County libraries announce events

The Outdoor Art Show, originally scheduled for last Saturday at the Essex Area Branch of the Baltimore County Public Library, but postponed due to rain, will be held between 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. this coming Saturday (May 15) at the branch, come rain or shine.

The Essex Area Branch is located in the Middlesex Shopping Center at 1110 Eastern Boulevard in Essex.

• • •

The annual "Listen A-while" program held at the Arbutus Branch of the Baltimore County Public Library, sometimes called brary, sometimes called the "Coffeehouse for Kids," which started this Thursday will continue on the next two Thursdays (May 20 and May 27) at the same time, 4 p.m.

The series will consist of guitar playing, stories, poetry, songs, dances and short skits and each program will be entirely different from the others. This week the performers will be Julie Jett, Nancy Witt, Linda Allaire, Bridge Wallace, Wanda Lester, Andrea Keydash and Mary Joe Ryan.

Admission is free and no tickets are required. The Arbutus Branch is located at Sulphur Spring Rd. and Benson Ave. in Arbutus.

• • •

Robert Hieronimus, noted Baltimore artist and mystic, will talk about his murals and the message they convey on Tuesday, May 25, starting at 8 p.m. at the Randallstown Area Branch of the Baltimore County Public Library.

Two murals, "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Apocalypse," rely heavily on astrological and religious symbolism, and are to be found in the Graduate Club and Levering Hall on the campus of Johns Hopkins University.

Admission to the program on May 25 is by free ticket available at the branch, which is in the Liberty Court Shopping Center at Liberty and Old Court Roads in Randallstown.

• • •

A program for young, amateur film hobbyists will be held at the Perry Hall Branch of the Baltimore County Public Library on Tuesday, May 25, starting at 7:30 p.m.

A number of films will be shown, made by local producers. Included will be "Animal World" and "Silent Art," by George Norvell; "3801: A Library Odyssey" by Elizabeth Ruffin; "Gettysburg Dreamer" and "Gallant Pelham" by George Stover; "The Garden" and "Love Craft" by Bill George; and "A Better Place" by Joe Hansard.

Admission to the program is free of charge and no tickets are required. The Perry Hall Branch is located at 9440 Belair Road in Perry Hall.

• • •

Wood carvings by Arthur de Francis are currently being shown at the North Point Area Branch of the Baltimore County Public Library where they can be seen during the entire month.

The exhibition demonstrates Mr. de Francis' skill, especially in his group of The Nativity and The Crucifixion. Mr. de Francis, who carves as a hobby, also gives instruction in wood carvings. The exhibition can be seen during the library's regular hours. The North Point Area Branch is located at 1716 Merritt Boulevard in the North Point Area.

• • •

A display featuring the Travelers Aid Society of Baltimore can be seen currently in the windows of the Towson Area Branch of the Baltimore County Public Library.

The Travelers Aid gives service to the mobile poor and unemployed, to migrant workers, to aliens, old people, the handicapped and all who are in need of help while traveling. The four Travelers Aid stations in the Baltimore area are at Friendship Airport, the Penn Central Railroad Station, the Greyhound Bus Terminal and the Trailways Bus Terminal.

• • •

Gems and rough gem material are being exhibited at the Parkville-Carney Branch of the Baltimore County Public Library by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cox of the Chesapeake Gem and Mineral Society. It can be seen during the regular hours of the library from now through to the end of May.

The Parkville-Carney Branch is located at 9509 Harford Road, one block south of Joppa Road.

• • •

An exhibition of paintings by Martha Machin is being held at the Arbutus Branch of the Baltimore County Public Library throughout May. They can be seen during the regular hours of the library which is located at Sulphur Spring Road and Benson Avenue in Arbutus.

Her exhibition includes works in oil, charcoal, pencil and pastel. A number of her works have also been exhibited at Ellicott City, the Community College of Baltimore and at Columbia, Maryland.

• • •

"Maryland's People and Places," a photographic exhibition by Harold George is currently being shown at the North Point Area Branch of the Baltimore County Public Library.

Among the many facets caught in the lens by the skillful photographer are Ocean City, the Pagoda in Patterson Park, and the Baltimore Colts, to name just a few among the 35 prints being shown.

The exhibition may be seen during the regular hours of the library, located in the shopping center at 1716 Merritt Boulevard in the North Point area.

SOLOMON ROGERS
Pioneer in race relations

Solomon Rogers is dead at 81

Solomon Rogers, attorney, founder and president of the Reisterstown Federal Savings and Loan, died Tuesday at the age of 81 years.

Active in equal rights activities here for nearly 60 years, Mr. Rogers was Maryland treasurer of the United Negro College Fund Drive for six terms from the founding in 1947 and one of the founders and treasurer of the Carl Murphy Scholarship Fund for African Students.

Through his banking influence and experience in real estate law for 40 years, he pioneered savings and loan company provisions for mortgage loans to black citizens.

As attorney for many savings and loan firms during the Depression, he boasted that no depositor ever lost his savings.

• • •

Mr. Rogers was a member of the board of directors of Chizuk Amuno Congregation and brotherhood, founder of the Woodholme Country Club and donor to Levindale Hebrew Home, Brandeis University and the National Conference of Christians and Jews and member of the Baltimore, Maryland and American Bar Associations.

Born in Baltimore in 1889, Mr. Rogers was graduated from the old Baltimore Law School and passed the bar in 1911.

He and the late Miss Estelle H. Rosenthal were married in 1917. The sons who survive are Judge Henry L. Rogers of the People's Court; Nolan Rogers, a lawyer in the attorney general's office, also, two brothers Irving and Bernard Rogers and three sisters, Mrs. Jack I. Frieman, Mrs. Paul A. Cohen and Mrs. Maxwell Kirschbaum, all of Baltimore.

Social Services budget hearings

Three budgetary ordinances involving the Department of Social Services will be aired in a public hearing at 3:45 p.m. Monday by the City Council's Budget and Finance Committee in Room 304-A City Hall.

Councilman J. Joseph Curran, chairman, has scheduled them as:

Ord. 1751 — to provide a supplementary general fund appropriation of $200,000 to the department; Ord. 1777 — to provide a special fund appropriation of $9,000,000 for payment of subsistence grants;

Ord. 1794 — to provide an appropriation of $90,000 to the department for operating costs in the good food stamp program.

Dellums Ponders Dumping

Rep. Ronald V. Dellums, D., Calif., said Monday he would consult with colleagues before introducing a resolution to impeach President Nixon over the Vietnam war, but would have "no qualms" about voting for such a resolution.

He accepted a petition from 405 Harvard Law School students asking Congress to dump Nixon.

GO

NON-STOP TO PITTSBURGH NEW YORK PHILADELPHIA

CONTINENTAL TRAILWAYS BUS TERMINAL
210 W. FAYETTE 752-2115

Continental Trailways easiest travel on earth
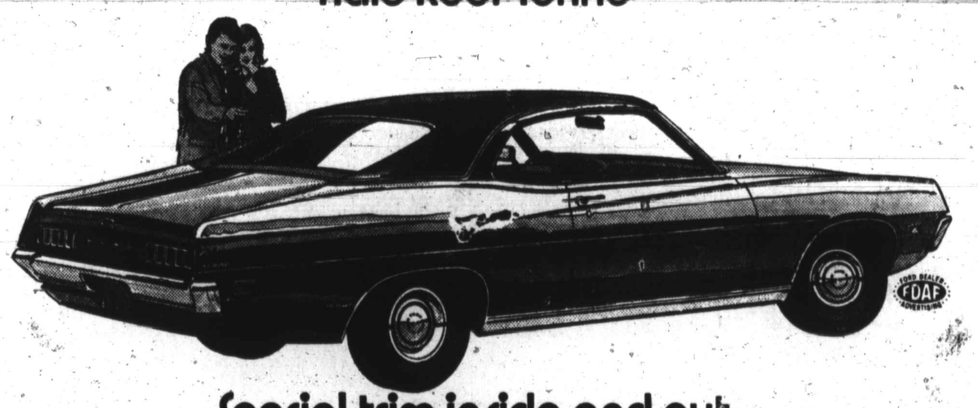
A subsidiary of Holiday Inns, Inc.

FROM BALTIMORE	1-Way
BOSTON Thru Turnpike Express Service	$19.45
WASHINGTON Only 55 Minutes Non-Stop	2.20
ROANOKE Fast Express Service	12.50
PITTSBURGH Only 4½ Hours Non-Stop	12.35

Ford Dealer exclusive

Special Halo Roof Torino



Special trim inside and out.
Special vinyl roof.
All at a special price.

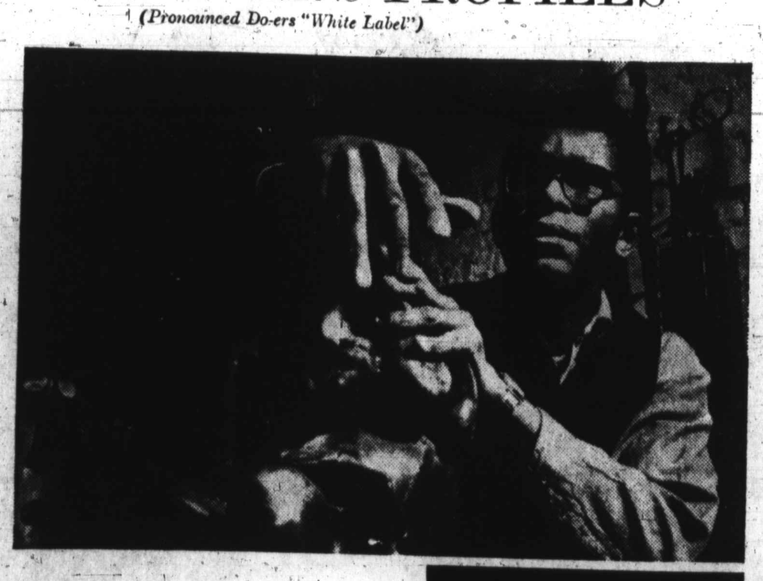
And underneath that great new look is a great car. Roomy enough to seat six. Small enough for easy parking and handling. And with all kinds of more expensive car features!

Ford FORD

You get what you want at your Ford Dealers

SEE YOUR NEARBY FORD DEALER

DEWAR'S PROFILES
(Pronounced Do-ers "White Label")



RICHARD HUNT

HOME: Chicago, Illinois
AGE: 33
PROFESSION: Sculptor
HOBBIES: Horticulture, listening to classical music.
LAST BOOK READ: Samson Agonistes
LAST ACCOMPLISHMENT: Voted one of the ten outstanding men in Chicago.
QUOTE: "I'm political in the sense that I have strong ideas about the important contributions art can make to society."
PROFILE: He quietly gives metal life, filling spaces with a strength, movement, and force worth preserving.
SCOTCH: Dewar's "White Label"

Authentic. Part of the great pleasure one gets from sipping Dewar's "White Label" Scotch is reassuring knowledge that you have chosen something authentic.

Dewar's never varies.

Everybody 'Loves' a Bargain!
THE BALTIMORE AFRO-AMERICAN'S
$1,500. FAVORITE CROSSING GUARD CONTEST

PLEASE ACCEPT OUR COUPON AND USE IT TOWARD A SUBSCRIPTION TO OUR NEWSPAPER....THE BALTIMORE AFRO-AMERICAN. DURING THE CROSSING GUARD CONTEST, THIS COUPON ALONG WITH YOUR REMITTANCE, IS WORTH BONUS VOTES.

1,000 VOTES FOR A 13 WEEK SUBSCRIPTION
2,500 VOTES FOR A 26 WEEK SUBSCRIPTION

THESE "GET-ACQUAINTED" COUPONS ARE DEVISED TO DEMONSTRATE OUR EAGER-BEAVERNESS TOWARD SATISFY THE READING TASTE OF PEOPLE LIKE YOURSELVES.
HONOR US BY SUBSCRIBING...REWARD YOURSELF BY SUBSCRIBING...

NOW!

13 WEEK SUBSCRIPTION
TUESDAY & FRIDAY
REGULAR RATE- $5.20
You Remit Only- $3.80
FILL OUT AND MAIL TODAY!
SAVE $1.40

1000 VOTES
PLEASE START THE AFRO-AMERICAN FOR 13 WEEKS TO THE NAME AND ADDRESS BELOW FOR THE ENCLOSED REMITTANCE OF $3.80
Name ..... Address ..... City ..... State ..... Zip .....
I CAST MY VOTE FOR— Name ..... Address ..... Telephone .....
The BALTIMORE AFRO-AMERICAN
628 N. EUTAW STREET, BAL.TO., MD. 21203
Telephone: 728-8200
1000 VOTES

26 WEEK SUBSCRIPTION
TUESDAY & FRIDAY
REGULAR RATE- $10.40
You Remit Only- $7.50
FILL OUT AND MAIL TODAY!
SAVE $2.90

2500 VOTES
PLEASE START THE AFRO-AMERICAN FOR 26 WEEKS TO THE NAME AND ADDRESS BELOW FOR THE ENCLOSED REMITTANCE OF $7.50
Name ..... Address ..... City ..... State ..... Zip .....
I CAST MY VOTE FOR— Name ..... Address ..... Telephone .....
The BALTIMORE AFRO-AMERICAN
628 N. EUTAW STREET, BAL.TO., MD. 21203
Telephone: 728-8200
2500 VOTES