Free X-ray vans still in operation

Over 10,000 inner city residents have received free chest X-rays at eight neighborhood locations at the mid-point of the current drive to "Beat the TB Bug."

Purpose of the X-ray drive is to locate persons with suspected or active cases of tuberculosis. During last year's campaign, 24 new active cases of TB were found.

"Through this organized project," Dr. Allan S. Moodie communicable Disease director, said "we've discovered that Baltimore City has a higher yield of TB in our mobile X-ray survey than any other area in the country. Satistically, one out of every 1,000 persons tested had tuberculosis."
