A past member of the Junior Negro Women Business and Professional Women's Club-Baltimore, under the direction of Mrs. Edna Johnson, she was presented to society in the Girl friend's Inc. Cotillion, in 1966, by the Town and Country Club.

She was a member of the court of Miss ROTC, Morgan State College, 1970-71 and a Morgan honor student.

Wish Miss Brook's versatility and the talents of this year's participants, we are expecting this year's campaign to be stipendous.

F. Conaway gets award on Sunday

Delegate Frank M. Conaway (D-4) will receive the annual Outstanding Citizen Award of the Strawbridge United Methodist Church

Conaway, a lay leader of the center city church, will be honored for service to community, business, religion, government and family, according to the Rev. Mervin C. Gray, pastor.

Conaway, a first term member of the state legislature, is treasurer of the church and chairman of its finance committee and committee on discrimination in housing.

The award will be made by the Rev. Mervin C. Gray at the church's regular 11 a.m. services.

Last rites Saturday for Mrs. Thelma R. Smith

Funeral services for Mrs. Thelma Ridgely Smith, 67, will be held Saturday 11 a.m. at the St. James Episcopal Church where she was a member.

Mrs. Smith died suddenly Wednesday morning at Lutheran Hospital.

She was a former member of the Calvary Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Stars.

The daughter of the late Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Aloysuis Ridgely (Lillie), she was born in Cumberland, Md. and attended public schools there and at the Bowie Normal School.

She was married to Edgar A. Smith Sr., senior warden at St. James Episcopal, for 46 years.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Smith is survived by four sons: Edgar A. Smith Jr., Hoard R. Smith, Franklin C. Smith, all of Baltimore, and Technical Sgt. Aloysius R. Smith, stationed at George Air Force Base in California.

Also, a daughter, Mrs. Thelma S. Phillips of Baltimore, a sister, Mrs. Marian D. Miles of Cumberland and 20 grandchilren.

She is buried in Arbutus Memorial Park.
