Dr. Lillie M. Jackson's 82nd birthday, May 25

Freedom House honored its founder Dr. Lillie Mae Jackson on May 25, the date of her 82nd birthday.

The surprise event was a birthday party at the 1224 Druid Hill Ave. location of the organization which is headed by Dr. Thomas H. Freeman, chairman of the board of directors; John J. Peters, chairman of the Neighborhood Council and Mrs. Esther Middleton, director.

Deputy Commissioner Frank J. Battaglia brought a large box of chocolates.

Mrs. Rachael Taylor and Mrs. Middleton baked special birthday cakes.

Neighborhood leaders from all over the city who have united in a drive to reduce crime and delinquency through Freedom House, brought flowers from their gardens.

Dr. Jackson also received handkerchefs, telegrams and cards with gifts of money which she turned over to Freedom House.

When asked her secret of her long life, Dr. Jackson said, "I've been a servant of God and man."

Dr. Jackson's family is gathering from across the country to celebrate her birthday.

Her daughter, Mrs. Marion Downes, concert singer from Los Angeles, Calif. will arrive May 30.

Her son, Bowen K. Jackson, arrived this week from Los Angeles to join in a birthday luncheon hosted by Mrs. Ethel Jones at her Flowerton Rd. home.

Mesdames Mary E. Hawkins, Susie Murphy and Dr. Jackson's daughter, Mrs. Juanita Jackson Mitchell were also guests at the affair.

Also due to arrive for the Memorial Day reunion are Dr. Jackson's daughter, Mrs. Virginia Kish, Atlanta, Ga., who is artist and director of the Kish Museum. The Baltimore members of the family will host the event.

"The Battle For Urban Mobility," a Group W (Westinghouse Broadcasting Company) special on the struggle to develop workable systems of mass transit in urban areas, will be telecast Sunday, May 30th at 7:00 p.m. on WJZ-TV (Channel 13).

Rev. Bennett teaches theology at Harvard

The Rev. Robert A. Bennett is concerned about the opportunities for minorities in American life today. He is assistant professor of Biblical Black Episcopalians, at the Episcopal Theological School.

The former Baltimorean is also teaching the Old Testament at Harvard Theological School.

Graduated valedictorian from Douglass High School in 1950, he was also graduated magna cum laude from Kenyon College, Gambier, Ohio in 1954, then studied at the University of Copenhagen on a Fulbright Fellowship.

His theological training was at General Theological Seminary. Ordained in the Diocese of Maryland in 1958.

For five years he was curate and then priest-in-charge of Baltimore's St. James Episcopal Church and chaplain at Morgan State College.

REV. ROBERT A. BENNETT

He returned to General Seminary and to Harvard University for graduate studies. While at Harvard, he began his teaching at the Episcopal Theological School, where he is now assistant professor.

Musical program to honor two at Simmons Memorial

An Appreciation and Musical Program is planned at New Pilgrim Baptist Church, Washington and Monument Sts., to honor two outstanding members of Simmons Memorial Baptist Church.

Mrs. Fannie Gross and Mrs. Sarah Young will be honored Sunday, May 30, in a 6 p.m. program of musical selections presented by various singing groups throughout the city.

Mrs. Gross is the director of the Gospel Chorus No. 1, at Simmons Memorial, of which she has been a member since its founding. She works for her choir, church and community.

She is also a singer with the Baltimore Spiritual — 12 Getes to the City Choir.

Mrs. Young is also a singer with the Gospel Chorus No. 1 at Simmons Memorial, where she has been singing for over 32 years. She is also president of the 12 Gates to the City singing group.

Singing groups in the city will be performing two selections apiece in honor of the two ladies. W. Skinnie Jefferson is chairman of the organizing committee; Mrs. Marie Stewart is co-chairman. The Rev. W. H. Black is pastor.

"My son, hear the instructions of thy father."—Proverbs 1, 8.

Mrs. Florence A. Rogers, widow, survives Attorney Solomon Rogers

Solomon Rogers, the attorney, founder and president of the Reisterstown Federal Savings and Loan firm died recently at the age of 81 years.

He was president of the Levindale Hebrew Home as well as donor.

His first marriage was to the former Miss Estell H. Rosenthal who died in 1935. His second marriage in 1939 was to the former Miss Florence Askin of Washington who survives him.

Other survivors include his sons, Judge Henry L. Rogers of the Peoples Court; Nolan Rogers, a lawyer in the attorney general's office, brothers and sisters.

In the obituary printed earlier, the name of Mr. Rogers' widow was omitted. The AFRO regrets the omission.

To give dacron curtains a new look, rinse them in a solution of 1 cup epsom salts and 1 gallon lukewarm water. This is especially good for ruffled curtains as they won't need ironing after this treatment.

LAST PHOTO of Grandison Clawson, the Southern High School honor pupil and band member. Young Clawson who died of leukemia near the end of his 10th grade semester. A brilliant award-winning scholar, he was also member of the Southern High wrestling team.
