Dr. H. Welcome new exec. with education council

The Maryland Council for Higher Education, the statutory agency for statewide planning and coordination of higher education, at its regular monthly meeting today, elected new officers for the coming fiscal year.

William P. Chaffinch, an Eastern Shore business man who resides in Cambridge and has his business in Easton, was elected as the new Chairman of the Council. Mr. Chaffinch, who had been Vice-Chairman of the Council, succeeds Dr. G. Russell Tatum, Chairman of the Council since its inception in 1964.

Also elected was Dr. Henry C. Welcome, a noted Baltimore surgeon, as Vice-Chairman of the Council.

Dr. Welcome had previously served as Secretary of the Council.

Elected at the same time as the new Secretary of the Council was Ellery B. Woodworth, a Vice President of The Johns Hopkins University.

The Council commended Dr. Tatum for the strong leadership which he had provided as Chairman of the Council in its formative years. During that time the Council published a Master Plan for Higher Education, and made recommendations to the Governor, the Legislature, and the governing boards of the institutions of higher education in the State regarding the orderly growth and overall development of higher education for the citizens of Maryland.

MTA Valentine for faithful rider

Miss Donna Barys, a regular user of express bus service, had sent the MTA a bright pink fluorescent Valentine card which said, "You'd be my valentine if only you'd begin to use express signs on Metropolitan Transit Authority buses which could be seen."

Recently Donna was presented a belated valentine gift from Joseph V. Garvey, Resident Manager of the transit authority, a replica of the new look express signs which are now being used by the MTA.

In making the presentation, Mr. Garvey noted that the Metropolitan Transit Authority was most appreciative of Donna's suggestion, even down to the shocking pink color.

JUNE 18

A "foam dome" will be constructed on the Annapolis city dock as a new feature of the Ninth Annual Annapolis Arts Festival, June 18 to 20. The waterfront Festival grounds also will have the traditional decorated tents and open-air stage.

JUNE 22

The Walters Art Gallery will conduct a series of six summer gallery tours at noon on Tuesday, beginning today and continuing through July 27.

MASTER'S DEGREE in sociology was awarded at the Howard University commencement to Miss Marilyn T. Oliver of Baltimore, who earned her B.A. degree at the University of Maryland. She is shown here with her father, John J. Oliver, vice president in charge of production of the AFRO-AMERICAN Newspapers. Miss Oliver also is a member of the AFRO board of directors.
