CORE announces new phase of Target City Program

The Congress of Racial Equality, Inc. has announced that a new cycle of the CORE Target City Youth Program began July 1.

The program is jointly funded by the U.S. Department of Labor and the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

Elements of the training will include: offset duplicating machine operation, office technology-skills development and building maintenance repair.

Instructional classes will begin July 6. Also on July 6, CORE will present at its new headquarters building, 1640 Gorsuch Ave., a "kick-off" program to commemorate the need for community unity. The public is invited.

Victor Solomon, associate national director of CORE, stated, "The new phase of the CORE Target City Youth Program will be aimed at the development of highly sophisticated skills among persons generally characterized as unemployed and/or underemployed.

"The methodology will be based on simulated work conditions — model shops and office conditions.

* * *

According to Solomon, "for years the tendency has been to respond to the effects of urban problems rather than the many causes. As a result, Baltimore, along with other major cities throughout America, is under constant pressure to provide expanding and multiplying services in an attempt to solve a variety of problems.

"The question of concern is 'Are the citizens who reside within our urban areas the victims of a bankrupt system?' The meaning of bankruptcy in this case extends well beyond the normal meaning of 'a state of financial ruin.'

"It is meant to include 'institutional bankruptcy' more specifically defined as the inability or lack of a genuine societal effort to respond to the needs, desires and dissatisfactions bellowed by a large segment of our populace commonly identified as 'poor,' 'hardcore,' or 'disadvantaged.'

"Here, CORE believes, lies the crux of the problem. Many of these persons have latent abilities which have not been brought to the forefront.

"For years, there has existed in Baltimore a real need for persons with skills relating to Office Practice, Building, Maintenance and Repair and Printing Operations.

"Yet the complexity of society serves to frustrate and alienate those persons previously mentioned and further closes or restricts any outlets which could serve as tributaries to them and lead to their societal resurrection."

Vladimir Vodka has increased sales in U.S.

Because of the consistently increasing demand for Vladimir Vodka, Montebello Liquors announced today that they have embarked upon an expanded new sales, advertising and marketing program.

Vladimir Vodka was the first bottled vodka introduced in America, and sales have increased every year since then, according to Ed Roccia, sales and marketing director of Montebello Liquors. Vladmir Vodka is now being exported to many foreign countries.

"Because of our unique method of distiling and our careful quality controls, we know that we have a truly superior vodka," said Mr. Roccia. "The enormously increasing sales is a sure indication of consumer preference, in this highly competitive market."

Mr. Roccia added that for Vladimir Vodka they use the finest spring water, which is then filtered carefully, slowly three times, by a special charcoal-filtered process, to achieve an extra smoothness, and to eliminate all possibilities of harshness. Vladimir Vodka mixes easily, and can also be savored straight, because of its smooth, even-bodied taste.

Vladimir Vodka is available in half gallons, quarts, fifths, pints, half-pints, and miniatures, and is available in nearly all package outlets and bars in this area, and in many other states and foreign countries.

Elected were: Arthur Middleton, president; Johann Pasquale, first vice president; Stanley McCloud, second vice president; James Jefferson, state director; Jack Blevins, secretary; George Redd, treasurer; Bill Messler, director and Clayvon Jones, director.

Helping with the meeting were Jim Flaig, Carl Price, Ray Streibe, and Joe Scortino of the Glen Burnie Jaycees, the chapter extending TRIPLE "C".

Members of the newly formed chapter have spoken to upwards of 50,000 young people in the Anne Arundel and Prince Georges County School Systems in conjunction with the Glen Burnie Jaycees Drug Abuse Program.

It is hoped that the TRIPLE "C" Jaycees will be the first chapter seated under the new Maryland Jaycees President, William Green.
