Open housing campaign set by RE Board

The Real Estate Board of Greater Baltimore will be running public service messages pertaining to open housing laws on the inside of 200 Metropolitan Transit Authority buses during the months of May and June.

The messages will state that "open housing laws are clear" and "they provide for equal treatment regardless of race, color, creed or national origin."

Also, interested persons are asked to write the Real Estate Board for free copies of a Board brochure entitled "Equal Opportunity In Housing."

"These messages," according to board president Lawrence B. Fenneman Jr., "represent a continuing effort by the Real Estate Board to educate home buyers, sellers and renters to their rights under open housing laws."

The board in addition to publishing a brochure on fair housing, which has received wide distribution in the greater Baltimore area, has also prepared radio spots concerning equal opportunity in housing.

Coppin to initiate adult fitness program

Dr. Calvin W. Burnett, president of Coppin State College, has announced that the college will be making its facilities available for an Adult Swedish Walking and Calisthenics program.

These classes will be conducted in conjunction with the Maryland State Physical Fitness Commission's theory that regular exercise is one of the best preventative medicines in the maintenance of health.

All classes will be progressive and, with an emphasis on deep breathing, posture and the building of endurance, have as a goal the improvement of the functions of the cardio-vascular and respiratory systems as well as keeping the muscles in tone.

One of the advantages of Swedish Walking is that it gives persons who are extremely overweight or out of shape an excellent opportunity to start exercising on a progressive, stimulating and well supervised, but not overly strenuous, program. It aso provides the physically fit with an excellent and enjoyable means of maintaining themselves.

The program will commence the coming Monday at 7 a.m. All interested individuals should meet at the parking lot adjacent to the Francis Murphy Research Center which is off of the Warwick Ave. entrance to the campus.

Classes are open to the public and are free of charge. Both men and women are invited to attend.

WONDERFUL OUTING, GOOD CAUSE — Here are some of the members and friends of the Neighborhood Club of the 1700 and 1800 blocks N. Carey St., prior to leaving Saturday morning on a bus trip to Boat on the Mountain, a resort in Pennsylvania. The outing was to raise funds for the club, and it was "very successful," according to Mrs. Marie Murphy, treasurer, one of the club's three sponsors. Other two sponsors were Ms. Louise Lockerman, president, and Mrs. Earline Autin, secretary.

County library lists free films next week

Two film programs for adults and one for children have been scheduled at branches of the Baltimore County Public Library next week.

The first of these will be at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday at the Perry Hall Branch when two films will be shown.

The first film will be "Man of Aran," in which is depicted the struggle for existence of the fishermen on the bleak isle of Aran off the west coast of Ireland. It will be followed by another film with an Irish locale, "Brendan Behan's Dublin," in which the spirit of the unusual city, presented through the eyes of one of its most talented citizens, is presented in a different and colorful manner.

Admission to the program is free of charge and no tickets are required. The Perry Hall branch is located a 9410 Belair Road in Perry Hall.

A film program for children will be shown at the Parkville-Carney Branch on Wednesday morning starting at 10:30 and will be repeated at 1 o' clock.

The first of the two films to be shown will be "Mike Mulligan and His Steam Shovel," the story of Mike Mulligan who, in his haste to build the cellar of the town hall, forgets to leave a way to get out.

Th second film will be "Noisy Nancy Norris," in which Shirley MacLaine tells the story of a noisy little girl who learns that quiet activities can be fun. Admission to the program is by free ticket available at the branch up to seven days prior to the showing of the films. The Parkville-Carney Branch is located at 9509 Harford Road, one block south of Joppa Road.

* * *

The final film of the week will be at the Randallstown Area Branch on Thursday starting at 8 p.m. Admission is by free ticket available at the branch any time during the seven days prior to the showing of the film.

The program will consist of one film, "The Anderson Platoon," the story of Lt. Joseph B. Anderson and the men of his platoon as they live together during a six-week's battle in the Central Highlands of Vietnam.

The Randallstown Area Branch is in the Liberty Court Shopping Center at Liberty and Old Court Roads in Randallstown.

Mrs Mary Gross and Mrs. Alice Hazzard attended the funeral of Mrs. Helen Sewell.

* * *

Funeral services for Mrs. Helen Sewell, wife of Pinkney Sewell, mortician of Prince Frederick, was held Saturday, April 24, 1971 at Plum Point Methodist Church, Huntingtown.

Mrs. Sewell died Tuesday, April 20, at Calvert County Hospital after a brief illness. She was born in Calvert County August 22, 1895, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Annie Samuel Morsell.

Mrs. Sewell moved to Baltimore while a young-ster, and attended public schools.

She was a product of Provident Hospital Nursing School, and later became head nurse at the hospital. During that period, she became a member of the Presbyterian Church.

On her return to the country, she became a member of Plum Point Methodist. She was married to Pinkney Sewell on January 19, 1918.

* * *

At Plum Point, Mrs. Sewell belonged to the W.S.C.S. and the finance committee.

In his eulogy, the Rev. Paul J. Johnson described Mrs. Sewell as one who had deep consideration for others and her church.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Sewell is survived by two sons, Francis and Spencer; brother Howard Morsell; a foster daughter, Mrs. Betty Gross; and five grandchildren and other relatives.
