AIRMAN JAMES E. LEACH — son of Mrs. Dorothy E. Leach of 1929 Hollins St., has been assigned to a unit of the Strategic Air Command at Minot Air Force Base for training and duty as a security policeman. Leach, a graduate of Forest Park High School, is the son of Curtis I. Leach of Brooklyn, N. Y.

If nothing worries you, you don't need a savings account.

Big, brave you. You'll never get sick. Need an operation. Lose a day of work. Or even retire. And what do you want? Not a new house. Or boat. Or furniture. And you'll never have wedding expenses for the kids! Fine. You don't need a savings account. So the worried ones are the ones we're after.

But even if you have everything you want right now—wouldn't it be just a nice, safe, cozy, and secure feeling to know there's some spare cash handy? Put just a little away every payday. You'll be surprised how fast it grows. And how good it makes you feel.

Do as thousands of others do and open a savings account at any Maryland National Bank office. Then relax.

Dr. and Mrs. Welcome see Wailing Wall In Israel

By VERDA F. WELCOME
(State Senator 5th D., Baltimore on Tour of Israel)

The one thing a tourist visiting Israel should not miss is the services held at the WALL every Friday after sundown which is the beginning of Jewish Sabbath.

Thousands of people come from all over Jerusalem to worship.

They pray, they chant and dance. The Old Testament Scriptures are translated before one's eyes:

"Make a joyful noise unto the Lord all ye lands, serve the Lord with gladness; come before his presence with Thanksgiving." It literally carried out in all cincerity.

* *

The Wailing Wall is one of the most sacred places in Israel. It is the only part of the temple left when Jerusalem was destroyed in 70 A.D.

The Jews were deprived of the privilege of going there to pray until the 1967 six day war when they took over the other half of Jerusalem and territory to the Red Sea.

The Jews are so grateful for being able to go to the Wall that sundown on Friday finds all roads filled with people headed in that direction. Tourists head there too.

* * *

The Bar Mitzvah of Conrad Berk — preparations for this ceremony began about 20 years ago. Over 50 friends of the Kolker and Berk families came from Virginia, Philadelphia, Conneticut, Maryland in U.S., London, and other countries to see a dream come true.

The impressive Orthodox ceremony at the wall began at 8:45 a.m. and ended at 10:30 a.m. There were other groups also gathered at the wall for the same purpose. A table with a velvet cover served as the alter.

Each cover had the Star of David in the center. The women are sperated from the men by a six-foot fence.

We stood on benches to enable us to watch the ceremonies over the fence. Even though the sun rays beamed down on our covered heads and arms we loyally stuck with our friends until the ritual was over.

There were a few thousand Jews and Christians gathered together for one reason or another, but for whatever reason, one had a feeling that we were all part of history. It was truly holy ground.

There is always a banquet or celebration after a bar Mitzvah. We all gathered at the King's Hotel to wish the honoree a sweet journey. (Sweets, candy is thrown over the honoree after the ceremony in the same fashion as rice is thrown over the bride and groom after marriage).

After the dinner, Dr. Welcome was invited to visit a South African couple who have been here for about 4 years — Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kanner. She is a former news reporter and he an agriculturist.

They live in New Jerusalem which is very modern and much like the apartment [illegible] But from their porch one [illegible] Old City which is surrounded by the wall. This part of Jerusalem is a tourist's paradise.

Careers program at C.C.B.

The New Careers program of the Community College of Baltimore, under the guidance of Eric L. Byrd, director of New Careers Education Component, has been given the responsibility of designing a set of courses to train community mental health workers.

The purpose of the six and nine month courses is to enable the community mental health workers to respond competently to the general needs of the inner city population they will be serving.

Mr. Byrd commenting on the new concentrated curriculum being developed at the C. C. B said.: "An integral portion of this career curriculum will be to give the students the opportunity to attend various professional seminar and lecture meetings."

Financial support for the program will come from the Concentrated Employment progrim (CEP) and the Model Cities' Training and Technical Assistance Program (TTAP). The C[illegible] will provide a fixed sum of money and an educational materials allowance to the prospective students while TTAP will give tuition grants to students.

Provident Hospital Community Mental Health Center, Joseph House Foundation, and Echo House Foundation will provide the practical job experience.

The program will offer both classroom and clinical work to the students. The 6-month course will offer a minimum of 288 hours of classroom work and 576 hours of clinical experience while the 9-month course will give an extra 192 hours of classwork and 288 hours of clinical experience for those students who do not have a high school diploma.
