CLOSING "The Generation Gap" at Aberdeen Proving Ground at the end of a program designed to show that no such gap really existed is Mrs. Richard M. Nickens, chief of the APG Special Service Club Section. Mrs. Nickens worked closely with Sgt. 1st Class Harlan Kubo who devoted much time to the program and assisted in preparing the poster such as the one shown here of a teenager with beads, long hair and mod clothes.

Dionne to quit

NEW YORK — Songstress Dionne Warwick, who has sad a long string of hits on the Scepter label, is due to exit that diskery shortly. She is understood to be dickering with other companies for a new deal which will also involve Bloe Jac Productions for which Miss Warwick produces her disks.

Blue Jac Productions which is owned by songwriters Burt Bacharach and Hal David, recently settled a dispute with Scepter owner Florence Greenberg over royalty payments on disks distributed by the diskery.
