Morgan professor now lecturing in Europe

Dr. F. Bredahl Petersen, professor of philosophy at Morgan State College, is lecturing in Europe during March on "The Cultural and Civil Rights Revolution and The Religious Reformation in America."

An American citizen born in Denmark of French-Danish ancestry, Dr. Petersen holds the B.S. degree from Des Moines University (since merged with Sioux Falls College), the Academic Citizenship Diploma from the Copenhagen University, the M.A. degree from the University of Rochester, the BD. degree from the Colgate Rochester Divinity School, the Ph.D. degree from the University of Edinburgh, and was awarded the D.D. degree by Ottawa University.

For 25 years (1932-1957), he served in Europe as the minister of the Kobner Church of Copenhagen and as a professor of Church History and World Religions at the Danish Baptist Theological Seminary.

During World War II, he was an active leader in the underground resistance movement against Nazism and in the rescue of the Danish Jews.

After the war, he was appointed Danish government director of Religious Activities and Relief in the refugee camps in Denmark and general secretary of Baptist Relief to Holland, Poland and Germany.

Later, he became president of the Baptist Federation of Europe and general secretary of the European Evangelical Alliance of the major Protestant denominations of Europe.

Dr. Petersen returned to America with his family in 1957. Since then he was served as the minister of Seventh Baptist Church of Baltimore, visiting professor of Church History at Crozer Theological Seminary, Chester, Pa., professor of history at the Community College of Baltimore.

Since 1965, he has been professor of philosophy and Religion at Morgan State College, specializing in the "Great Issues" course required of all senior students, and is chairman of International Studies and member of the College Senate.

POST OFFICE award winners (l to r) George C. McKnight Jr. and William T. Soutar Jr., both regular carriers were presented $150 and $100 respectively for outstanding erformance above and beyond the call of duty. Mr. McKnight apprehended several youths who had assaulted an elderly lady and snatched hxr purse and Mr. Soutar entered a burning house to aid a frightened woman and put out the fire with a garden hose.

Cleveland Board Member Resigns

CLEVELAND — William F. Boyd, a member of the Cleveland Board of Education for more than seven years, submitted his resignation to board President Arnold R. Pinkney at a recent board meeting.

Boyd, 55, is president of E. F. Boyd and Son Funeral Home, and has said repeatedly in recent months that the press of business had forced him to miss many regular board and committee meetings.

Pinkney praised Boyd for his service on the board and said he wanted to confer with him on a possible successor before accepting the resignation.

Artist exhibits black life-style

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. — "An Exhibition of Images Conceived in the Spirit of Liberation and Dedicated to the Strength of Black Folks," is the title of an exhibition currently on display in the East and West galleries of the Arts Building at The Pennsylvania State University.

The exhibition is a collection of the paintings of a young Philadelphia-born artist, Edgar H. Sorrells, who graduated from Morgan State College, Baltimore, and is presently working towards the master of fine arts degree at Pennsylvania State University.
