

made in election of city officers, judges, et cetera, as indicated by the General Assembly by law, to make it conform with earlier provisions; and in line 27 it says "and" rather than "as well as". Otherwise, no changes were made in GP-10 as approved by the Committee of the Whole.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any questions of the Committee Chairman?

Delegate James.

DELEGATE JAMES: I support the question I want to ask is one of substance.

THE PRESIDENT: Very well.

Are there any questions of the Committee Chairman as to matters of style?

Delegate Carson.

DELEGATE CARSON: Mr. Chairman, more of a parliamentary inquiry, or inquiry of fact. I see that the Committee had section 9.11, "Lottery", included in General Provisions. What will be the effect of a vote approving the stylistic changes on General Provisions? Will that also ratify putting that section in that particular place?

THE PRESIDENT: Yes, because the Committee on Style, Drafting and Arrangement has the responsibility of recommending the arrangement of the Constitution, and the placement of this in this article in this fashion is their recommendation to that effect.

DELEGATE CARSON: Could there be an amendment after style amendments are approved with regard to that?

THE PRESIDENT: Not after they are approved. The Chair would permit you to request separate consideration with respect to that section, if that is your desire.

DELEGATE CARSON: I think that would be appropriate, Mr. Chairman.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other questions as to style?

Delegate Penniman, again maybe this was because once more you were engrossed in other things, I suggested several punctuation changes to staff adviser Dr. Philips this morning. Has he had an opportunity to talk to you?

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: He mentioned this had been done, but I have not had opportunity to get them.

THE PRESIDENT: I think I can remember them.

The Chair had suggested that the comma after the word "created" in line 18, and the comma after the word "offered" in line 19 should be eliminated on the ground that the phrase between those two commas is not intended as a parenthetical phrase, but rather as modifying "granted and created," so it would read "in all charters heretofore granted and created subject to repeal or modification."

I incorrectly stated that in that the second comma would not be the one after "offered", but would be the one after "modification".

Do you follow me, Delegate Penniman?

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: Yes, I do.

THE PRESIDENT: Is Delegate Gallagher here? I do not want to tie up the Convention.

Delegate Penniman, I understand Delegate Gallagher indicated he also concurred in deletion of the two commas. Would you concur?

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: Yes, sir.

THE PRESIDENT: Would there be any objection to considering section 9.06 modified so as to delete the comma after the word "created" in line 18, and after the word "modification" in line 19?

Delegate Mentzer.

DELEGATE MENTZER: And lower case the word "banks" in line 21.

THE PRESIDENT: Yes, and to modify by lower casing the letter "b" in the word "banks" in line 21.

The Chair hears no objection. The modifications will be made.

Are there any other questions?

Before putting this to—Delegate Case.

DELEGATE CASE: Mr. President, may I ask a question about section 9.10?

THE PRESIDENT: Certainly.

DELEGATE CASE: Chairman Penniman, I direct your attention to lines 28 to 31 inclusive on page 3. This sentence bothers me a little, and I am wondering just what the Committee means by it.

THE PRESIDENT: I think the question should be directed to Delegate Boyer.

DELEGATE CASE: All right. I will direct it to Delegate Boyer.
