MECLP open house held at Westport

By WALTER W. E. HILL

The MECLP centers presented Open House Week during the past week, held at the following centers or schools: Schools Nos. 11, 74, 112, 225 and 238.

On Tuesday, May 25, at 9 a.m., the Westport Elementary School hosted the Model Early Childhood Learning Program Open House. In operation since October, MECLP is a preschool program whose curriculum is specifically designed for the 3-and 4-year olds.

There are presently 64 children from the Westport-Mt. Winans area attending.

At Westport Elementary, there are two full 4-year-old centers and two half day sessions for 3-year-olds.

Each center has a staff of four persons, a Master Teacher, two teaching assistants, and a parent counselor. Parent participation is a vital factor in the program.

The MECLP staff at P.S. No. 225 include: Miss Charlene Cooper, Mrs. Awilda Cassell and Miss Joan Hundt, teachers.

Mrs. Catherine Matthews, Mrs. Portia Barnett, Mrs. Vivian Lambert, Mrs. Geneva Turner, Mrs. Barbara Ellicott and Miss Paula Burley are teaching assistants, and Mrs. Barbara Ray, Mrs. Vera Randolph and Mrs. Alfreda Parker are parent counselors.

The Mt. Winans Civic Interest Group, Inc., with the aid of Westport and our Congressman and Senators, are probing the possibilities of securing a crossing light at the intersection of Maisel St. and Annapolis Road.

The much publicized mobile office for the Mt. Winans Area has at last been set up on Ridgely St. in the 2600 block and will soon be in operation. We still need a part-time secretary from our area.

Annual Woman's Day at Star of Bethlehem AME Church was most successful both spiritually and financially. Mrs. Mable Fletcher, Church Leader and Chairman of the Day, was honored in raising the highest amount this day with the sum of $414. Total raised for the day was $1850.50. The members are delighted to have their pastor back from the Annual Conference held last week.

A reminder . . . the regular meetings of the Mt. Winans Civic Interest Group, Inc. are held every third Wednesday of the month except for July and August, when the organization recesses for the summer.

The architect's drawings of the future homes to be built in the area can be seen in the following churches on Sundays: Mt. Winans Methodist, Bethany Baptist, First Baptist and Star of Bethlehem AME.

Scout Troop No. 243 sponsored by the Bethany Baptist Church of Mt. Winans, led by their scout master, Darrell S. Greene, spent the weekend camping at Columbia City.

Deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. Dessie Williams, 2635 Puget Street in the death of her sister, Mrs. Helen Curtis. The pastor, Rev. Roland Howard and members of Star of Bethlehem AME Church, where Mrs. Williams is a member, paid their respects on Monday. Funeral services were held on Thesday at the Christian Memorial Church.

Sympathy is also extended to the family of the late Mrs. Jamie Small who passed on Saturday, May 22. Funeral services were held at Leadenhall Baptist Church on Wednesday.

The Mother's Club Adult Dance

The Mother's Club of Westport-Mt. Winans had their first annual adult dance Friday, May 21 at the Westport Recreation Center, 2343 Norfolk Street. The guests, dressed in their mod mod fashions, danced the evening away to the music of the fabulous "Mondells."

The band really moved everyone. The guests were dancing the "Pesquin," the "Rubber Band," the "Hot Pants" and even the "Twist." Everyone was doing his own thing. It was a very enjoyable evening for the 150 persons who attended.

The dance was sponsored by the Mother's Club whose members are Mesdames: Elizabeth Wright—Pres., Brenda Cooper—V. Pres., Portia Barnett—Sec., Thelma Millard—Asst. Sec., Vera Randolph — Treas., Catherine Matthews—Bus. Man., Constance Green—Chap., Alfreda Parker—Asst. Bus. Man., Thelma Saunders—Member, Annie Gibson—Member, Hortence Grant—Member, and Ernestine Epps—member.

Among the 150 guests were:

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Burley, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Millard, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Freeland, Mr. and Mrs. John Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Briscoe, Mr. and Mrs. William Epps, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Hicks;

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Scott, Mrs. Evelyn Johnson, Senior Center Director; Mr. James Hastie, Leader of Westport Recreation; Mrs. Catherine Johnson, Mrs. Dorothy Foster, Mrs. Joan Kennedy, Mrs. Essie Reid, Mrs. Adell Morris, Miss Paula Burley;

Mr. Calvin Ellen, Mr. Ernest Robinson, Mr. John Hinson, Mr. Robert Toogood, Mr. Maxwell Johnson, Mr. William Manson, Mr. Mickey, Mr. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Mr. Charles Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Marshall, Mr. Flecher Jackson;

Mr. David Small, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald De Souza, Mrs. Jennie German, Mrs. Helen Foster, Mrs. Beverly Foster, Mr. Alfonza Lee, Mrs. Harrison Lambert, Mrs. India Nook, Mr. Samuel Wilson, Mr. Theorode Chainey;

Mr. Luther Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Boozes, Mr. Richard Parker, Mrs. Brendaline Simms, Mrs. Mary Tripps, Mrs. Mary Thompson, Mr. George Wright, Mr. Earl Grent, Mr. Calvin Woodhouse, Mr. James White, Mr. John Smith, Mr. Carlton Matthews, Mr. James Lee, Mr. Leroy Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Christian, Mrs. Verdlee Holmes, and Mrs. Rosa Turner.

MORE THAN 200 high school students from Baltimore City and surrounding counties gathered at the Community College of Baltimore recently for Health Career Day, the day's activities were directed by Mitchell Twardowicz and the allied Health personnel of CCB. The event was sponsored by the Maryland Hospital Educational and Research Foundation and the Community Services Department of CCB. Also participating were the counseling staffs of area colleges who had booths and displays explaining what their organizations were all about. Tours, slide-tape shows and talks were other features of the day's activities.

College Week for women set

College Park, Md. — College Week for Women will be held at the University of Maryland's College Park campus, June 14-16, and is open to all Maryland women.

Dr. Cynthia C. Wedel, president of the National Council of Churches, featured speaker, will discuss "Concerned Women — the Promise of Challenge."

* * *

In addition, participants will have the opportunity to hear other speakers, attend classes, participate in cultural events and meet women from all over the state.

Participants can live on campus in a dormitory or commute. The cost is $35 for resident students, including room and meals; $15 for fulltime day students (no meals included) and $5 for a single day, without meals.

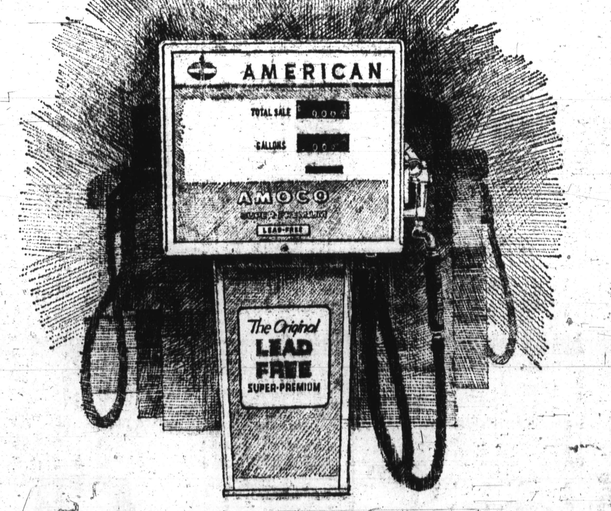
If you can find another premium lead-free in Baltimore, we'll buy you a tankful.



We want to prove to you that Amoco Super-Premium is the only premium lead-free gasoline you can buy. The only one that helps put pollution down and keep premium power up. Tell you what. If you can find another, get a tankful and bring the receipt to any American Oil Dealer. And we'll buy it for you. Fair enough?

And for the new 1971 anti-pollution cars, there's new Lead-Free Amoco. Only Amoco has two lead-free grades—one for all cars, new or old.

"You expect more from American and you get it."

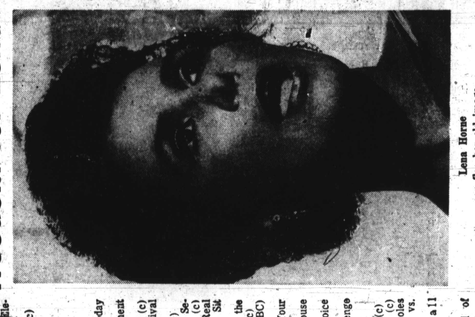
New revolution spells freedom for Lena Horne



Lena Horne

NEW YORK — Singer Lena Horne says the revolution has enabled her to be herself and to stereotype no longer. For the first time, she speaks candidly about her career and her changing image as an entertainer in an interview on Nat Hentoff's "Jazz."

The interview, conducted by poetess Nikki Giovanni, appears on Black Journal's special program, "The Black Revolution," the first transmitted last Sunday, which will be remicast and repeated at 11:30 p.m. today. It will be rebroadcast by PBS on Monday at 8:30 p.m.

Miss Horne was very candid about her divorce and remarriage. She said, "I wasn't a big enough woman to help my first husband. I didn't have the commitment in myself 'cause I'd never had it in my home.

She says she chose a white man as her second: black men of my own in the hands that I was traveling with having to step aside for me, and that I can away from that kind of tring to marry and have someone, and that I was a black man to live at that time, and to exist."

Miss Horne also speaks candidly about her divorce and remarriage. She said, "I wasn't a big enough woman to help my first husband. I didn't have the commitment in myself 'cause I'd never had it in my home.
