The Governor is required to arrange representation in the House after every National or State census on the following basis: Each of the counties having a population of 18,000 souls or less, shall be entitled to two delegates; every county having a population of 18,000, and less than 28,000 souls, shall be entitled to three delegates; and every county having a population of 28,000, and less than 40,000 souls, shall be entitled to four delegates; and every county having a population of 40,000, and less than 55,000 souls, shall be entitled to five delegates; and every county having a population of 55,000 and upwards, shall be entitled to six delegates and no more; and each of the three Legislative Districts of the City of Baltimore, shall be entitled to the number of Delegates, to which the largest county shall, or may be entitled to under the foregoing apportionment. The General Assembly has power to provide by law, from time to time, for altering and changing the boundaries of the three existing Legislative Districts of the City of Baltimore, so as to make them as near as may be, of equal population; but said districts shall always consist of contiguous territory. (Article III, sections 4 and 5, Constitution.)

Delegates to the House are elected by the qualified voters. (Article III, section 6, Constitution.)

The election of Delegates and one-half of State Senators takes place every two years on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November. (Article III, section 7, Constitution.)
