Methodists now total 257,760

The yearly statistical report of The Baltimore Conference of The United Methodist Church indicates a decrease in membership of 1,180 members, bringing the total membership of United Methodist Churches within Washington, D.C., Maryland (west of the Susquehanna River) and 3 counties in West Virginia to 257,760.

The addition of approximately 65 former Evangelical United Brethern Churches to the total by merger last year has affected all totals.

The decrease in membership was experienced despite a marked increase in the average weekly attendance at worship services of 9,130 persons. The total average weekly attendance is 89,947 or approximately 35 percent of the membership.

The Church School, or Sunday Schools, of the Conference showed increases in teachers, classes and attendance.

The total roster of teachers or leaders is 14,289, an increase of 1,129. Sunday School membership is up by 8,339 with a new high of 128,068 enrolled. 1,109 new classes have been developed, bringing the total of ongoing Church School classes to 7,896.

FRASER RITES—The Walbrook Trinity Presbyterian Church was full Tuesday when friends and relatives attended funeral services for the Rev. Thomas P. Fraser, 3rd, 39, who fell 85 ft. to his death in Paterson, N.J. In top photo are: first row his sister and brother-in-law, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cave of Philadelphia, and his twin-sister, Mrs. Stephanie Martin; Baltimore. Second row: the minister's fiancee of Baltimore, Miss Ellen Carter, and his first cousins of Seat Pleasant, Md., Dr. and Mrs. Fraser Williams. In the bottom photo (l. to r.) are his mother, Mrs. Thomas P. Fraser, 2nd, the deceased's 7-year-old son, Steven Fraser, and his father, Dr. Thomas P. Frsaer, 2nd, head of the biology department at Morgan State College.

Rev. Thomas Fraser, III last rites held Tuesday

"I have a deep and high regard for his discipline, vitality, and integrity that he brought to his own life....and the kind... he inspired in others."

He was a man who "never ceased to grow. He represented hope and promise for the future."

This is how the Rev. Edler G. Hawkins, member of the faculty of Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, N.J. eulogized his friend and one time associate, the Rev. Thomas P. Fraser, III.

* * *

The Rev. Fraser, son of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Fraser, III, interim president of Morgan State College, died suddenly Friday as a result of a fall from his eight story apartment balcony in Paterson, N.J.

The minister had returned to Paterson to head the St. Augustine Parish where he served earlier in his career as associate under the Rev. Edler G. Hawkins.

Many friends and relatives gathered at the Trinity Presbyterian church Tuesday, where Rev. Fraser served for almost 10 years to pay respects to the 39-year-old, talented minister.

The small church, was adorned with flowers of all colors and sizes. friends and relatives sat patiently and listened attentively to hear the words of the Rev. Hawkins and five other ministers trat assisted him in the service.

The Rev. C. Andre Kearns, Sr., pastor, presided at the church and at the graveside at Arbutus Memorial Park.

* * *

The words that Rev. Hawkins spoke were aimed at comforting the friends and family. He reminded the family that part of their solace was in the richness of memories.

"Another part will be what he brought to life," the Rev. Mr. Hawkins added.

"The family can recall more than others of the wonderful and happy experiences in his life.

"You can recall his birth, his graduation, his marriage, his installations, and all were happy," he stated.

But, he reminded his audience that the total experience of life has tears as well as happiness and stated, "Although we do not understand, in the fullness of time, we will know why our love brings us tears."

The Rev. Vernon Dobson quoted a passage from Shakespeare's ROMEO and JULIET that describes the brilliant minister as "a star in the heavens."

* * *

The Rev. Mr. Fraser was a long time and well-known resident of Baltimore. He was born in Dayton, Ohio, on Jan. 27, 1932.

A 1949 graduate of the Preparatory School at Delaware State College he received degrees from Dartmouth College (A.B.) in 1953, and from Harvard University Divinity School (S.T.M.) in 1954.

The Rev. Mr. Fraser had recently completed two and one half years at the University of Maryland, where he was a candidate for the Ph.D. degree in Black Church History.

He was also a holder of the Kent Fellowship of the Danforth Foundation of the University of Maryland.

The Rev. Mr. Fraser had an active interest in researching contributions of blacks to American history, specifically church history.

He was elected Vice-Moderator of the Presbytery of Baltimore in January, 1967. He was a recipient of the AFRO-AMERICAN Newspaper Award in 1960.

An active and involved person the Rev. Mr. Fraser served as Board member of many Community Agencies in Baltimore and Maryland.

He was an active member of the local Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance and an advocate of moving the church into the main stream of American life.

The Rev. Mr. Fraser is survived by a son by a first marriage which ended in divorce. The son, Steven Fraser who resides with his mother in Los Angeles, Calif., was present at the funeral.

In addition to the Rev. Mr. Fraser's parents, he is survived by two sisters: Mrs. Delores Cave of Philadelphia, Pa., Mrs. Stephanie Martin, his twin-sister of Baltimore; his fiancee, Miss Ellen Carter of Baltimore; a brother-in law, the Rev. Mr. Clarence Cave of Philadelphia; and a host of other relatives.

Honorary pallbearers were Male Members, Session of the Trinity Presbyterian Church, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity and Pi Omega Chapter.

Active pallbearers were Dr. Aaran Jenkins, Donald Matthews, Herman L. Carter, Jr., Lewis Richardson, Theodore R. Brown, Jr., and J. Douglass Sheppard.

Floran bearers were the: Flower Guild, Trinity Presbyterian Church, Female Members of the Session, deacons and trustees Board of Trinity, and officers of U.P.W., Trinity Presbyterian Church.

PROMOTED — Carl V. Hitchens Sr. has been promoted to manager of Maryland National Bank's Mondawmin Office. Hitchens joined the bank's administrative training program in September, 1970.
