MISS GLADENIA MAYO became the bride of Ronald Morton Swift in a high noon ceremony in Mount Moriah Baptist Church, Baltimore Saturday.

What's happening on the Eastside

By GEORGIANNA MOODY

Good Neighbor: Day by day we move around in our homes, on our jobs passing the many beauties of this world by, just because our minds are so wrapped up in ourselves and our many cares of the day, "we pass others by day by day."

So much beauty can be found in our surroundings, just be taking time out to listen to the kind words being spoken, during the day, of other people, and by thinking of the kind, gentle treatment having been received from others.

Yesterday, our work day seemed so light and joyous, as if I had been playing instead of working, all because time was taken out to listen to the many kind words about a good neighbor whom East Baltimoreans know as 'Aunt Pearl.' 'Aunt Peal' is a sweet, kind, lovable little lady of 78 years. She has spread so much joy and love to every child and adult in the community that no one ever calls her 'Mrs. Pearl', but, 'Aunt Peal'.

'Aunt Pearl' never had children of her own, but she has a large number of nieces and nephews who share her love and care and respect her as a part-time mother.

* * *

'Aunt Pearl's real name is Pearl V. Brown Moore. She lived in East Baltimore all of her life, first in the 800 block of Rutland Ave. for many, many, years, still Ada Moody to the 1000 block of Caroline St.

Today she and her sister Ada reside in the 1500 block of Penwood Ave.

Aunt Pearl has taken care of more than 100 children in the community while the mothers worked during the day.

She has been a nurse to more than 100 adults.

Aunt Pearl has also been a counselor, a doctor, missionary, counselor and disciplinerian all wrapped in one bundle of joy.

Long live 'Aunt Pearl,' a good neighbor full of love and kindness.

It's graduation time again and many young friends and relatives will soon be marching down the aisle to a higher step in life.

All would like to say congratulations to all of these "brides and "bridegrooms" who have spent years trimming and oiling their lamps of life.

Remember, the ones whose lamps were oiled and ready when doors open, you'll be the ones "to come in."

If not, the doors will close in your face."

Special congratulations to our graduates living in East Baltimore public housing: Bruce Williams, James Bradley Thomas, Deborah Ann Dixon, Valerie Wright, John Green, John Tatum, Kenneth Estep, Lida Whitner, Allen Montague

Also Deborah Kees, Patricia Green, Vernon Delouth, Brenda Gardner, Nathan Pitts, Patricia Leach, Brenda Sye, Gloria Lemma, Grace Branham, Roslyn Love, James Bailey, Lineil Whitner, R. Wilkerson, Karen Gray.

Many of these young people who are graduating from high school have received awards which will enable them to go on to an institution of higher learning.

P.S. Hi, Mr. Charles Anderson, did you know that ten of these high school grads are from Lafayette Courts? Mr. Anderson is the smiling Housing Manager of Lafayette Courts.

Thomas B. Thomas of 200 block S. Dallas Court has been an honor student at Baltimore City College. Due to outstanding achievements, he has received two scholarships to Wittenburg University in Ohio where he'll major in chemistry.

Brenda Gardner, Dunbar Honor Student has won a four year scholarship to Dickerson College in the amount of $18,000 to major in mathematics.

This year, 354 scholarships are being awarded to Dunbar students to continue their education. Colleges they will attend include Vassar, Cornell, Drexel and Case U. Good luck students, we love you!

Special congratulations to: Mrs. Marion Graham and Miss Mary McKesson, who will be receiving bachelor degrees from Morgan State College on June 6.

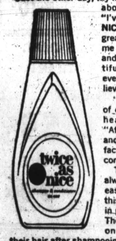
Hints For Homemakers

INEZ KAISER

Lever Brothers has done it again! This time they have put two really different products on the market. Both products offer "double duty" service and are revolutionary in their respective fields.

Just the other day, my niece Joyce was talking about Lever's shampoo. "I've been using TWICE AS NICE lately, and it is really great," she said. "It gives me a lot of time and energy and leaves my hair so beautifully manageable that even I find it hard to believe."



"Well, that's really a vote of confidence if I've ever heard one," I replied. "After all, it is a shampoo and conditioner in one. In fact, it's the only one with conditioner you can see."

The people at Lever are always trying to make life easier for consumers and this is their latest discovery in personal care products. They realize nearly everyone needs to condition their hair after shampooing so they came up with TWICE AS NICE to help save time as well as money.

There's a different formula for every hair type: pink with protein added and extra golden conditioner is for dry hair; green with extra cleaning agents for oily hair; blue for normal hair.

Each has a different fragrance, too. Green has a hint of mint in its scent; blue has a clean, fresh smell; and pink features a soft, flowery fragrance.

All you have to do is simply shake the bottle well and shampoo just as you usually do. As you lather your hair, you are working in the conditioner. Then, rinse, towel dry, and set. Notice how tangle-free your hair is. That's all there is to it.

Your hair will be lustrous, and with a manageability like never before. If you've ever washed your hair and couldn't do a thing with it, TWICE AS NICE is the answer to your shampooing problems.

You'll find that right after each shampoo, you'll be ready for any activity—with your hair looking just as you like it. I know it doesn't seem possible, but just one shampooing will make a believer out of you, too.

Once you see how manageable your hair can be and feel its softness, you too, will be telling someone: "I washed my hair with that TWICE AS NICE and it's absolutely great."

I mentioned that Lever has two really different products on the market. Well, the other one is also a two-in-one product with extra-special performance. I'm speaking about CLOSE-UP; a super-whitening toothpaste and mouthwash in one.

CLOSE-UP is a revolutionary product in every way. First, CLOSE-UP is clear red in color. You've never before seen a dentifrice so clear you can almost read through it.

Most important, CLOSE-UP allows you to clean your teeth and freshen your breath at the same time. It cleans as well as the leading toothpaste and it's just as effective as the leading mouthwash.

I know that many people require the protection of a mouthwash but don't like to use one. Well, all of these problems can now be solved by simply brushing with CLOSE-UP.

As I said, CLOSE-UP whitens and brightens teeth as well as any dentifrice. And, regular usage after every meal is highly effective in preventing cavities.

What more could a person ask from a dentifrice?

I noticed last week that CLOSE-UP is one of the sponsors of the Flip Wilson Show. While watching the show recently, the amusing thought crossed my mind that "Geraldine" must use CLOSE-UP when she goes out with "Tiger."

After all, when she says, "What you see is what you get," and then smiles, she has to know that her smile is really bright.

Close-up

CLOSE-UP is a toothpaste that will allow you to be "close-up" with confidence in any situation. It's unsurpassed in whitening power due to an exclusive polishing system which contains two new whiteners never before used in a dentifrice.

Clinical studies rating comparative degrees of enamel and dentin abrasion place CLOSE-UP well within the range of toothpastes enjoying long histories of safe usage.

Consumer tests have also shown that consumers prefer CLOSE-UP over conventional toothpastes for breath freshening, cleaning and whitening.

CLOSE-UP is unconditionally guaranteed by Lever Brothers Company to give consumers fresher breath and the whitest teeth possible.

So, if it's close-up confidence you are seeking in a toothpaste—and an end to your gargle blues—try CLOSE-UP.
