Today my heart is heavy,
My thoughts are all of thee,
Oh, how I miss you, LLOYD dear,
None but God in Heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart;
But no, it isn't true.
For one long year has passed, dear,
And my heart still aches for you.
When the evening shades are falling,
And I am sitting all alone,
In my heart there comes a longing
If you only could come home
Off and off my thoughts do wander
To your grave so far away,
Where I laid you, dearest husband,
One year ago today.

WASHINGTON — Mrs. Evelyn L. Hunton, retired schoolteacher of 47 years, 20 of which were as principal, died Thursday afternoon at Providence Hospital.

Death occurred at 2:53 p.m., culminating an eight-month illness of blood cancer.

Mrs. Hunton, widow of Dr. Benjamin H. Hunton, was the eldest sister of AFRO Sports Editor Sam Lacy, and Mrs. Rosina L. Howe, also a retired D.C. teacher.

Other survivors are her son, Dr. Benjamin L. Hunton, assistant director of an investigative unit for HEW; and two daughters-in-law, Mesdames Jean and Norma Hunton. Three grandchildren, Benjamin 3rd, Karen and Raymond, also survive.

Funeral arrangements are pending.

Funerals scheduled for crushed dockmen

The funeral of Nathaniel Williams, the 40-year-old stevedore killed in an accident aboard the Swedish ship "Migolina" Tuesday was held today (Friday) at Lyde Park where his remains were cremated.

Mr. Williams, an employee of the R. C. Herd Stevedore Co. was crushed under several tons of chromium ore when a 15-foot partition used to separate cargo in the hold of the ship collapsed. The ship was docked at Pier 6.

Police say that Mr. Williams, Alfred Biddle and two other men, James Sligh and Jesse Moody were working in the hold of the Migolina, when the accident occurred.

"The partition separating the chromium ore gave way and the entire load fell on Williams and Biddle," Mr. Sligh told police.

Mr. Moody and Mr. Sligh were treated at South Baltimore General for bruises and cuts they received when struck by flying timbers.

Mr. Williams lived at 1520 Druid Hill Ave. and is survived by his wife, Willie Mae; his mother and seven children.

Funeral services for Mr. Biddle, 39, are scheduled for tomorrow (Saturday) 1 p.m. at the Charles Law Funeral Home. Burial will be at Arbutus Memorial Cemetery.

Mr. Biddle, a native of Baltimore, lived at 2132 Fairmount Ave. He is survived by his wife, Alethia Mae; six daughters, Theresa, Martina, Yvonne, Darlene, Elaine and Lenora; three sons, Alfred Jr., Purnell and Dirk; five sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Robinson, Mrs. Jean Curtis, Miss Geraldine Biddle, Miss Shirley Biddle and Mrs. Pauline King; two aunts Mrs. Mildred Watkins and Mrs. Ethel Harrington; one uncle, Robert Reid and other relatives.

2 shootings result in homicides

An 18-year-old youth and a 35-year-old man died in two separate shootings in Baltimore Tuesday night.

The youth, Leroy Thompsin Jr. of the 200 block Dallas Ct., was killed after an argument at the Perkins Recreation Center, 1400 block Gough St. and pronounced dead on arrival at Church Home and Hospital.

Wednesday at 11 a.m., another youth, James Earl Thomas Jr., 19, of the 2700 block Alameda, surrendered himself to the police in the company of his mother. He has been charged with homicide.

* * *

In the other fatal shooting incident, Charles Gilbert Eaton of the 1500 block N. Caroline was shot in the chest in a tavern in the 1200 block N. Potomac at about 8:40 p.m. Arrested at that time was Edgar M. Taylor, 43, of the 2700 block E. Biddle St.

Mr. Taylor was released, however, at about 9 a.m. Wednesday, when the shooting was declared in police court to have been in self defense.

Police expect quiet Easter

Deputy Commissioner Frank Battaglia says that Easter Holiday safety plans of the Police Department will place a "geared up" force in parks, at critical points and in all areas of town.

However, he states, that this action is no more than normal patrol for any other holiday. Not expecting any Easter Monday disturbances, Deputy Battaglia reveals all is expected to be "quiet."

By PAM WIDGEON

Easter is a Christian festival which celebrates the resurrection of Jesus Christ. It is the most important holy day of the Christian religion.

The story of Easter comes from the Bible.

The gospels tell that the body of Jesus disappeared from His tomb on the third day after his crucifixion.

My angel appeared to his followers and announced, "He is risen." The cross represents the crucifixion of Jesus Christ. It has special meaning to Christians as a symbol of Christ's victory over death.

Music was by the 50-voice Woman's Choir.

Greetings were by Mrs. Janie Hayes, president of New Shiloh Baptist Missionary, Miss Helen Benton, president of Women's Convention of United Baptist Missionary Convention;

Also, Mrs. Mabel Gee, chairman of the Christian education department; the Rev. Montague Brackett, president of parent body of U.B.M.C.; Mrs. Irene Paige, and the Rev. Clayton Powell.

Here is a verse for Easter. It is entitled, "He is Risen," by Archie R. Smith:

I went to the Garden in the early morn; I found the empty tomb, for the Lord had gone. Something strange had happened here. There was something mysterious in the atmosphere.

* * *

I knew that a stone had been placed at the door in order to make the sepulchre. But when I looked the stone was rolled away, And then I heard an angel say, "Why seek the living among the dead?

He is not here, he is risen as He said."

He is the one we all must know; He is the one that lives for evermore. I went to the Garden in the early morn. But Christ had risen before the dawn.
