East Women's Committee sponsors 27th annual tea

The Eastside Community Committee held its 27th annual Blue Ribbon Tea in the Dunbar Community High School, Sunday afternoon.

Sponsored by the Women's City-Wide Committee for Delinquency Prevention, funds from the affair will be used to send underprivileged children to camps and to provide other enriching activities for inner city youngsters.

Milton B. Allen, State's Attorney for Baltimore City, spoke to the group, and greetings came from other city officials and from Dr. Delores C. Huff, director of Woman Power.

Mr. Allen was introduced by Mrs. Marylyn Arter, chairman for the tea, who also presided. Other participants on the program included the Rev. Irvin C. Lockman, who gave the invocation, Mrs. Florine Brady, president of the Women's City Wide Committee; Melvin G. # Miss Booth bride of William Brown

Valentine's Day was the date chosen by Miss Beverly Booth and William Brown, Jr. for their wedding at Metropolitan United Methodist Church.

The new Mrs. Brown is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Booth, of this city and Mr. Brown is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Brown, Sr. of Boston.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ernest P Clark, minister of the church. He was assisted by the Rev. R. Willis Tolson, great uncle of the bride. Organ selections were provided by Mrs. Lantha Clark and Miss Loraine Clark was the soloist.

• • •

The couple had as their attendants, Miss Doris Fleming of this city, maid of honor; Miss Naomi Walls of the Bronx, New York, bridesmaid; Alan Jackman of Philadelphia, Pa., best man; and Dr. Frank Enty, of this city, head usher. Church ushers assisting were Moses English, Walter Offer, Joseph Spriggs and Vernon Press.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a costume of candlelight slubbed satin which she designed and made. Her gown was the empire style with full sleeves, and an A-line skirt which featured a shaped hemline, trimmed in cream-colored re-embroidered Alencon lace.

Her headdress was a hood attached to a full length cape of candlelight organza and satin, which extended into a train also trimmed in lace.

The attendants' A-line gowns in a combination of bronze and sand peach satin, which featured panels flowing from the bodice and full sleeves with petal shaped cuffs, were also designed by the bride. The gowns were identical in styling, but reversed in color combination for the two attendants. Their headpieces, bi-color petals falling gracefully from satin cording, were created by Mrs. Nell Sheridan.

The bride's bouquet was a cascade of orchids and varied foliage with ribbons in colors of peach, deep green, wine and white, and those of her attendants, similar, picking up the white and wine.

Both mothers chose blue with matching accessories. Mrs. Booth trimmed dress and coat ensemble of stubbed silk in robin's egg blue. Mrs. Brown selected a sheer wool walking suit of sky blue, which she paired with an ivory shell.
