Illustrious Women

"The queen is in her counting house, counting out her money," so the poem goes.

In her bank accounting for everything that goes on in addition to summing up money for reports is Mrs. Carole P. Manns of Annapolis.

The beauteous matron is manager of the Maryland National Bank's new branch at Friendship Airport.

The title which further distinguishes Mrs. Manns as one and only of her race to hold such a post in the nation is "Branch Manager, the National Security Agency Complex, Maryland National Bank at Friendship Airport."

Mrs. Manns, a native of Maryland's capital city, has been on the job since the new branch was opened on June 2.

She joined the bank's training program in June, 1966 after she was graduated from Morgan State College. Subsequently she became an administrator at Maryland National's Mondawmin Office and then at a branch in Annapolis.

She is chairman of the yearbook committee of the Baltimore chapter of the American Institute of Banking and a member of its Women's Committee.

Her Friendship Airport bank is the 107th Maryland National Bank in the state.

Mrs. Manns has been married for eight years to Warren H. Manns, a ticket agent for American Airlines at Friendship Airport.

Their two children are Todd, 7, who is spending the summer with his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren J. Manns, Roanoke, Va. and Tracye, 2½, who is at home under the watchful eye of her parents and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Pindell Sr. of Annapolis.

MRS. CAROLE P. MANNS

Miss Moore wed to Lewis Horne

Mrs. Beulah Rebecca Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Toney Moore, was married to Lewis Donald Horne, here, recently.

Mr. Horne is the son of Mrs. Laura Dell Horne of Clarkton, N. C. and the late Mr. Horne.

The wedding took place in the Little Ark Baptist Church, E. North Avenue, this city. The Rev. Matthew Marcus officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Escorted by her father, Mrs. Horne was attended by Mrs. O. Taylor, Mrs. S. Pope and Miss B. Talley.

• • •

The bride wore a gown of white satin which featured a pleated and jeweled bodice, and chapel train which fell from a bolero worn over the dress. A bouffant veil and a cascade of white carnations and babies breath completed her ensemble.

Her attendants wore dresses of yellow and white, and carried umbrella shaped bouquets of white and yellow flowers.

Flower girls, Marion Brown, Gene Brown, Sharnell Dolley and Laura Joinson, wore white frocks and carried white and yellow daisies.

Ring bearer was Joseph Mitchell.

A reception was held in the Morgan State College Christian Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrow were the raison d'etre for the party, on Sunday, given by Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy, their hosts.

This informal gathering included Dr. and Mrs. William Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Tarter, Mr. and Mrs. Medford Reynolds, Mr. and and Mrs. Lonnie Greene, Mrs. William Stanford, Dr. Mrs. Cliff Mackay, and the Stanfords' brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Wilson of Philadelphia.

Dr. and Mrs. Lonnie Greene, hosting the Couple's Club's final meeting for the season, took members and a slew of guests to Crownsville, Md., for a dilly of a party, Sunday last.

The party was on the beautiful grounds of the home of their friends, Dr. and Mrs. George M. Phillips, of Crownsville Hospital.

There was an extended cocktail period, interspersed with dancing to Caribbean music by the Phillips Brothers combo, followed by a luscious buffet dinner, then more cocktails, more dancing. Mrs. Greene swept among her exotically dressed guests . . . a perfect hostess, and a pace setter in ankle-length sheer print pants dress . . . and setting a pace in that group of high-fashion guests was an achievement.

Among those who arrived in mid afternoon and lingered into the evening, were Dr. and Mrs. Walter Tyler of Washington, Dr. and Mrs. Aris Allen of Annapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hicks of Frederick, Mrs. Olga Chambers, Mrs. Corrienne Woodland, Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Phifer, Dr. and Mrs. Albert Burwell, Dr. and Mrs. Irving Henry, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Gaskins, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jackson, Kenneth Wilson all of Baltimore, and Dr. and Mrs. George M. Phillips of Crownsville.

Club members there included Mrs. John Rich, Mr. and Mrs. Medford Reynolds, Mrs. Cliff Mackay, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy, Dr. and Mrs. Lonnie Greene, Mr. and Mrs. William Warrington, Mrs. Charles Law, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Butler and Mr. and Mrs. William Stanford.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hicks of Frederick, Md. hosted his club, the No Narres, and their wives at another of the end-of-the-season session, on Sunday.

Guests were French Stone of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Butler and Dr. and Mrs. Ted Phifer of Baltimore.

Club members and their mates attending were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Herbert Brown, John Cothorn, Milton Dugger, Walter Dyson, Sherlock Grinage, Miles Harrison, Roger Owens, Donald Johnson, Clements Nixon, Donald Patterson, Vernon Proul, Messrs. and Mesdames Wilfred Seaborne, Robert Umphery, Wilbur Valentine, William West and Isaiah White; and Alfred Gardner and Robert Umphery.

You know the Girligags: Allegra Taylor, Louise Dennis, Hilda Higgins, Elsie Carter, Sarah Rayne, Rebecca Brown, Elizabeth Stewart and Waltye Doles. They are just back from 10 days at Oak Bluffs, Mass., where they were guests of Waltye. They usually go to the Blue Ridge Mountains in Virginia for a spell with Elizabeth Stewart in October. Decided to double the outings in '71.

Mrs. Beulah Diggs of Annapolis, Md., entertained at a dinner party in honor of her sister, Mrs. Horace Canady of Goldsboro, N. C., and Mrs. Eddie Gilmore Sr. of Long Beach, Calif., Saturday. Mrs. Gilmore is a former resident of Annapolis, and daughter of John Chambers and Mrs. Catherine Parker of that city.

Assisting Mrs. Diggs were Mrs. Robert Wells and Mrs. Oscar Kidd. Other guests included Mesdames Houston Thompson, Thomas R. Baden, J. Alexander Wiseman, Wyatt M. Bailey, William H. Richardson, Joseph D. Johnson, Harry Simms, Richard Tyler, Leonard Brown of Washington.

The group of children who attended, and were entertained by Mr. (Leonard) Brown, included Kathy Kelley, Eddie Kelly Jr., John and Perry Gilmore, Jeanine Johnson, Larry Beach, Tracy Davis, Nina Kidd and Diane and Bruce Brown of Washington.

A hundred Pace-Setters (they're a retired city teachers group) and guests spent an afternoon at bridge, pinochle and pokena, in the reception room of Levinson and Kline's, Thursday ago. Those who didn't play cards joined a group of chit-chatters, who related experiences of travel, etc. The one remaining the most entertaining tale received a prize.

Friends who called were Bill Newton and Judge and Mrs. Robert B. Watts.

Announcement has been made by James L. Green of Wentworth Road, of the coming marriage of his daughter, Mrs. Mary M. Tisdale of Windsor Avenue, to Walter A. Carter.

Mrs. Tisdale is an interviewer with the Department of Social Services. Mr. Carter is an employee of the Salon Meter Company.

Miss Clydia D. Wood, daughter of Mrs. Carl L. Speights and the late Kendal Wood, who is majoring in biology at Goucher College, is serving as a member of a team studying a dying Baltimore lake, under a National Science Foundation grant.

Miss Wood has been participating since February in the ecological study of Lake Roland, Baltimore's first major municipal water supply which is now used for recreational purposes. The team, composed of a faculty project advisor and twelve students who are chemistry, biological sciences, mathematics, and geography majors, will continue the study through August.

In an attempt to save the heavily sedimented lake, students are researching methods for improving the lake's water quality through the use of standard professional techniques for biological and chemical sampling and the formulation of a computer model to predict future changes.
