WHAT'S HAPPENING IN EASTSIDE

Miss Louise Reeves, noted outstanding good neighbor

By GEORGIANNA MOODY

WHO IS THY NEIGHBOR? "The happy gift of being agreeable seems to consist not in one, but in an assemblage of talents tending to communicate delight and how many are there, who, by easy manners, sweetness of temper, and a variety of other undefinable qualities, possess the power of pleasing without any visible effort, without the aids of wit, wisdom, or learning, nay, as it should seem, in defiance; and this without appearing even to know that they possess it."

How little Mrs. Cumberland knew how weil he portrayed Miss Louisa Reeves when he wrote the above words.

Miss Reeves is a pleasing 30-year resident of Douglas Homes. She possess all and more talents of which Mr. Cumberland spoke.

Last November, Miss Louisa was honored at an affair in New York's Biltmore Hotel.

She was one of four AFRO Clean Block Campaign members presented the 2nd Annual "Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson Litter Prevention Award" for outstanding contributions to the litter prevention movement.

* * *

The 79-year-old Miss Reeves has worked with the AFRO Clean Block Campaign for 20 years, encouraging young people and adults to prevent litter.

She plays an active part in many "golden age" programs, as weal as teaching the young for the Department of Recreation for more than 11 years.

In addition to her involvement in a variety of activities with the young and old, Miss Reeves still fints time for her favorites — camping and swimming, and arts and crafts.

The Girl Sports of America have benefited from her services for 30 years.

As a Jr. Girl Scout leader at the Lafayette Courts Recreation Center, she teaches young girls to build bridges that lead to fun, respect, friendship and skill for life.

Hundreds of young girls' lives have been carefully molded in silver and polished by gold under Miss Reeves' leadership in the East Baltimore community.

In 1965, the Department of Housing and Community Development presented Miss Louisa with the Harry B. Weiss Memorial Award for outstanding community service.

Miss Reeves has not always believed that everything that happens in this world is part of a great plan of God running through all times. Her life has not always been a happy one.

She was born in S.C. She was placed in a Quaker foster home in Pennsylvania at the age of 5, shortly after her mother died. This was a time of unhappiness.

At a very early age, Miss Reeves was taken out of the home for foster children and placed as a domestic worker in a private home. She was treatel as a slave, overworked, underfed and given no education. This of course was unbearable. Miss Reeves did not believe that it was God's plan for her so suffer such hardship.

At the age of 11 she ran away from the type of bondage.

At the age of 12, she ended up in Baltimore where her life changed for the better. Since that day, she has been determined to use her life to better the lives of others.

She found work in Baltimore, attended night school and started to clean up her surroundings. This she has done very well.

Miss Reeves says that one cannot rush God but one can wait and pray and life will turn out well. She has a strong belief in God and shows her belief through her church work.

She belongs to St. Francis Catholic Church located in the 1500 block of Caroline St.

She walks 14 blocks daily to say mass. She sings on the gospel choir there, attends Sunday School and takes an active part in other activities of her church.

James Ramsey, Housing Manager at Douglas Homes, and Charles Anderson, Housing Manager at Lafayette Courts, describe Miss Reeves as a wonderful person dedicated to the betterment of her community.

Mrs. Delores Clark, cashier at Lafayette and Reginald Hux see her as the epitome of an aggreable, happy, lovable, civic worker.

The Golden Age group at the Perkins Hofes is on the ball. Four members, Mrs. Laretta Griggers, Mrs. Mary Shuman, Mrs. Emma Howell and Mrs. Delores Evans, attended the Governor's Conference on the aged June 3, held at the Johns Hopkins University.

The same Golden Age group will give a luncheon June 23, to raise funds for a summer trip.
