Mrs. Helen Bevans buried Thursday

Funeral services for Mrs. Helen Bevans were held Thursday at the Herbert E. Nutter Funeral Home.

Mrs. Bevans, 66, died Monday in Union Memorial Hospital. She suffered a stroke a week before.

A lifelong Baltimorean, Mrs. Bevans was the daughter of Mrs. Pauline Ringgold and the late Frank Garrett. She attended the public schools here.

She was the wife of William Bevans Jr., a retired employee of Melon Grocery Co.

William Bevans Jr. told the AFRO, "My mother loved to dance. She was good at it."

In addition to her husband and son, she is survived by another son, Donald Bevans; daughters, Misses Doretha, Gloria Geraldine, and Thelma Bevans; brother, William A. Ringgold Jr.; 23 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren.

Burial is in Mount Auburn Cemetery.

Mrs. Betty Crawley buried in Monkton

"My sister had only been ill since June 23, when she was admitted to Sinai Hospital. She died on Monday, June 28, after suffering a stroke.

Mrs. Hazel Ellerbe, an advertising consultant of New York, was speaking of her sister Mrs. Betty Crawley, 2524 Francis St.

Mrs. Crawley, 39, a native Baltimorean, was the daughter of Mrs. Maude Holland of 1819 W. Mulberry St., and the late David Smith. She attended the public schools and worked as a beautician for over 10 years.

She was the widow of Harry Crawley who died a year ago.

Funeral services were held today (Friday), at Herbert E. Nutter Funeral Home.

In addition to Mrs. Holland and Mrs. Ellerbe, Mrs. Crawley is survived by daughters, Mrs. Gloria Tate and Mrs. Pamela Farrell; brother, Kenneth Smith, York, Pa.; sisters, Mrs. Viola Couch, Mrs. Ruth Coleman and Mrs. Mamie Short, all of Baltimore.

Predominantly white church gets first black minister

By EDITH M. HOUSE

There is a new minister in town and the only way to describe him is dynamic and innovative.

The Rev. Quincy Darnell Cooper is the new minister of St. Mark's Methodist Church at Garrison Blvd. and Liberty Heights Ave.

St. Mark's is predominantly white church but is located in a predominantly black area of town — Forest Park.

He is the first black minister to take up the pastorate at the church.

The young minister doesn't seem to be really that concerned about being the first black minister in a church whose congregation is approximately 90 per cent white and 10 per cent black.

At the church he left in New York, the ratio was reversed. The pastor seems to be at home no matter what the ratio of the congregation is.

In speaking of his new church home, the Rev. Mr. Cooper said:

"The life of this church rests with it relating to the black community.

"I am not only convinced that this church is buildable but that it will be one of the finest in the city.

"We just need a little imagination and to reach out and let folks know we care."

* * *

As for new plans for the church, he said:

"I just don't look at myself as a pastor of this church. I see myself as one of the pastor's of the community. I would like to be a friend to the people of this community."

The Rev. Mr. Cooper is an involved and committed community man. When in New York, he was very much involved with many of the social programs there, from drugs to model cities.

He wants to be just as involved and committed to the needs of the Baltimore community, especially in the area of his church.

Rev. Mr. Cooper summed it up best how people want to look at their minister.

"I believe I do my best preaching from Monday through Saturday, not just Sunday."

* * *

Before even really getting the feel of his new home and settling down, the minister was busy doing his homework.

To get to know his city and its problems, he visited in my corner. What he does, he does not have to do." he added.

The Rev. Cooper is quite experienced and involved in the Methodist Church. He was minister of St. Paul Methodist, Lewes Delaware; associate minister of Salem Methodist Church, New York; minister of John Wesley Methodist Church, Brooklyn, N.Y.; executive director of the Brooklyn Division, Council of Churches, N.Y.C. and minister of Union United Methodist Church, Brooklyn, N.Y.

He has served as president and vice-president of various church organizations and is a member of the: Rotary Club of Brooklyn, NAACP (Brooklyn Branch), Urban League (Brooklyn Branch), Masonic Order, Prince Hall Affiliation, F and AM (Mt. Pisgah No. 126), Black Methodists for Church Renewal, Operation Breadbasket (Brooklyn) and a host of other civic and church organizations.

* * *

Presently, he is pursuing a Ph.D degree at Fordham University in New York City. The Rev. Mr. Cooper received his A.B. from the University of Maryland, Eastern Shore; his S.T.B. from Wesley Theological Seminary; S.T.M. from New York Theological Seminary and a counseling Certificate from the Postgraduate Center for Mental Health New York.

He has received honors from various organizations also. They are: Kappa Alpha Psi Honorary Society, Who's Who in Negro Colleges, Protestant Fellow Award, Rockefeller Fellowship for Theological Education, Protestant Delegate, Rome, Italy for the elevation of Archbishop Terence Cooke to Cardinal in the Roman Catholic Church, National Selection Committee, Rockefeller Fund for Theological Education, and the Ninth Annual Citizens's Award (1971) given by the Medical Society of the County of Kings and the Academy of Medicine of Brooklyn, Inc.

The Rev. Mr. Cooper's subject for this coming Sunday is Reserves of the Spirits.

Wycoff re-elected Grand Master

Hiram Grand Lodge of Masons re-elected Hen Clarence Wycoff, Grand Master at the 50th Grand Lodge Quarterly Session.

Other officers elected were: John V. Thornton, Rt. G.M.; Frank Johnson, W. G. Secretary; James L. Mosley, W.G. Treasurer; Jesse J. Jackson, W.G. Tyler; and James H. Alston, Editor.

When the Grand Lodge held their 50th Annual Divine Service at Enon Baptist Church the following states participated in the parade:

New York, New Jersey, and D.C.
Massachusetts, Virginia and D.C.

Matron charged in slaying

Mrs. Rose Hawkins, 32, 1100 block N. Bentalou St. was arrested Wednesday and charged with the murder of Pittman Ratchford, 50, of the same address.

The incident took place on June 13. Mrs. Hawkins was charged with assault prior to the man's death.

Mr. Ratchford died Tuesday morning at Lutheran Hospital. He had been shot three times at the Bentalou St. location.

Mrs. Hawkins is being held without bail.

NEW HOME — The Rev. Quincy Darnell Cooper and his family are the new family in town this week. The Rev. Cooper is the new pastor of St. Mark's Methodist Church on Garrison Blvd. and Liberty Heights Ave.

MISS GINGER MOORE — daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Moore of 3402 Duvall Ave., was graduated from Friends School with top honors. Miss Moore is the recipient of four-year scholarship to the University of Maryland.

Miss Janice Waters was home recently visiting her mother, Mrs. Ruth Ruperia Waters. Mrs. Waters is a mother of the Northwest Club.

In Memoriam

AYERS — In loving memory of my dear husband, PRESTON AYERS, who passed away July 6, 1970.
God saw the road was getting rough
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his living eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
It is over-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
EVA M. AYERS and FAMILY

EVERETT — In loving memory of my husband, PHEN EVERETT, who passed July 3, 1961:
When the evening shades are falling,
And I am sitting all alone,
In my heart there comes a longing
If you only could come home.
Oft and Oft my thoughts do wander
To your grave so far away,
While I laid you, dearest husband,
Ten years ago today.
Wife, MABLE EVERETT

GARRISON — In loving memory of my dear son, GRANT C. GARRISON, who passed away July 1, 1968:
You are always in my thoughts
No matter where I go,
Always in my heart, dear son,
Because I loved you so.
Mother,
LILLIAN GARRISON LEE

GIBSON — In loving memory of my dear son, BERNARD GIBSON, who passed away July 2, 1970:
Why did he go, when life seemed fair,
And no dark clouds were near,
To dim the brightness of my life,
Or start the bitter tear
I thought not at the close of day,
When night veiled earth and sky,
That one so full of life and hope
Would breathe his last goodbye.
LOVING MOTHER

GIBSON — In loving memory of our dear brother, BERNARD GIBSON, who passed away July 2, 1970:
It's memorial day
Come to My Heavenly garden,
And see, in perfect bloom,
The flower you loved so dearly,
And thought I plucked too soon.
Then you will know My reason,
Though you know it not today.
Why in his promising manhood
I took your brother away.
LOVING SISTERS

MICKENS — In loving memory of our dear brother, and uncle, BERNICE, who passed away July 3, 1970:
We often sit and think of her when we are all alone.
For memory is the only friend that grief can call its own;
Like ivy on the withered oak, when all other things decay,
Our love for her will still keep green, and never fade away.
Sisters, DORIS COUSIN and SHIRLEY DENNIS.
Brother, GEORGE BASS.
Niece, DENISE HAYNES

MOORE — In loving memory of my husband, WILLIAM MOORE who passed away July 2, 1968:
Memories are a keepsake
No one can steal,
Death is a heartache
No one can heal.
Beautiful memories all I have left
Of a wonderful husband, I will never forget.
Loving Wife,
PEARL B. MOORE

MYERS — In loving memory of my dear sister and our stepmother, EMMA G., who passed away July 7, 1967:
Her pleasant way and smiling face
Are a pleasure to recall,
She had a kindly word for each
And died forgiving all.
Some day we hope to meet her,
Some day, we know not when,
To clasp her hand in the better land,
Never to part again.
Sister, REGGIE and STEPCHILDREN

PERKINS JR. — An Anniversary tribute to the memory of our son and brother, JAMES WILLIAM, who passed away June 30, 1970:

Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all;
A bitter grief, a shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you,
And sorrow for hour you died,
We think you could not say good-bye,
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did your best,
Oh God, grant your soul eternal rest.
LOVING MOTHER and DAD,
Sisters: GLORIA FERNELL and RENEE

In Memoriam

PROCTOR — In loving memory of my dear husband and brother, J. FLETCHER, who passed away July 4, 1967:
When the evening shades are falling,
And we are sitting all alone,
Oh, our hearts there comes a longing
If you only could come home.
Oft and Oft our thoughts do wander
To your grave so far away.
Where we laid you, dearest husband and brother,
Four years ago today.
Wife, MABEL,
Sister, GENEVA NEAL
Brother, WILLIAM

ROBINSON — In loving memory of my dear mother, and grandmother and friend, GEORGETTA PULLY ROBINSON, who passed away July 2, 1964:
A wonderful mother, woman and aid,
One who was better God never made;
A wonderful worker — so loyal and true,
One in a million — that, mothers are few.
Mary and Eastern Shore; his S.T.B. from Wesley Theological Seminary; S.T.M. from New York Theological Seminary and a counseling Certificate from the Postgraduate Center for Mental Health New York.
Just in your judgment, always right,
Honest and liberal, ever upright;
Loved by your friends and all you knew,
Loved by mother — that, mother, was you.
