bill still stalled, lottery moves in Senate

By MAX JOHNSON
AFRO BUREAU

ANNAPOLIS — By a squeaky 66-65 vote, the House of Delegates adopted Monday evening what could be a crippling amendment to the controversial abortion bill, then laid it over for further amendments today (Tuesday).

The amendment would reduce from 20 weeks to 12 weeks of pregnancy the period in which such an operation could be performed. Reconsideration of the tight vote could come today.

Only black delegate voting in favor of the amendment was Isiah Dixon Jr. (4th Balto.), who looks with disfavor on the measure.

* * *

While this was going on, over in the upper chamber the Senate after lengthy agreements pro and con beat down by a 28-15 vote a Finance Committee's unfavorable report on a lottery bill, and moved it up to second reading.

The SB 68, introduced by Senator John S. Coolahan (D. Baltimore) and Paul J. Bailey (R. Charles-St. Mary's) would remove the constitutional prohibition against a state operated lottery, and submit the matter to voters for approval or disapproval.

Here too the four black members of the upper chamber were split.

Senator Verda F. Welcome (4th Balto.) voted to uphold the unfavorable report. She is a member of the committee, and made a passionate plea against the measure.

* * *

However, Senators Clarence M. Mitchell (4th Balto.) and Robert L. Dalton (2nd Balto.), both who strongly urged the voters should have the right to decide, voted to over-ride the unfavorable report, as did Sen. Clarence W. Blount (5th Balto.).

"Too many people," Sen. Dalton argued, "try to set standards for other people. The people should have the chance to decide some things for themselves."

Then Sen. Mitchell stated: "Too many people assume that only poor people gamble, and that all poor people gamble. Some rich people, a lot of them, must be gambling too, or it wouldn't be thriving.

"It is time we should demonstrate some faith in the people, and let them decide on this issue of whether they want the amendment lifted."

The House has been kicking the abortion measure around for over a week now, faced with stalling tactics by the opposition.

There is doubt at this time that even in the Senate opponents of the lottery measure can muster sufficient support to halt its passage in that chamber.

The 28 votes it got on over-riding the unfavorable report are two more than the 26 it will need for passage as a constitutional amendment.

Meanwhile on another matter, Sen. Rosalie S. Abrams (5th Balto.) introduces today a comprehensive measure to restructure Maryland's procedures for the mentally ill.

The gill would protect the freedom of an individual by establishing the right to a hearing before commitment in all involuntary cases, except when there is grave and immediate danger to the individual or to others.

Among the new bills introduced Monday evening, not listed wisewhere in this edition, were these of note in the House:

HB 657 by Del. Louis E. Inshutz (D. Baltimore) to provide that any person previously convicted of offenses involving drugs not be entitled to bail, or release on recognizance, prior to trial on such charges.

HB 664 by Del. Lena K. Lee (4th Balto.) and cosponsors, which would provide that any judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, with less than five years remaining until reaching the mandatory retirement age, not be required to sand for re-election.

HB 685 by Del. Gerald J. Curran (3rd Balto.), asking a scholarship program for children attending non-public schools.

HJR 51 by Delegates Lena and Troy Brailey (4th Balto.), requesting the Legislative Council to study the feasibility of an open admissions system in all state-owned institutions of higher learning.

* * *

SB 393 by Senators William S. James (D. Harford) and James Clark (Howard-Montgomery) looking to establish the General Assembly membership from 142-member House to 120, and the 43-member Senate down to 40, with new election districts.

SB 397 by Sen. Julian L. Lapides (2nd Balto.), to prohibit bicycle riding by persons under 14 years of age on any highway where the speed limit is in excess of 35 miles an hour.

SB 398, also by Sen. Lapides, which would prohibit issuance of alcoholic beverage licenses within 200 feet of a school or church in his 2nd District.

As of Monday evening a total of 698 bills had been introduced in the House and 412 in the Senate, exclusive of simple and joint resolutions. This 90-day session ends in mid-April.

Senate kills lottery bill

AFRO BUREAU

ANNAPOLIS — The Senate did an about face Wednesday, and killed a bill which would have authorized bringing to referendum a constitutional amendment to make lawful a state operated lottery.

The vote of 23 for and 18 against was three short of the 26 the measure needed for passage as a constitutional amendment.

The four black Baltimore senators did not all agree in the voting. For were Senators Robert L. Dalton (2nd), Clarence M. Mitchell 3rd (4th) and Clarence W. Blount (5th), Sen. Verda F. Welcome (4th) voted against the measure.

Monday night, the Senate gave the bill tentative approval by a 28-15 vote, with the black senators voting then as they did Wednesday.

The bill would only have authorized, if the state chose, to establish its own lottery operation.

Bill would open hospitals to all physicians

AFRO BUREAU

ANNAPOLIS — A bill to open virtually all of Maryland's hospitals and medical institutions to all practicing physicians was introduced in the House of Delegates Tuesday.

The measure would prohibit any such institution receiving state tax money from excluding any physician from use of its facilities.

The HB 731, introduced by Delegates Kenneth L. Webster (5th Balto.) and L. Leonard Ruben (D. Montgomery), was referred to the Environmental Matters Committee, of which Delegates Lena K. Lee (4th Balto.) and Floyd B. Adams (2nd Balto.) are the black members.

Committee chairman is Del. James E. Lashley (D. Baltimore).

Mandel airs police pay bill

AFRO BUREAU

ANNAPOLIS — Gov. Marvin Mandel has submitted legislation to the General Assembly to provide for payment of overtime compensation to Maryland State Policemen who work more than 50 hours a week.

The Administration measure proposes that state police personnel who work in excess of 50 hours a week be compensated at one and one-half times their regular hourly rate.

The bill would also apply to law enforcement personnel of the Department of Natural Resources, including those assigned to the Commission on Game and Inland Fish, and the Departments of Forests and Parks and Chesapeake Bay Affairs.

Presently, State Police and Department of Natural Resources personnel are ineligible for overtime pay regardless of the number of hours per week they work.

Mentally ill measure moved

ARO BUREAU

ANNAPOLIS — The Senate passed and sent to the House Wednesday a joint resolution asking the establishment of a Humane Practices Commission for the entally Retarded.

The SJR 2, introduced by Senator John J. Bishop Jr. (R. Baltimore), would have such a commission investigating and overseeing the treatment, care and condition of patients in hospitals for the mentally ill and the mentally retarded.

It would be composed of three citizens working in such areas, along with two Senators and two House members.

Work-release bill given Assembly

AFRO BUREAU

ANNAPOLIS — Gov. Marvin Mandel has proposed legislation to the General Assembly to permit persons convicted of nonsupport to remain out of prison, with the agreement that they work and support their families.

The measure calls for the State Division of Correction to establish an "extended work release program" under which such persons would be granted the privilege of having employment and living outside the walls of a penal institution.

These inmates would remain subject to the supervision and control of the Commissioner of Correction until being paroled, pardoned or completing sentence.

As proposed in his State of the State message in Jan., Gov. Mandel noted:

"This legislation has a two-fold purpose — to cut down our prison population, and to keep the families of these men off the welfare rolls. Such a measure could result in a tremendous saving for the State."

The Administration measure proposes that placement of prisoners in the extended work release program be determined by the Commissioner of Correction with the assistance of the Division of Parole and Probation.

Approval for an inmate to participate could be revoked at any time for any reason by the commissioner.

Under appropriate conditions, an inmate, under intensive supervision by the Division of Parole and Probation, could live at home with his family while working to support them.

Assembly enacts city police bill

AFRO BUREAU

ANNAPOLIS — The period of probational appointments to the Baltimore City police department will soon be cut from two years to one.

The House of Delegates passed Wednesday a Senate okayed bill to this effect, leaving it up to Gov. Marvin Mandel for final signing into law.

The SB 185 was introduced by Sen. Joseph A. Bertorelli (1st Balto.).

Movie operators' license fee hike

AFRO BUREAU

ANNAPOLIS — A black delegate who is a licensed projectionists as well as an attorney placed a bill before the House of Delegates Wednesday, which would raise the license fee for moving picture machine operators from $10 to $25.

The HB 740 was introduced by Del. Calvin A. Douglass (4th Balto.), and referred to the Economic Matters Committee.

Birthday Tribute

ALLEN — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our dear beloved mother, daughter and friend, KATIE BELL ALLEN, on her birthday, March 8th, who passed away November 18, 1970:
We all miss you so
How much you'll never know
We long to see your smile
If only for awhile.
ITS ALLEN and BARKER FAMILIES

ANTHONY — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my dear husband, LUCIUS ANTHONY, on his birthday, March 5th, who passed away December 15, 1969:
I do not need a special day
To bring you to my mind;
The day I do not think of you
Are very hard to find.
If all this world were mine to give,
I'd give it, yes, and more
To see the face of my dear husband,
On this, his Birthday Morn.
Wife LIZZIE ANTHONY

ANTHONY — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our dear father and grandfather, LUCIUS ANTHONY, on his birthday, March 5th, who passed away December 15, 1969:
Dear father, on your birthday
What words can we mart
That would tell the true devotion
We have within our hearts.
No words can tell love's message,
But this we know is true;
There's no one like a father,
No father quite like you.
Loving CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN

ARMSTEAD — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my husband and son and father, JAMES LEWIS ARMSTEAD, on his birthday, March 3, who passed away June 10, 1962:
He would not want the ones he loved
To grieve for him today.
I must not say, that he is dead,
He is just away.
Away upon the journey, to a land that's bright and fair.
Though we all do miss him here,
I know he is happy there.
Memories of him will bring new comfort every day.
As I recall he is not dead, he is just away.
MOTHER, WIFE, SON and CHILDREN

ELIZABETH K. STEVENSON

GASKINS — In loving memory of my dear husband and father, JAMES W. GASKINS, who departed this life March 5, 1967:
Some may think you are forgotten,
Though on earth you are no more,
But in memory, you are with us,
As you always, were before.
Loving Wife ANNA and DEVOTED SONS

GAYLOR — In loving memory of my beloved husband, our dear father, and grandfather, WILLIAM B. GAYLOR, who departed this life March 3, 1970:
Your memory to us is a keepsake
With which we shall never part;
Though God has you in his keeping
We still have you in our hearts.
Loving WIFE, DAUGHTER and GRANDCHILDREN

GREEN — In loving memory of my dear husband, HORACE GREEN, who passed away March 7, 1970:
Today my heart is heavy,
My thoughts are all of thee.
Oh, how I miss you, HORACE, dear.
None but God in Heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart;
But, no, it isn't true.
For one long year has passed away, dear,
And my heart still aches for you.
Loving Wife, CARRIE GREEN

GRIFFIN — In loving memory of my husband and father, WILFORD GRIFFIN, who passed away March 5, 1961:
A happy home, we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memories still
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.

Grandson, QUENTIN MATTHEWS

SEPHUS — In loving memory of my dear father, HARRY SEPHUS, who passed away March 9, 1970:
Dear father, gone forever,
How I miss your smiling face,
But you left to remember
Memories that can take your place.
A happy home I once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still.
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.
Loving Daughter, CARRIE SEPHUS

SHIVERS — In loving memory of my dear brother and uncle, CALVIN SHIVERS, who passed away March 5, 1970:
Loving memories never die
As years roll on and days go by;
In my heart a memory is kept
Of my dear brother and uncle
We loved and will never forget.
The depths of sorrow, I can not tell
At the loss of my dear brother
We loved so well.
And while he sleeps a peaceful sleep,
His memory we shall always keep.
If we had seen you to the last
And held your dying hand
And heard the last sigh from your heart
We would not feel so bad.
We did not know the pain you had
Nor did we see you die
We only know you went far away
And never said goodbye.

Also mortuaries, Morton and Dyett Funeral Home. May God's blessings be with each and everyone of you.
Father, CHARLES BOWENS
Sister, RUTH BOWENS and Niece, JOAN JOHNSON and Nephew, JAMES BOWENS

MARIE FLEMING — To neighbors and friends who extended so much sympathy and kindness on the occasion of the death of our loved one, we offer our thanks.
MRS. SARAH CULLENS and MISS ROSENA BATES

EDITH HARVELL — Our heartfelt thanks to all. Words can not adequately express our deep appreciation. To the many kind and sympathetic acts that came to us at the time of our recent bereavement. They will be done unto hard to say when the one you love has passed away.
THE FAMILY

JACK JOHNSON — We wish to thank many friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy during the death of our dear brother, JACK JOHNSON. Also Rev. Dobson and Gwin Funeral Home. May God bless each one of you.
MRS. HATTIE BOOKER and MRS. MARY DUNLAP

HARRY MELVIN TOWSON — Our heartfelt thanks to all who extended comforting sympathy and help in our recent sorrow. For the beautiful service, floral offerings and other kindness, we are deeply grateful.

Career Appointments for Engineers, Physical Scientists
APPLIED PHYSICS LABORATORY
The Johns Hopkins University

The Applied Physics Laboratory, a division of The Johns Hopkins University, operates under contract with the Bureau of Naval Weapons, the development of the Navy's Terrier, Talos, and Tartar guided missiles, the development and fabrication of satellites for the Navy and NASA, and the test and evaluation of guided and ballistic missile systems are among its principal achievements.

At the present time, the Laboratory has a number of interesting openings for electrical and mechanical engineers, physicists, and mathematicians interested in career opportunities. Specific openings currently exist in programming, thermal engineering, analog and digital circuit design, structural design and analysis, missile system design and analysis, operations research, and propulsion engineering (ramjet and rocket).

The Laboratory's principal locations are in Silver Spring (a suburb of Washington, D. C.) and in Howard County, midway between Baltimore and Washington. These exceptionally complete facilities contain large-scale computers, well equipped laboratories, libraries and cafeterias.
