Watts new president; 12 Boys' Towners off on tour

The Honorable Robert B. Watts, associate member of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City and a charter member of Boys' Town Homes of Maryland, has been elected to serve as president of this pilot" project.

The Julius J. Rosen site, the first Boys' Town Home, is currently filled to capacity and the second home, a 44-room mansion, is being renovated and furnished for a September opening.

President Watts announced that this year will be a "Building Year," so he will toss away the conventional gavel and officiate at all meetings with a workman's hammer.

Boys' Town Homes of Maryland intends to establish a minimum of 12 community based homes designed to serve 8 to 12-year-olds, intercepting these boys prior to their incarceration in a training school, where the influence of hardened criminals would more likely lead them into deeper criminal activity.

On July 1, 12 boys and staff will leave for a 51-day tour across the United States. The tour has been designed for the greatest educational benefit and youth enrichment.

The youngsters will stop at 38 sites throughout the country and be the guests of community invitations, sponsored in their behalf. Thus far, practically all of the communities have offered free lodging and food to the Boys' Town travelers.

Vacant lot playground dedicated to policeman

A memorial to Officer Kenneth Kontner, who died in 1957, was given by Zion United Church of Christ recently on a lot given by the city to the community around the 1500-block E. 28th St.

The dedication, which was held June 12, was to raise money for a playground for the lot as well as to remember Officer Kontner, who had worked in that community. Both the Northern District Police Station and Zion Church donated money for playground equipment.

Volunteer 'Vista' workers are helping community members to clear the lot and make it into a playground. The work started Tuesday, June 22.

Representatives at the memorial from Zion Church were Mr. and Mrs. William Stein and Donald Snyder. A memorial was also presented by Officer Wingrove. Officer Kontner's former partner.

Other dignitaries present were State Senator Floyd Adams, Walter Brooks, president of the North East (NECO), the Rev. Robert Dever, of Grace Baptist Church, the Rev. Robert Meissner, of Huber Memorial United Church of Mrs. Clara Moore, president of the Huber Action Group.

'Vista' workers present were Hank Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tyler and Jay Stein.

As part of the memorial program, a baby contest judging took place. First prize winner was Orin Miguel Harrison, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Harrison, who was named Poster Child of the Year. Second place winner was Michael Lee, 18 months; son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Lee. Community Organization

Warning to all Gas and Electric Customers

Once again, imposters, posing as Gas and Electric Company employees, are gaining entrance to homes in the Baltimore area. On the pretext of inspecting or changing meters, the imposter gets into the house and either demands cash payment in advance to do the work or robs the victim.

The Company would like to remind its customers that there is no charge for changing meters and if appliance repairs are made, the charge is added to the gas and electric bill.

All of our employees carry official Company identification cards, showing name, physical description, photograph and other information. For your protection, please ask to see this identification card and inspect it carefully before you let the person into your home. Our employees will be glad to comply with this request.

If still in doubt, call the Company. Telephone 685-0123 or nearest Company office, and a representative will quickly determine if any work is scheduled for your address.

Miss Wiggins and Mr. Tucker wed

Miss Dorothy Annette Wiggins became the bride of John Linwood Tucker on Friday, June 18 at the New Shiloh Baptist Church. The Rev. Harold Carter officiated at the double-ring ceremony assisted by Rev. William Brinkley of Northumberland County, Va. Accompanying Rev. Brinkley were a number of friends of the bridal couple.

Since both parents of the bride are deceased, the wedding was announced by her sister, Mrs. Sarah W. Lyles, who was also matron-of-honor.

The bride's dress was of palest blue silk; softly glowing brilliants were applique'd on the body of the dress as well as at the high, rounded neckline and on the sleeves. Her headpiece was matching veiling through which peeked small, rolled silk flowers and pearls. She carried a small white covered and orchid garlanded Bible with white ribbon streamers which ended in points of daisies.

Mint green in a tunic dress also of silk, outlined at the hem in softly glowing jewels, was chosen by the matron of honor with matching headpiece. Ruffled organdy in buttercup yellow was worn by Misses Gilda Dixon and Margaret Harriday, junior bridesmaids, with matching ribbon headpieces. All the bridal attendants carried bouquets of mixed daisies accented with touches of yellow and green.

Mrs. Mildred Jetkins, mother of the groom, was regal in ice-brown chiffon over crept with a small halo hat i matcring swirls of soft straw and chiffon.

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Clinton Blackwell.

* * *

Other members of the wedding party included: Paul Lawson, best man and Albert McGill, Chester Norton, Kenneth Gerrett and Jackson Pharr, ushers.

Reception in the church hall followed the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Blackwell entertained after the wedding rehersal and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lawson entertained the bridal party with dinner following the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker will honeymoon in New York City and Florida.

The wedding was co-directed by Mrs. Cell Banton and Mrs. Willis Bland.
