Illustrious Women

MISS HELEN V. BENTON

Miss Helen V. Benton is a native Baltimorean. She is the product of Douglass High School and Cortez Peters Business School.

Now a resident of Dolphin St. she has been an employee at the Department of Health, Education and Welfare-Social Security Administration for 29 years.

Miss Benton is a quiet, elegant woman who is able to carry her many responsibilities with such ease that one must admire her or envy her. She is president of the Woman's Auxilliary of the United Baptist Convention of Maryland.

The women of the convention are quick to boast about Miss Benton and her high ideals for the Woman's Convention.

She is a president who treats everyone alike; she has no favorites. With this kind of personality, she gets the full cooperation of the hundreds of Baptist women in the State Convention.

Miss Benton is also president of the Missionary Board of Memorial Baptist Church, located on the corner of Preston and Caroline Streets.

The Rev. Angus Smith, who is the pastor, says he doesn't know what he would do without Miss Benton.

In addition, Miss Benton is vice-president of the United Baptist Women of Maryland; the corresponding secretary for the Christian Women's Union of Maryland, and the Grand Matron of the Naomi Grand Chapter Order of the Eastern Star-Hiram Grand Lodge State of Maryland.

She is on the board of directors of B.S./L.S., Inc.

Miss Benton has represented the State of Maryland many times. One of these instances was at the Baptist World Alliance Congress in Tokyo, Japan, in 1970.

At that time she toured Hawaii, Hong Kong, Manila, and Osaka, Japan.
