The superintendent

(FROM PAGE ONE)

Dr. Patterson was born in Washington, D.C. on September 22, 1928. He is married with two children and resides with his family in a house that overlooks a lake.

Currently he is assistant superintendent of Central Area Schools. The Central Area is composed of fourteen schools, eleven elementary, two junior high schools and one senior high school. They form a decentralized unit with an elected school council serving in an advisory capacity to the Assistant Superintendent and the Board of Education.

The Central Area Schools serve approximately 7,000 students. The population is mixed and heterogeneous in cultural backgrounds. Central Area Schools have a certificated staff of approximately 400 persons and a non-certified staff of approximately 150 persons.

Said Dr. Patterson, "I have the responsibility for curriculum development, personnel, budget, facilities, pupil personel services and such other duties as are involved in the operation of a school system."

Dr. Patterson's selection by the board was not anamous, although members had expressed the desire that it be so. It is thought that the vote taken during the secret session was 6-1. Mrs. Maree Farring is highly suspected to have cast the only dissenting vote.

The Seattle administrator was chosen over leading black candidates in the Baltimore system. Controversy arose at a William Pinderhughes was not named to the acting position created by the resignation of Dr. Thomas D. Sheldon.

Mr. Pinderhughes is associate superintendent for personnel services and was generally considered by black and white as Dr. Sheldon's right-hand man.

However, Sterling S. Keyes, associate superintendent for administration, finance and planning, was named to the interim post after he promised board members he would not be an active candidate.

The board then began a series of interviews with four candidates which had been narrowed down from over 200 applications nationwide.

After a last ditch attempt by one or two board members to have their favorite Baltimore candidate named, the board abandoned all intent to name a local person.

At a press conference this morning (Friday) the board formally named Dr. Patterson as superintendent. He had breakfast with the mayor and other board members. His salary will be $50,000 per year. Dr. Sheldon received the same salary and was the highest paid official in the city.

Dr. Patterson received the bachelor of science degree from New York University in 1951, the M.A. degree from Columbia University in June, 1957 and the Doctor of Education degree from Columbia University.

hers in Baltimore.

He and his wife, the former Miss Shirley Ann Staves, have been married 18 years. Their children are John Raymond Jr., 17, and Steven, 16, both seniors at the Gilman School; Janet, 8, and Lora Frances 5, both Hilton Elementary School pupils.

The family holds membership at the Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church. Judge Hargrove is an advocate of the Mary Queen Council No. 5276 Knights of Columbus and on the advisory board to Cardinal Shehan for the Diocese of Baltimore.

He is a member of the board of managers of the Druid YMCA and a member of the Baltimore Urban League; Legal Aid; State Constitutional Convention Commission Judiciary Committee; commission on Revision, Criminal Law and Procedure, Good Samaritan Hospital, Advisory Board of Correction, State of Maryland; chairman of the 8th Circuit Court of Appeals Character Committee.

He attended the old St. Catherine's Academy (now St. Pius School) from Kindergarten through the 8th grade, was graduated from Douglass High School in 1941.

After study at Morgan State College from 1941 to 1943, he took a one-year Army Specialized Training program course to receive a certificate in engineering in 1944 from Howard University. He earned a degree in government and public administration from Howard in 1947 before he was enrolled at the University of Maryland.

While in the Armed Force from 1943 to 1946, he served as a sergeant in the Corps of Engineers.

old magistrate of yesterday and his "doing as he pleases."

Persons having business before the new District Courts in Baltimore or anywhere in Maryland, for that matter "can expect full justice," Judge Hargrove repeats.

And, this is part of his duty, Judge Hargrove states, to see that each court is operated in the ideal manner.

The new District Court opens with the bailiff announcing the trial and the presiding jurist calling for defendants, arresting officers and witnesses to approach the bench in an orderly fashion and all according to law.

Each word is recorded as persons concerned are advised of their rights and the trial proceeds with the same precision as any higher court.

The District I Courts are listed as "District of Maryland; District I with the main phone number as 837-4656.

Among the 22 jurists under Judge Hargrove are Judge William H. Murphy Sr., who was elected in November, 1970 and Judge Solomon Baylor, appointed by the governor in 1971.

To indicate the importance and size of District I, Judge Hargrove points out it has an income of about $5 million in fees and fines and about 200 persons employed to conduct the business of the courts.

Last year there were 100,000 traffic cases and 100,000 criminal cases.

To help dispose of the vast case load under the new system, Baltimore will have in the near future from 12 to 18 commissioners, Judge Hargrove states.

The commissioners will schedule court hearings, determine and set bail and assume other preliminary duties that lead to trial.

Each Judge will keep detailed records and all proceedings will be recorded either by stenographer or electronic device.

Judge Hargrove points new system which not only makes the lower courts "courts of record" but also out here is a keynote to the but also assures "more careful administration of justice."

Ajurist, in contrast to the old magistrate, will be more likely to be "on his toes" and handle each case according to law, he states.

The new Baltimore District I courts are in the same police station locations as before, however. Judge Hargrove states that in the future Northeast and Northern Districts will be closed for example, as courts that "Do not have enough business" to warrant a jurist sitting full time.

Judge Hargrove comes to his post as head of District I with 21 years experience in the field of law.

He began practice in 1950 after finishing the University of Maryland School of Law and in 1957 was named deputy U.S. attorney.

In 1932 he became a People's Court associate judge. He became an associate Municipal Court judge in 1968 and held the post until he was appointed to head the Baltimore District Court System on July 5 by Chief Judge Robert Sweeney.

Judge Hargrove was born Oct. 25, 1923, in Atlantic City, N.J., the son of the late Raymond Hargrove and Mrs. Georgine Hargrove Johnson who resides

Birthday Tribute

DAY — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my dear husband and our dear father, WILLIAM E. on his birthday July 16, who passed away July 23, 1967.

Happy Birthday dear loved one,
May you have many more.
Not on earth, but in Heaven,
In that far off distant shore.
Years come and not present,
Flowers go to your grave.
Oh God, deliver this message,
We miss you dear Eddie on your birthday.

Loving Wife, VIRGINIA and CHILDREN

KEY — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my dear husband, our father and grandfather, REV. VIVIAN T., on his birthday July 16, who passed away November 11, 1970:

Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we loved to hear,
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thought to reach.
Sweet to remember him who was once here,
And who, though absent, is just as dear.

WIFE, CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN

In Memoriam

BENNETT — In loving memory of my wife, MYRTLE BENNETT, who passed away July 17, 1961:

We walked together, you and I,
In sorrow and in joy.
We shared our pains and happiness
With love without alloy.
And death shall never end our love
For then the mist I see,
Our glad reunion in the sky—
For all eternity.

Loving Husband, JOEN BENNETT

BRANCH — In loving memory of our dear daughter and mother, DOROTHY, who passed away July 15, 1958:

It would take a million years,
And a million tears too,
For words to tell you, DOROTHY,
How our hearts still ache for you.

Though days rush by, and busy speed quickly on their way;
The grief we hold within or keep
Lives on from day to day.

Sister, BROTHER, SON and BROTHER

In Memoriam

HOLLAND — In loving memory of our son and brother GREGORY BROOKS, who passed away, July 11, 1969:

Do not ask us if we miss him;
There's such a vacant place,
Oft we think we hear his footsteps
And see his smiling face.
Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Tears in silence often flow;
Memory keeps him ever near us,
Though he left us two years ago.

MOM, DAD and BROTHER

CANADAY — In loving memory of our husband and father, WILLIAM S. CANADAY SR., who passed July 17, 1970:

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.

Wife, MARIE

MILLS — In loving memory of our dear mother, JUDY MILLS, who passed away July 17, 1970:

No one knows how much we miss you;
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered, since we lost you
Life has never been the same.
In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly, tender, fond and true;
There is not a day, dear mother,
That we do not think of you.

From Your Loving FAMILY

Who Miss You So Very Much

ODEN — In loving memory of our mother, MRS. WILLIE ODEN, who passed away July 17, 1966:

God made lots of beautiful things;
Trees and roses, and trees,
Birds, and starlights and loyal friends,
And, after He made all these,
He gave to the earth a gift divine,
Love loving, and more true,
Of all God's gifts, the one most rare—
A Mother as dear as you.

ALBERNA and JOHN

PAMILTON — In loving memory of our beloved aunt, VIOLA JONES PAMILTON, who passed away July 18, 1968:

Remembrance is a golden chain
Death tries to break, but all in vain
To have, to love and then to part
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never.
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.

THE FAMILY

In Memoriam

When you see care for has departed,
And you sit alone and broken-hearted,
There's something in a kindred mind
That always leaves a sense behind
Of true companionship, I know
The pain it was to see you go.
Yet memory softens everything—
The grave its victory — death its sting
We, who loved you, sadly miss you;
We, who held you very dear,
And in lonely hours of thinking
Often feel your presence near.
Though God has taken you away,
You are with us every day.

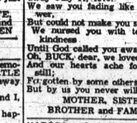
WIFE and SONS

JENKINS — In loving memory of our dear wife, mother and grandmother, FANNIE, who passed away July 16, 1969:

"Gone But Not Forgotten."

Devoted: Husband, FLEET JENKINS, Daughter, EDITH JENKINS Granddaughter, MYRTLE QUEEN Great Granddaughters, WANDA and EDITH QUEEN

JONES — In loving memory of my dear wife, BERNETTA



We will never forget you.

Children, MILDRED GARDNER THELMA GREEN JERRY DIXON

DRAPER — In loving memory of my dear husband, JAMES W., who passed away July 18, 1966:

When the evening shades are falling,
I am sitting all alone,
In my heart there comes a longing
If you only could come home.
Oft and oft my thoughts do wander
To your grave so far away,
Where I laid you, dearest husband,
Five years ago today.

Your loving Wife, CAROLINE DRAPER and THE GIRLS

EARLE — In loving memory of my dear husband and father, RICHARD S. EARLE, who passed away July 14, 1969:

You fought the pain so bravely,
Your head, you did not bend.
We kept the watch with you dear husband and father
Yes, even to the end.
We watched and waited long in vain,
Yet God granted some day we'll meet again.

WIFE and SON

FREEMAN — In loving memory of my dear husband, father and grandfather, MERLIN FREEMAN, who passed away July 19, 1969:

When one you care for has departed,
And you sit alone and broken-hearted,
There's something in a kindred mind
That always leaves a sense behind
Of true companionship, I know
The pain it was to see you go.
Yet memory softens everything—
The grave its victory — death its sting
We, who loved you, sadly miss you;
We, who held you very dear,
And in lonely hours of thinking
Often feel your presence near.
Though God has taken you away,
You are with us every day.

Loving WIFE, DAUGHTER and GRANDCHILDREN

GARDNER — In loving memory of my son, our brother and uncle, CLARENCE (BUD) BERT GARDNER, who passed away July 16, 1970:

We saw you fading like a flower,
But could not make you stay:
We nursed you with tender kindness
Until God called you away.
Oh, BUCK, dear, we loved you and our hearts ache for you still;
Forgotten by some others,
But by us you never will.

MOTHER, SISTERS, BROTHER and FAMILY

HARPER — In loving memory of our dear husband and father, JAMES WILLIAM, who passed away July 5, 1969:

Your gentle face and patient smile
With sadness we recall;
You had a kindly word for all
And died beloved by all.
The voice is mute and stilled the heart,
That loved us well and true,
Ah, little we thought the trial to part
From one so good as you.
You are not forgotten loved one,
Nor will you ever be,
As long as life and memory last,
We will remember thee.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore
As time goes by we miss you more
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can fill your vacant place.

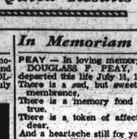
In Memoriam

PEAY — In loving memory of our son and brother GREGORY PEAY, who departed this life July 11, 1967:

There is a soul, but never remembrance,
There is a memory fond and true,
There is a token of affection, dear one,
And a heartache still for you.

Wife, CAROLYN, Son, GUY and Other Members of the Family

RAWLINGS — In memory of my dear husband, JAMES F. RAWLINGS, who departed this life July 17, 1959:



When the evening shades are falling,
And I am sitting all alone,
In my heart there comes a longing
If you only could come home.
Oft and oft my thoughts do wander
To your grave so far away,
Where I laid you, dearest husband.
Two years ago today.

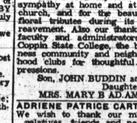
Your Loving Wife, ESTELLA

SHARP — In memory of our loved one DEBRA A. SHARP, who passed away July 18, 1970:

Today our hearts are heavy,
Our thoughts are all of thee.
Oh, how we miss you, DEBRA dear,
None but God in Heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But, no, it isn't true.
For one long year has passed, dear,
And our hearts still ache for you.

From the SHRP FAMILY SHARP FAMILY

WOODLAND — In Memory of my husband and our father, CHARLES F. SR., who passed away July 16, 1964:



He had a smile for everyone
And a heart as good as gold.
For all those who knew him,
